NEWSPAPER DIVISION
STATE LIBRARY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Complete News Markets Sports

THE WEATHER
Cloudy; not much change in temperature; north and northeast winds.
High tide 4:19 a. m.; 4:40 p. m.
Sun rises 7:13; sets 4:31.
Light all vehicles at 5:01 p. m.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

THE Peach

VOL. 23—No. 243 New England Newspaper Pub. Co. BOSTON, MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1927 2 CENTS WITHIN 50 MILES OF BOSTON 3 CENTS

Coolidge Accuses Mexico of Fomenting Revolt

Very Latest News

HUB MAN ASKS RULING ON 12-MILE LIMIT

Whether or not a liquor-carrying craft may be seized beyond the 12-mile limit will be decided upon by the U. S. Supreme Court, it was announced in Washington today, in the case of James M. Lee of Dorchester. Lee's motorboat was seized 24 miles off Boston Light after being observed alongside a rum-runner. Federal District Court held Lee and others guilty of conspiracy, but the Circuit Court reversed the lower court, holding that the evidence had been unlawfully obtained beyond the 12-mile limit.

CURTIUS ASKED TO FORM NEW GERMAN CABINET

Berlin, Jan. 10 (I.N.S.)—President Hindenburg today asked Dr. Curtius, Minister of Commerce in the Marx Cabinet, to form a new Cabinet.

GRIMES TRADED FOR HENLINE

New York, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Burleigh Grimes of Brooklyn was traded today for Catcher Walter Henline of the Phillies. Grimes had been with Brooklyn since 1918.

BAY STATE CONGRESSMEN BREAKFAST WITH "CAL"

Washington, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—All Massachusetts members of the House of Representatives, with the exception of Congressmen Bowles and Gallivan today attended a White House breakfast conference. The Representatives later said only minor legislative problems were discussed.

WEEPING MOTHERS CLAIM 77 FIRE DEAD; MOVIE OWNER HELD

First Exclusive Picture ~ Montreal Fire

THE BURNING LAURIER PALACE, WHERE 77 PERISHED

Today

Religion Still Alive
Justice by Imitation
Husband and Wife, Flying
The Arabs Won't Like It

By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1927, by Star Co.

RABBI BROWNE says Bolshevism has not succeeded in killing religion, as it planned. Religion may be, as Sovietism says on conspicuous signs, "The Opium of the People," but, if so, the people want their opium.

Some that have quit the worship of the old orthodox Christian "Ikons," images of saints and holy men, have substituted a new worship, which he calls "Communistic Ikonolatry." Lenin's Mausoleum is worshipped, as the tombs of the saints are worshipped, and his images are rapidly becoming "holy" images.

IT IS not surprising that a few years of Sovietism should be unable to wipe out the old beliefs. Long years of Universities, public schools and public newspapers have been unable to end belief in the "thirteen" superstitions, and many well educated human beings would not walk under a ladder or sit thirteen at table.

Old superstition goes deep into the brain, science penetrates only a little way, as yet.

STAMFORD'S MAYOR advises lashing husbands that beat their wives. Mere imitation is not the wisest kind of justice, although men have practiced it for ages. If a man stole some-

Please Turn to Page 9, Column 4.

100 HURT IN PANIC AT THEATRE BLAZE

Montreal, Jan. 10.—As grief-stricken parents today claimed the bodies of their children, a thorough investigation was in progress into the disastrous fire in the Laurier Palace Picture Theatre which yesterday caused an official death toll of 77, mostly those of children.

The proprietor of the theatre, Ameen Law, 31, and three employes of the theatre were placed under arrest and released on bail early today. The employes arrested were the assistant manager, Michel Arie; the ticket-taker, Camil Bazzy, and the head usher, Alexander Bazzy, all of whom are said by the police to be Syrians.

Bodies of the tiny victims of the fire were taken chiefly from a stairway, barely 30 feet long, leading from the east end of the theatre gallery to the street, and there was mute evidence that the children were trapped here in panic when within but a few feet of the street and safety.

A hundred persons were injured. One of these, a child, died late today, swelling the original death toll of 76 to 77.

Virtually all of the victims were less than 16 years of age.

Mayor Martin today issued a message of condolence to the bereaved parents of the dead and the Montreal Theatre Managers' Association opened subscriptions for a relief fund of at least $10,000.

Children Trampled to Death

The fire did not seriously damage the building, and only a few of the victims were burned. Most of them were crushed or suffocated when, crazed by panic, they jammed the two exits from the balcony, making it impossible for any to get out of the building.

Those in front of the crowd fought and struggled to be first out, while those behind pressed toward the doors. Those in the front went down, and those behind piled upon them until the little bodies lay dozens deep.

About a thousand persons were in the theatre when the fire broke out. Ninety per cent. of them were children under 16.

The fire broke out during the matinee performance. The feature picture was "Sparrows," with Mary Pickford in the lead. A comedy, entitled "Get 'Em Young," was on the screen when the flames started in the balcony about fifty feet from the projection booth. With the appearance of the first tongue of flame a cry of "Fire!" sounded through the building.

Ten minutes later the cries of the struggling, injured and dying children could be heard a full block from the theatre. The exits were so blocked by those trying to escape and by those being trampled in and around the doors that firemen who had rushed to the scene from the fire station just across the street were unable to gain entrance.

Thick, black smoke filled the building and quickly suffocated the little ones unable to escape.

Please Turn to Page 6, Column 1.

QUITS SICK BED TO WED; DIES ON HIS HONEYMOON

Peabody, Jan. 10.—Because he left his sick bed to keep his promise to wed his sweetheart, John F. Hingston of this town, is dead and his bride of little more than a week is a widow. His funeral will take place Wednesday morning.

Hingston, who had been ill with the grip, left his bed on New Year's Eve and was married to Miss Mary J. O'Keefe of Boston street, Salem, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. George Houston of St. James' Church.

The couple started on their wedding trip and while at a Boston hotel the groom's condition became such that he had to be taken home. Double pneumonia set in and caused his death. Besides his widow he is survived by his mother, a sister and three brothers. He was employed by the L. E. Southwick Leather Company

MAYOR FLAYS FIN. COM. FOR 'SHARP PRACTICES'

"The Finance Commission practice is to score a point and be sharp and unfair in taking every advantage."

This was declared today by Mayor Nichols, during his second annual address before the City Council, in scoring the Finance Commission for alleged "unfair and sharp practices."

"The Commission should carefully refrain from interference with the transaction of public business," he said, "and, above all, it should be fair.

"Frequently of late I have been asked if I did not favor the abolition of the Boston Finance Commission, and my reply has been in the negative. It could render a real service if it would lift its activities to the purpose for which it was created."

The Mayor advocated adoption of a State gasoline tax, out of whose

Please Turn to Page 4, Column 1.

COOLIDGE, IN MESSAGE, DENOUNCES MEXICANS

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Correspondent.

Washington, Jan. 10.—President Coolidge today answered the critics of his Mexican-Nicaraguan policy by sending to Congress a special message in which, after reviewing the events leading up to the dispatch of 15 American warships and 5,000 men to Caribbean waters, he virtually accused the Mexican government of fomenting the present Nicaraguan revolution.

"Consequently," his message concluded, "I have deemed it my duty to use the powers committed to me to insure the adequate protection of all American interests in Nicaragua, whether they be endangered by internal strife or by outside interference in the affairs of that republic."

Mr. Coolidge did not ask Congress for any additional authority to meet the situation that has arisen below the Rio Grande. His message, in fact, asked for nothing—it merely reviewed the situation existing there, the events leading up to it and explained the administration's present policy.

Concerning Mexico's relation to the situation, the message said:

"As a matter of fact, I have the most conclusive evidence that arms and munitions in large quantities have been on several occasions since August, 1926, shipped to the revolutionists in Nicaragua.

ACCUSES MEXICO.

"Boats carrying these munitions have been fitted out in Mexican ports and some of the munitions bear evidence of having belonged to the Mexican government.

"It also appears that the ships were fitted out with the full knowledge of and, in some cases, with the encouragement of Mexican officials, and were in one instance at least commanded by a Mexican naval reserve officer."

The President "deplored" the need for intervening in Nicaraguan affairs.

Please Turn to Page 3, Column 1.

AIMEE CASE DROPPED; ORMISTON FREE, TOO

Los Angeles, Jan. 10.—District Attorney Asa Keyes today requested and was granted dismissal of criminal conspiracy charges against Evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson, but reiterated his charges that she had left here in the company of Kenneth G. Ormiston, her former radio operator, and not in the hands of kidnapers, as Mrs. McPherson steadfastly declared.

Keyes came into the court of Judge Albert Lee Stephens, where Ormiston, former Temple radio operator, appeared for arraignment on an indictment charging conspiracy and said:

"I recommend the dismissal of charges against Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson and her co-defendant, Kenneth G. Ormiston, her mother, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, and Mrs. Lorraine Wetsman-Sielaff."

Judge Stephens granted the request.

The State had charged that Ormiston had assisted the evangelist in the alleged disappearance "hoax."

Keyes said he dropped the case for lack of sufficient evidence.

Solds Theatre—Dr. Hilton's No. 5 Drives off colds quickly. Safe for all.—Advt.

WATCHMAN BATTLES 2 ARMED THUGS IN GARAGE

A garage watchman and two would-be safe-crackers "shot it out" early today in a dark Roslindale garage, the duel ending when the thugs fled before a rain of bullets from the watchman's gun.

William McLean of No. 25 Heron road, West Roxbury, the watchman, intercepted the intruders after they gained entrance to his place of employment, at the Hussey Motor Company, at No. 4185 Washington street.

About ten shots were exchanged during the gun fight. The watchman escaped injury. Whether either of the bandits was wounded McLean was unable to say.

Please Turn to Page 2, Column 3.

U. S. Treasury Balance

Washington, Jan. 10.—Today's balances, $17,331,739,

Bank Statement

Boston balance ..... $ 31,000,00
Boston clearance 67,000,00
New York balance 101,000,00
New York clearance 499,000,00

SKIING IS LOADS OF FUN
DRIVE OUT IN YOUR CAR
See Today's Used Car Offerings
Classification 150
CLASSIFIED ADS

INDEPENDENT TAXI OPERATORS' ASS'N
TAXIS
Have Abolished All Insurance Charges
We feel that increased volume of business will overcome our additional expense. The I. T. O. A. pledges itself to keep up its high standard and to merit a continuance of your patronage.
Don't Go Astray — Insist On an I. T. O. A.
PAY NO TAX
HANCOCK 8700

WILDEY SAVINGS BANK
SE BOYLSTON ST., BOSTON
Deposits Go on Interest
JANUARY 15
Join Our Christmas Club

COOLIDGE ACCUSES MEXICO OF FOMENTING WAR IN NICARAGUA

REPLIES TO CRITICS IN CONGRESS

Continued from First Page.

...ture, but declared that it was necessary for the protection of American lives and property, and to protect the canal rights which the United States purchased from Nicaragua in 1914 at a cost of $3,000,000.

"The proprietary rights of the United States in the Nicaraguan canal route, with the necessary implication growing out of it affecting the Panama Canal, together with the obligations flowing from the investments of all classes of our citizens in Nicaragua, places us in a position of peculiar responsibility," he said.

"I am sure it is not the desire of the United States to intervene in the internal affairs of Nicaragua or any other Central American Republic.

VITAL INTEREST TO US.

Nevertheless, it must be said that we have a very definite and special interest in the maintenance and order of good government in Nicaragua at the present time, and that the stability, prosperity and independence of all Central American countries can never be a matter of indifference to us.

"The United States cannot, therefore, fail to view with deep concern any serious threat to stability and constitutional government in Nicaragua tending toward anarchy and jeopardizing American interest, especially if such state of affairs is contributive to or brought about by outside influences or by any foreign power.

"It has always been and remains the policy of the United States in such circumstances to take the steps that may be necessary for the preservation and protection of the lives, the property and the interests of its citizens and of this government itself. In this respect I propose to follow the path of my predecessors."

Discussing financial aspects the message said:

"There is no question that if the revolution continues, American investment and business interest in Nicaragua will be very seriously affected, if not destroyed, with the result that American as well as foreign bondholders will rely upon America for the protection of their interests.

"It is true that the United States did not establish the financial plan by any treaty, but nevertheless did aid through diplomatic channels and advise in the negotiations and establishment of this plan for the financial rehabilitation of Nicaragua."

U. S. LIVES IN DANGER.

Establishment of two new neutral zones in Nicaragua was reported to the State Department today by Rear Admiral Latimer. A department announcement said: "A report from Admiral Latimer states that business along the Escondido River has been paralyzed, property has been seized, conditions are becoming serious so far as American lives and property are concerned.

"The revolutionary forces have already interfered with the shipment of provisions for the mahogany companies' employes.

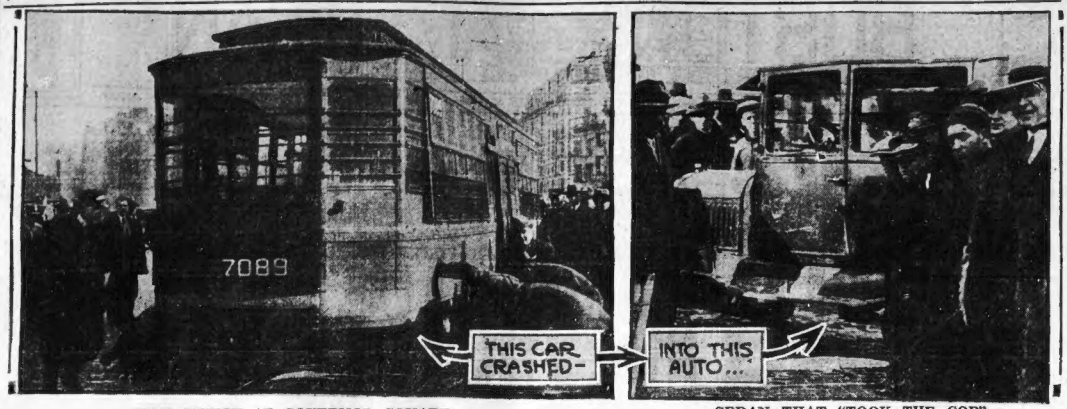
"The admiral also reports that he has established neutral zones at Chinapolka and at Pearl Lagoon."

Sacasa's Aid Cables Borah Assuring Respect for U. S.

San Jose, Costa Rica, Jan. 10 (A.P.). — Senor Urcuyo, representative of Dr. Juan Sacasa, head of the Liberal Government at Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, has cabled United States Senator Borah assuring him of complete respect for North American life and property by Nicaraguan Liberals.

From comment, here is generally favorable to Senator Borah's attitude on the Nicaraguan situation.

Traffic Officer Hurt ~ When Trolley Train ~ Crashes Into Auto



SPLIT SWITCH AT GOVERNOR SQUARE

Policeman Rudolph R. Lever, who was directing traffic from a stand, was injured in the left leg and back when the second car of an outward bound Beacon street-Reservoir two-car train pushed his stand six feet and then crashed into a Ford sedan operated by Cornelius J. Covnel of Bennett street, Brighton.

SEDAN THAT "TOOK THE COP"

The glass of the automobile windows was smashed and mudguard bent. The operator was not hurt. Traffic on Commonwealth avenue and Beacon streets was tied up an hour while a wrecking crew got the train going.

WATCHMAN FIGHTS THUGS

Continued from First Page.

McLean was reclining on a couch in the office when a noise from the direction of the washing room aroused him. The garage, at the time, was in darkness. Using a flashlight, McLean stepped out of the office to investigate the noise and discovered two men. McLean was unarmed.

As the beam from his light revealed them, one of the pair whipped out a gun and fired. The bullet whizzed by McLean's head and buried itself in the ceiling.

"We are going to blow this safe, and if you make any fuss we'll 'do a job' on you," one of the pair said. "Get back in the office and keep quiet."

Apparently cowed, the watchman retreated to the office, while one of the thugs took possession of his flashlight. The thug with the light walked to the cash drawer but, on seeing that it was an electric contrivance operated only when the garage lights were on, refused to touch it.

SEIZES PISTOL.

As the ray of the flashlight withdrew from him for an instant, McLean seized an automatic pistol from a shelf over the couch.

At that instant one of the thugs sighted McLean's gun and shouted "Look out, he's got a 'gat'!"

The flashlight went out. Streaks of fire split the darkness as both men opened fire on McLean. He, in turn, sent back shot for shot and the pair broke for cover, racing toward the back of the garage. McLean switched on the lights and gave chase but, by "ducking" around parked automobiles, the would-be robbers reached the repair shop in the rear of the garage and they escaped through a rear door.

FLED IN MACHINE.

A squad of policemen from station 17 responded to an emergency call but were unable to find any trace of the men. It is thought they escaped in an automobile while McLean was telephoning the alarm.

He was unable to give but a meagre description of the men. Both, he said were about 25 years old.

McLean said there was about $25 in the cash drawer. He was unable to say how much money the safe contained. If Saturday's receipts were not banked, he said, it probably held several hundred dollars.

Eat and sleep under the same roof. Many rooms with board just like home. Rates in the Classified Ads. Classification 87.

PUTS BULLET IN WALL

Showing William McLean of West Roxbury pointing to bullet hole he made in wall of garage at No. 4185 Washington street, Roslindale, when he surprised two safe-crackers in the place, and drove them off in a lively shooting match.

SINCLAIR DENIED REVIEW IN SENATE CONTEMPT CASE

Washington, Jan. 10.—Harry F. Sinclair was denied a review today by the Supreme Court in his contempt of the Senate case growing out of his refusal to answer inquiries of the Senate oil committee.

'ALKY' DEATHS INCREASE

Providence, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Deaths from alcoholism in Providence in 1926 jumped more than 80 per cent. over those of 1925, figures made public today by City Registrar Charles V. Chapin show.

According to these records there were thirty-one deaths during 1926, as compared with nineteen the previous year.

In 1918, the year before prohibition, Providence showed twelve deaths from alcoholism and the following years, the first of prohibition, the number dropped to eight. In 1920 it was down to a single death. In 1922 the records gave fifteen and then the figures began to mount steadily.

MOTHER-IN-LAW OF MAYOR NICHOLS' BROTHER DEAD

Mrs. Annie E. Burke, mother-in-law of Nathaniel F. P. Nichols, brother of Mayor Nichols, and mother of the late Joseph E. Burke, died at the Nichols' home in Winthrop today. She was born in Ellsworth, Me., came to Boston when a child and lived in the Mission parish of Roxbury for 50 years. Ten years ago she and her husband, John Burke, moved to Winthrop to live with their son-in-law, a deputy in the internal revenue service. The funeral will be held from the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Winthrop, Wednesday morning. Her husband and two daughters, Misses Catherine and Ellen Burke, survive.

CREW OF BURNING BOAT LAND AT GLOUCESTER

Gloucester, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Three men who were aboard the power boat Little Margaret when it caught fire in Gloucester Bay yesterday, were landed safely today. They had been picked up almost immediately after they abandoned their boat by the steamer Lucretia, a gill-netter, Captain Frank Sinagra and two others made up the crew.

The rescue of the trio was not revealed until the Lucretia put in here today. The Little Margaret foundered while coast guardsmen were trying to tow her in.

Victim of Stabber

IN BRIDGEPORT

Charlotte Mosseau, 19, slashed about face by a man near her home in Bridgeport, Conn. Her mother charges the stabber is known but his father's wealth and position protect him.

BARNARD MILL WEAVERS RESUME WORK WEDNESDAY

Fall River, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Weavers in the employ of the Barnard Manufacturing Company voted today to return to work next Wednesday, accepting propositions made to their representatives by the mill management at a conference last Friday. The offer of the mill officials was to pay 55 cents per cut instead of 54 cents, the price paid before the strike. Lemo weavers will go back on a six-loom instead of an eight-loom basis.

NEW BEDFORD MILLS TO CLOSE

New Bedford, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—The Manomet Mills, New Bedford's largest cotton yarn manufacturing unit, with a total spindleage of 318,000 and employing between 4,000 and 4,500 in normal times, are to be closed down indefinitely just as soon as the stock in process is run off.

William Whitman, president of the corporation, said today that he could not tell for how long the plant would be shut down, and gave no reason other than the obvious one that conditions prevailing in the cotton industry today make it impossible for Manomet to operate at a profit.

The plant consists of three mills. Reports that the corporation might be liquidated were not confirmed in official quarters, where it was said that such action would necessitate the approval of the stockholders. No steps to call a meeting of the stockholders have been taken, it was said.

DEATH CLAIMS TWO WATERFRONT FIGURES

Two waterfront figures today are mourned by the "fraternity" with the passing of John P. Johnson, Commissioner of Immigration, and William M. Gilman, former chief of steamboat inspectors at this port.

Johnson, whose re-appointment was confirmed in the U. S. Senate five days ago, died at his Newton home, No. 324 Adams street, losing a battle against an incurable illness.

Gilman, veteran of the Spanish and Civil Wars, died at his Water street home, Hingham. He was a familiar figure on the old Hingham-Boston boats, later transferring to the Nantasket line. He was appointed to chief a few years later. He retired three years ago. Funeral services are to be held at the Hingham Baptist Church, Wednesday.

Missing Ship Located

The mysterious disappearance of the British steamer Woodville, which sailed from this port January 3, was partly cleared today with receipt of a message from Bermuda saying the vessel had been ashore there and re-floated.

MEXICO REVOLT IS PROCLAIMED IN EL PASO

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 10.—A state of revolution in Mexico was declared in a manifesto issued here today by elements that have been organizing during the last two months.

The announcement was made through Jose F. Ganbara, an El Paso business man for the last thirteen years, who is proclaimed chief of military operations or secretary of war, for the new government.

Raids upon the International railroad between Mexico City and Laredo, twenty miles south of Saltillo, destruction of two bridges and narrow escape of the International train which left Mexico City on Friday for Laredo, were reported to the war department in Mexico City today.

The vigilance of railroad employes who managed to dispatch a warning caused the International train to halt at Gomez Farias, twenty-five miles south of Saltillo, while the troops cleared the line.

The war department also announced that fifteen rebels had been killed in a fight near Salazar, in the State of Mexico. The rebels were commanded by Manuel Reyes, who held up several automobiles on the Cuernavaca road a week ago and sacked the town of Acapulco.

New York, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Rene Capistran Garza, mentioned in El Paso dispatches as the provisional president of the "new government" in Mexico, is vice-president of the Mexican National League for the Defense of Religious Liberty.

He was among those arrested last July when the Mexican government closed the offices of the league, and was accused of having signed an appeal for an economic boycott in Mexico against the new religious regulations.

Nicaragua's Envoy to U. S. Blames Soviet Russia

New York, Jan. 10 (I.N.S.).—Approval of President Coolidge's Nicaraguan policy was expressed today by Alejandro Cesar, Nicaraguan minister to the United States, on his arrival from Central America.

He charged that the Soviet government of Russia, through President Calles of Mexico, is supporting the Sacasa rebellion in Nicaragua.

"If the rebels do not receive further support from Mexico," he stated, "the constitutional government can and will defeat them. All good Nicaraguans are pleased with the manner in which the American legation is attempting to restore peace. We of the constitutional government are convinced that the Soviet government is behind the rebels' support."

Boston Sends Many Ships South to Join War Fleet

The destroyer Overton with a crew of 108 officers and men, sailed from the Boston Navy Yard today for Guantanamo Bay, the southern drill ground of the fleet.

The Overton has been undergoing repairs at the local yard and is in readiness to proceed to Central American waters if her services are needed. The navy yard is practically deserted of destroyers and other ships, eight having sailed within the last ten days for the southern drill grounds.

The minesweepers Lark and Mallard and the minelayer Mohan and the Maury Maury are undergoing repairs, which are expected to be completed next week, when the four of them will leave for Guantanamo Bay. The cruiser Detroit sailed from the yard today for a three-day cruise and will return on Thursday.

HIGH SCHOOL LIQUOR RUMOR STARTS PROBE

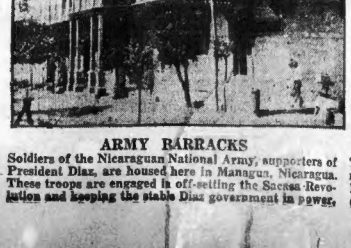
Brockton, Jan. 10.—A rumor—but only a rumor—that liquor was present at the Brockton High School senior social last Friday night, will be investigated by Principal Lewis E. Kyes, he said today.

The principal declared he was present at the social and was watchful, but saw no liquor or any evidence there had been any liquor.

Revolt-Torn Nicaragua ~ Where U. S. Marines Are ~ Protecting American Interests

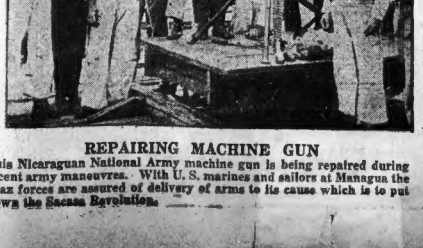
WHEN PEACE REIGNED

This shows the dedication of a monument in Granada, Nicaragua, to the heroes of the independence of Nicaragua. American sailors and marines are in Managua to protect U. S. interests



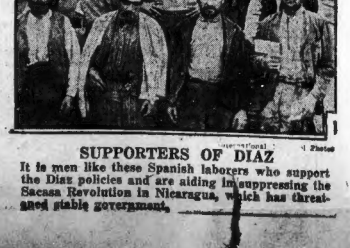
ARMY BARRACKS

Soldiers of the Nicaraguan National Army, supporters of President Diaz, are housed here in Managua, Nicaragua. These troops are engaged in off-setting the Sacasa Revolution and keeping the stable Diaz government in power.



REPAIRING MACHINE GUN

This Nicaraguan National Army machine gun is being repaired during recent army maneuvres. With U. S. marines and sailors at Managua the Diaz forces are assured of delivery of arms to its cause which is to put down the Sacasa Revolution.



SUPPORTERS OF DIAZ

It is men like these Spanish laborers who support the Diaz policies and are aiding in suppressing the Sacasa Revolution in Nicaragua, which has threatened stable government.

RICH FATHER NEAR DEATH AS SON PLEADS FOR AID

JENNY LIND'S TRIUMPH SCENE IS DOOMED

HIGHER COMPENSATION IS URGED FOR BAY STATE

Miss Margaret McNally, Beacon street beauty specialist, claims she was left $8,000 by Samuel W. Sheldon of Duxbury, but that the will was unsigned.

ERRING BOY, LIFE IN PERIL, BEGS HELP

New York, Jan. 10.—"Ask dad to help me—"

A broken lad, sorry that he had tried to kill himself for love of a butterfly girl, gasped that plea from his cot in Bellevue Hospital. He is recovering.

He is William J. Wilgus, Jr., son of the man who designed the Grand Central Terminal in New York, one of the most famous structures in the world.

A telegram sent to the senior Wilgus at Acutneyville, Vt., remained unanswered. A phone message was intercepted by the millionaire's secretary, who said:

"Mr. Wilgus has nothing to say. The father is critically ill and may be dying.

Young Wilgus is the chap who turned his back on his family so he could express himself in poetry, written in a Bilgith street hall bedroom. It was there he met Vivienne Minor.

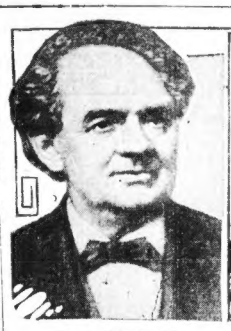
Two days before Christmas she killed herself, leaving behind a note blaming Wilgus, saying that he had jilted her. The lad tramped the streets begging money with which to save her body from Potter's field. Then, overtaken by remorse, he swallowed an overdose of sleeping tablets Friday night, and was picked up on the street, unconscious a few hours later.

In a few lucid moments he explained his act.

"Vivienne killed herself because I upbraided her for drinking," he said. "Then everybody slandered her. People pointed accusing fingers. Death was good enough for her, and I decided it was good enough for me—especially as the world turned against me, too, when I wanted to make good in life."

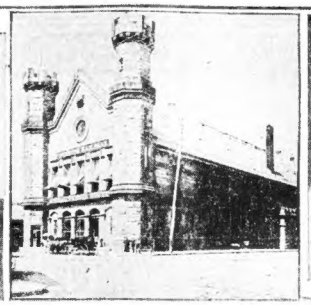
The last words the boy spoke before falling off into a troubled sleep were:

"Won't you ask dad to help me?"



P. T. BARNUM

Jenny Lind appeared under the direction of Barnum in the Depot Hall, above the Fitchburg Station, which is to be removed. A garage and stores will rise on the site.



OLD LANDMARK TO GO

The Fitchburg Depot, built in 1847, and for nearly 80 years one of the most distinctive structures in New England, will be razed soon. It was the largest auditorium in New England when Jenny Lind appeared there.

JENNY LIND

"The Swedish Nightingale" scored one of her greatest triumphs in Depot Hall when she appeared under Barnum's direction in 1850.

A. F. OF L. PLAN REJECTED BY 4-1 VOTE

Increases in the minimum and maximum rates of weekly compensation from $7 to $10 to $9 and $18, and an increase in the maximum amount payable from $4,000 to $5,000, is urged in the report of the special legislative commission created to investigate the operation of the present Workmen's Compensation act.

In a four-to-one decision the commission reported adversely on the proposal of the American Federation of Labor for an exclusive State fund, based on the so-called Ohio plan.

The majority report declared that the present Massachusetts plan is so much more efficient and equitable in actual operation, that the interests both of the injured and employers and of the employers are better protected and served thereby than they would be under State fund."

JOYCE DISSENTS.

Those signing the report were Charles P. Curtis, Jr., of Boston, chairman; Samuel B. Woodward of Worcester, Alfred R. White of Taunton and James Tansey, the latter a textile labor official of Fall River. The dissenter, Martin T. Joyce of Quincy, secretary-treasurer of the Massachusetts Branch of the A. F. of L., filed a minority report recommending the State fund feature to the Legislature.

Another minority report submitted by Curtis and Tansey, without dissenting from conclusions or recommendations of the commission, make the additional recommendation of a constitutional amendment to make the compensation act compulsory. They point out that there are three classes of employers who have not accepted the act and whose employees are deprived of its benefits.

These are the small employer, with no financial responsibility; the employer who fears only the occasional and major accident, and the big employer who tries to be liberal in the treatment of his employes that he can take the chance of being sued, even without the protection of

Please Turn to Page 3, Column 6.

DANCER'S TOE HURT

Feon Vanmar, Follies girl, has sued the Yellow Cab Company because a taxi stopped right on her foot.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN — GENERAL NEWS SECTION

A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

BOSTON, MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1927

SOREL LAYS WREATH

CLAIMS KINSHIP WITH LAFAYETTE

Maj.-Gen. Clarence R. Edwards stands by as the great dramatic star pays honor to the French general on the mall of the Common named after him. Then she gave the YD leader a resounding kiss as they parted on Tremont street.

Boston Evening American Staff Photo

'DADDY OF YD' SMACKED BY ACTRESS

A resounding smack echoed the length of Tremont street, opposite Boston Common, today, and Major-General Clarence R. Edwards, "Daddy of the YD," was overcome in ambush for the first time in his military career.

Cecile Sorel, reputed as the world's greatest actress and the successor of Bernhardt, kissed the general fiercely after she had placed a wreath at the foot of Lafayette's statue in honor of her countryman.

She claims to be a descendant of the marquis who threw his lot in with America when this country was young and troubled, and she took her first opportunity to do him honor on arriving in the Hub for her dramatic presentations at the Boston Opera House.

General Edwards represented the army, Captain Harry D. Cooke and Commander Leland Jordan, Jr., the navy; Colonel Harry O. Smith and Erik W. Ojerholm, Floyd D. Barnett and John E. Young, the marines, and State Commander William F. Brown and Asst. Adjutant Wilfred A. Weatherbee, the G. A. R.

J. C. Faunmand, the French consul, was present in his official capacity.

EARNING HIS TUITION

TAKES A STRONG BACK FOR THIS

Morris Minsk of Chelsea, Tech student, juggles freight at a warehouse in Charlestown in the early morning to help pay for his institute expenses. James Holmes of the Wright-Zeigler Co. balances a heavy crate on his back.

DECOURCY FILES HIS INTENTIONS OF MARRIAGE

Although "no definite plans have been made for the wedding," marriage intentions were filed at city Hall today for John H. DeCourcy, son of the late Judge Charles A. DeCourcy, and Miss Frances K. Brewster, daughter of William H. Brewster of Boston and Newburyport.

The engagement of the couple was announced last August by the bride-to-be's father. At that time no arrangements for the marriage had been made, and according to Mrs. Charles A. DeCourcy today, "the marriage intentions is for future use, and nothing definite has been arranged."

Miss Brewster is 20 years old and is a lineal descendant of William Brewster. She attended St. Margaret's School and Miss Walker's School in Roxbury, Cl.

Mr. DeCourcy lives with his mother at No. 25 Mt. Vernon street, Beacon Hill. He is 27, a graduate of Harvard College, class of '24.

MikeCudahy, 19, is rich and he went to jail for a day because he wanted to wed Marie Astaire. She's moaning over her fate and Mike's, but he wrote "Don't lose your sense of humor" on that picture.

LOVE FOILED, SHE'S SAD

Geraldine Farrar of Golden Voice Still Charms All Who See and Hear Her

NICHOLS SPURNS GOV. FULLER'S CITY FINANCE RECOMMENDATION

Continued from First Page.

fund a substantial proportion should be set aside for improvement of city streets.

Although Mayor Nichols has completed one year of his present term, it was the first time that he had set foot in the City Council chamber since his inaugural. His presence had been requested many times, but he never availed himself of the opportunity until today.

He told the Council that he differed from Governor Fuller who, in his recent inaugural, recommended that Boston should adhere to the Municipal Finance Act. The mayor pointed out that to do so would greatly hinder and retard the appropriating power of the city.

"Our credit is the best of any large city in the country, as shown by the high market value of our bonds," the Mayor said.

"With all respect due the recommendation of His Excellency the Governor, I am unable to agree with him that the policy ought to be changed.

WARNS LEGISLATURE.

"It seems to me a mistake for the Legislature to take from Boston any part of the slight freedom she now enjoys in the conduct of her own affairs and to place her under restrictions which would further cramp her activities."

Referring to the tax rate for this year, the Mayor said:

"The taxpayers have borne a high tax rate with patience, it seems to me, because they felt the administration had made an effort to be candid about it.

"Nevertheless, a steady rise in the tax rates is regrettable and a sharp rise is serious. During my administration I do not expect to see a tax rate as high as the present and I am confident that this year we shall announce a rate that will be regarded as a substantial reduction. Anyway, it will be lower."

URGES GASOLINE TAX.

In advocating a gasoline tax, the Mayor said: "The cities contribute about 60 per cent. of the registration fees of automobiles, but in addition must now finance out of taxes all their own street improvements.

"Consideration should be given the question of the gasoline tax and the use of some substantial proportion of such funds upon city street improvements."

In his address the Mayor referred to the Governor Square Act when he said:

"I have urged upon the Elevated the prompt adoption of the act providing for an extension of the subway under Governor square (Kenmore station). The Elevated ought to do this both for itself and for the city.

"I believe the Governor Square act could be accepted whether the Elevated is recognized or not. It ought not to depend upon the reorganization."

He told of the abolishment of temporary portable schools and the provision for permanent seats for 3,500 pupils. Seventeen new schools were accepted by the schoolhouse department and of this number eight were begun during the year. This department has spent a sum greater than in any fiscal year in the history of the city on repairs and alterations of schoolhouses.

Outlining the $1,000,000 street laying-out program of the past year, he stated that thirty-nine new streets had been laid out and plans for twelve others are very near completed.

In reviewing the police department the Mayor praised Police Commissioner Wilson as a highly competent official and in justifying his approval of appointment of 300 additional patrolmen, he said. "The wisdom of this step has amply justified the resulting expense.

"Not only have the additional police rendered essential service in the regulation of traffic, but at a period remarkable for the boldness and frequency of crime they have furnished a reserve vital in the protection of property and human life.

FIRE LOSS REDUCED.

He dwelt briefly on the fire department and the reorganization under his direction.

"Results have been gratifying," he said. "The actual fire loss for 1926 is estimated at over $1,000,000 less than the fire loss in 1925 and less than in several years previous."

The Mayor praised the Health Department for its activities and pointed out that the Boston milk supply is nearly 100 per cent pasteurized and "probably is not excelled by that of any other American city."

Boston was given full credit for the enactment of the Swift River plan (water supply) by X. H. Goodenough, chief engineer of the State Board of Health, who called her leadership a controlling factor in securing for Boston and for the metropolitan district a water of the highest quality, superior to the water supply of any other great city, continued the Mayor.

The installation of the new boulevard type of street lights in the various thoroughfares of the city and a defense of the new snow removal equipment and the improved system of the collection of ashes and garbage were next in line of the Mayor's address.

New buildings and more extensive service at the City Hospital have been provided to meet the growing problems of that splendid institution, the Mayor told his hearers.

Additional health units to be built under the terms of the will of the late George Robert White and the abolition of the so-called "baby farms" housing the city wards were organizations," he said.

recommended

The Mayor then told of the new traffic highways that were completed and started in the first year and the appointment of a traffic advisory board to study traffic conditions, "whose members reflect the views of various trade and business

High Lights From Mayor Nichols' Council Address

Demands lower tax rate this year.

Charges Finance Commission is unfair.

Advocates a gasoline tax to provide street improvements.

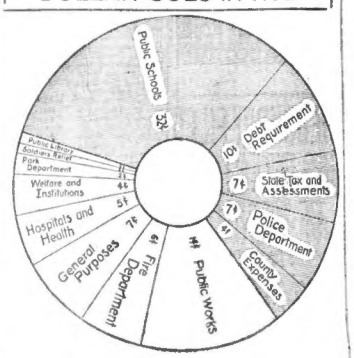
Differs from Governor Fuller on Municipal Finance act.

Protests Legislature taking from Boston any of slight freedom now enjoyed in conduct of her own affairs.

Urges prompt adoption by the Elevated of the Governor Square act for extension of the subway from Kenmore station.

Praises Police Commissioner Wilson as "highly competent."

THIS IS THE WAY THE TAX DOLLAR GOES IN HUB



HOW THE $31.80 IS SUBDIVIDED

Under the financial control of the mayor, $12.72, or 40 per cent. Not under financial control of the mayor, $19.08, or 60 per cent.

For Southern Wear

Flannels

and sport clothes quickly and efficiently refreshed at small cost.

BOSTON DYE HOUSE, Inc.
Works at Malden

"Our Service may also be had through the Better Tailors."

GOLDEN RULE CLEANERS

Malden 2000

A BIRTHDAY SALE OF PROGRESS VALUE

1851 Every Item in this Sale EQUALS or SURPASSES the Diamond Jubilee Values of a Year Ago 1927

On Sale TUESDAY—

Decorative Black and Gold

Pottery Table Lamps

Complete with Silk Shade

Usually 32.50 — 21.50 — Usually 32.50

These unusually attractive shades come in fine desirable styles.

The varied colors of the shades afford an interesting choice.

Georgette Bed Lamps
In many desirable colors
2.50
Usually 3.50

Wrought Iron Bridge Lamps
With parchment paper shades
4.00
Usually 5.50

Fourth floor of the Annex

Additional Ladder of Progress Ads in Other Daily Papers

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

A

STATEMENT

By the President of Dodge Brothers, Inc.

Within a few months, Dodge Brothers, Inc., will introduce a new line of motor cars, in no way conflicting with the market for Dodge Brothers present types, but occupying a considerably higher price field and produced in limited quantities.

Combining Dodge Brothers well known dependability with exceptional performance and striking beauty of appointment and design, these distinguished vehicles, we believe, will instantly set a new and higher standard in fine car practice.

Dodge Brothers will continue to produce their present line in maximum quantities to meet a demand which, during the year just ended, was very much the largest in their history, reaching the record total of 330,000 cars.

Edward G. Budd

MAINE JUSTICE IN HUB FOR OPERATION

Justice Luere B. Deasy of the Maine Supreme Court bench, who has been under treatment several days at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital, will undergo a major surgical operation tomorrow, according to word sent to relatives at his home in Bar Harbor. A telegram sent to his daughter, Mrs. Asa Hodgkins, said his condition is good. Mrs. Deasy, wife of Judge Deasy, and his son-in-law, Asa Hodgkins, are with him in Boston.

SAYS HE KILLED WOMAN BECAUSE HE LOVED HER

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Police announced today that Marshall Sokens, twenty-eight, had confessed to the killing of Mrs. Grace Bennett, divorcee, whose body was found on the porch of her boarding house here Saturday. The man said he shot Mrs. Bennett, a drugstore employe, because he "loved her more than anything else in the world, but she didn't care for me and had plotted to kill me."

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO CRASH AT NO. STATION

One woman was injured and two other women accompanying her escaped injury today when a taxi and an express truck collided at North Station. The injured woman, Mrs. Carmello Deneri, 38, of Charter street, North End, was removed to Haymarket Square Relief Hospital, in a taxi, for treatment. Her chest and abdomen were injured.

According to the police, Mrs. Deneri was riding in a cab operated by Charles Miller of St. Botolph street, Back Bay, when the cab was sideswiped by an express truck operated by John Newton of Main street, Everett.

TWO HURT AS TRUCK SIDESWIPES FLIVVER

Passing too close on the state road curve at Clary Pond, Lexington a light truck and a flivver sideswiped today and turned over, the two occupants of the truck being pinned beneath their machine.

Amos B. Girvin, driver, of Main street, Gardner, and Alfred Woolston, twenty-eight, of Bolton street, Clinton, were taken to the Lexington Cottage Hospital, suffering from bruises and lacerations.

GIRL, 17, KILLED BY WIFE OF 21 IN JEALOUSY

Chester, Pa., Jan. 10 (A.P.)—A mother, 21, today shot and killed a girl, 17, whom she accused of alienating her husband's affections.

The dead girl was Catherine Cardello, and the wife, Mrs. Julia Fidale, whose husband, Samuel, is owner of a poolroom. They have two children.

"I warned her. I warned him. I warned them both," said Mrs. Fidale.

The shooting occurred in Miss Cardello's bedroom in the presence of her mother, Mrs. Mary Cardello, and her brother. She died in a hospital.

"This affair had to end," said Mrs. Fidale, surrendering her pistol to police. "I am sorry it ended this way, for I am worried about my children. What will become of them now that I am arrested?"

Mrs. Fidale said she asked the girl to come to see her to make a final effort to have her stay away from her husband, but she would not.

"This morning I made up my mind to go to see her and have it out with her, and went to her house," Mrs. Fidale said.

The girl was in bed when she called and was invited to her room by the mother. "I gave her final warning to stay away from my husband," continued Mrs. Fidale. "But she said she would not, and started screaming.

"...sister and brother ran into the room and all three attacked me. I broke away, pulled my revolver from a pocket of my dress and shot twice."

MARRIAGE HASN'T HAD FAIR TEST, SAYS JUDGE

Providence, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Declaring their marriage had not been given a fair test and that her charges of extreme cruelty and gross misbehavior were not sustained by the testimony, Judge Hugh B. Baker in Superior Court here today denied the petition of Mrs. Esther C. Hunt, 32, for a separation from her 67-year-old husband, Henry D. Hunt, Yale graduate, former instructor at Brown University, and now a teacher of music.

The couple, married on July 21, lived together for a month, although for two weeks of that time Mrs. Hunt continued to work as a saleswoman.

13 Hearts, but He Didn't Get Trick in Bridge Game

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 9 (A.P.)—Thirteen hearts in a bridge hand failed to take a trick here. Bidding four no trumps which was doubled and redoubled, Jack O'Donnell, holder of the hand, failed to count when an opponent led a spade, being unable to get an entry for his hearts.

TEN MILLION GILLETTE SALE

Sales directors and executives of the Gillette Safety Razor Co. here for their annual convention were told today that the largest single order of the year was for 10,000,000 razors. This order was merchandised by a shaving-soap manufacturing concern in a system of "combination sales." The sales plan being used has been employed in Australia and in England within the past few months with great success.

T. W. Pelham

The past year has been the largest in the history of the company, according to T. W. Pelham, vice-president and director of sales, who presided at the morning session.

Officials were interested in accounts of the newly-opened sales headquarters in Austria to serve that country and Jugo-Slavia. A departure was made from the usual custom the Gillette company of appointing Americans for foreign directorships of sales. In the case of Austria, a Russian, formerly of the Czar's household, is in charge. Italy is another exception. Sig. A. A. Galpa, a native of Italy, is in charge of the Milan headquarters which serves the peninsula.

Today's session was devoted to a review of the past year's activities, with particular reference to sales. Tomorrow morning's session will be devoted to an inspection of the two newly-completed plants and the new equipment of machinery.

U. S. REFUGEES IN CHINA TAKE TO GUNBOATS

Paris, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Joint action of the powers to safeguard foreign concessions in Shanghai is now foreseen in French official quarters. The latest reports from the French Consul at Shanghai have been alarming.

Peking, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Official foreign dispatches from Hankow reaching here today said anti-foreign conditions, while easier locally, were worse in other interior cities along the Yangtze.

All American women and children were being moved from Ichang, 300 miles up the river from Hankow, and the British were evacuating all missionaries from accessible points in three states, Hupeh, Hunan and Szechwan.

Although the Cantonese soldiers had left the British concession at Hankow, they were in an ugly mood because of not having been paid for several months and it was feared they might run amuck.

More American women and children were ready to leave Hankow as soon as transportation was available.

All foreigners had left Kiukiang, 150 miles down the river from Hankow, some of them still being aboard the American gunboat Pengutin.

Because the British withheld their fire when the mobs besieged the concession entrance they are being called "paper tigers," and the Chinese newspapers advise the natives to fear them no longer.

There has been a heavy movement of Nationalist troops to the northward along the Peking-Hankow railway because of an anticipated attack by Fengtien troops under Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, arch enemy of the Cantonese.

Chinese Grow Bolder as Foreigners Flee

Shanghai, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Arrival of American and other refugees here from Hankow and points up the Yangtze River illustrated to the outside world today how the Chinese dragon, with some of the characteristic blustering that marked the Boxer uprising 26 years ago, has shaken the foreigners from his back.

Shanghai was the goal of all refugees as the anti-foreign agitation remained in an uncertain state. The accomplishment of coolie mobs in driving British and American citizens from Hankow and Kiukiang is said to have reflected to the credit of the Cantonese faction, which controls that section of the Yangtze valley, and may win certain elements in the north over to the southern cause.

In the light of this development there has been talk that the Peking government, defending itself against every Northward march of the Canton forces, may take over the foreign concessions of Tientsin in an attempt to demonstrate, also, its power to rid China of outside elements.

ONE-WAY TRAIL TO HEAVEN FOR BAUER

Only one road to Heaven is open now to Mayor Ralph S. Bauer of Lynn and that is through giving the Salvation Army a square deal.

Colonel Stephen Marshall, new Salvation Army commander in the New England territory, made this assertion today in greeting subordinates on arriving in Boston.

"We hope we will be able to serve the best interests of this city," Colonel Marshall said, "but I intend to inquire into the reasons why Mayor Bauer of Lynn barred our Lynn corps from holding open-air services in the streets of that city.

"His only way to Heaven is to give the Salvation Army a square deal."

Colonel Marshall, who assumed command in the People's Palace Washington street, succeeds Lieutenant Commissioner W. A. McIntyre as provincial officer in this section. Commissioner McIntyre has taken command of the new Southern territory with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga.

With Colonel Marshall came Major and Mrs. William Hammond of New York as general secretaries, Adjutant and Mrs. William Fox as provincial young people's secretaries and Brigadier and Mrs. T. W. Hargraves as financial secretaries.

Colonel Marshall and his wife will be tendered a public welcome tomorrow evening in Pierce Hall.

The province of which Colonel Marshall assumes command, comprises the six New England states with an operating force of approximately 350 men and women.

URGE RAISE IN COMPENSATION

Continued from Page 3.

thress defenses taken away under one section of the law.

The commission also favors a more logical and liberal schedule of compensations for specific injuries. Instead of paying the same sum for the loss of a little toe as for the loss of a thumb, forefinger or great toe, varying amounts are recommended. Values between the right and left hands are recognized for the first time. Payment of $8 a week for each dependent child is favored, instead of limiting the number to five children, but the total amount payable to dependents, $6,400, is not raised.

It is also urged that the protection of the act be extended to employes injured while illegally employed. Other recommendations are the extension of the act to embrace all public employes, occupational diseases and to bring back under the jurisdiction of the act cases excluded by judicial interpretations "unusual cases."

Monoxide Kills Two

Camden, N. J., Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Charles J. Prince, 65, a salesman, and Mrs. Anna Welsh, 32, were found dead in a garage at Woodlynne from carbon monoxide.

Highlights in New Compensation Plan Urged by Solons

Massachusetts compensation plan declared more efficient and equitable than the so-called Ohio plan which is rejected.

The commission recommends that compensation act be made compulsory.

Increase in minimum and maximum rates of weekly compensation recommended. More lockal and liberal schedule of compensation for specific injuries is favored.

Recommendations of a payment of $2 a week for each dependent child instead of the five-child limit.

Extension to act to cover employes injured while illegally employed.

Recommendation for the abolishment of "lump sum settlements."

Rate for hospital care of $21 a week called too low.

TO COMPEL INSURANCE ON STATE BUILDINGS

With the State House alone excepted, insurance for public buildings of the State and counties, and schoolhouses of municipalities, would be compulsory under a bill filed today by Senator Alfred M. Bessett, of New Bedford on petition of George H. Young of Acushnet.

The insurance would be carried on through a sinking fund commission at a premium rate equal to that charged by old line reliable insurance companies. Payments would stop when the sum of $1,500,000 was paid in.

DEMAND DEATH OF REV. NORRIS SLAYER

Austin, Tex., Jan. 10.—Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Worth, an nationally known fundamentalist was to go on trial for his life in di trict court today.

He is charged by indictment wit murder in the shooting to death o D. E. Chipps, wealthy Fort Wort lumberman, in the pastor's study a Fort Worth last July 17.

The battery of five prosecutors he announced it will be satisfied wit nothing less than a verdict of guilt and a death sentence.

Attorneys for the defense decla their evidence will show clearly th Norris killed Chipps because he thought h own life was in danger, and that, u der the circumstances, the Texas se defense law provides a means for ac quittal.

Norris' attorneys will endeavor t show that Chipps came to the pa tor's study "with murder in hi heart," after alleging Chipps mad previous threats against the pastor

Several veniremen were excuse on statutory grounds.

Within a block of the Texas ex ecutive mansion, where Governo Miriam A. Ferguson was preparin to pack her furniture to make wa for the incoming Governor, th stage was set for one of the State' most celebrated cases.

Mrs. D. E. Chipps, former wif of the slain man, and her son Elliott Chipps, who is suing Dr Norris for $150,000 for the death of his father, were among the earl arrivals.

Theatre Looters Get $1,000

Westfield, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Safe breakers secured $1,050 last nigh from a small safe in the Strand The aire here, owned by Goldstein Broth ers of Springfield.

JOIN NOW!—

Scott FURRIERS Inc.

UNIQUE FUR CLUB

Select your coat, make a small deposit, take it home and pay—

Small Weekly or Monthly Payments while wearing it

No Delay! — No Inconvenience! The Most Unique Arrangement Ever Known

Scott FURRIERS Inc. 43 Winter St. HOMER BLDG. Opp. Shepard's

LOOK FOR ELECTRIC SIGN — UNIQUE PAYMENT PLAN — EVENINGS UNTIL 9 P.M. OPEN

77 SUMMER ST., 2nd FLOOR, MERCHANTS BLDG., 77 SUMMER ST.

SALLY SHOE SHOP UP ONE FLIGHT

Amazing bargains at $1.95—$2.95—$3.95. Up one flight. Elevators. Save money. We buy only quality style shoes, manufacturers' surplus stocks, countermanded orders, salesmen's best samples. Don't pay high prices for fine shoes.

Every Pair Guaranteed! Satisfaction! Or Money Back

SALE! 1200 Pairs

PATENTS, VELVETS, SATINS, TAN CALF, BLACK SUEDE, ETC.

SHOES $1.95 VALUES $4 to $6.50

The Best Values Ever Offered | You Will Buy Several Pairs at This Low Price

Jordan Marsh Company

Great Basement Store

The Famous Store Within a Store For the Sale of the Less Expensive Merchandise

1851 1927

Birthday Sale of Progress

SPECIALS

The Greatest Values of the entire year

BEGINNING TUESDAY

Women's Flannel Dresses, tailored styles. Usually 8.50.....6.95

Women's Silk Dresses, flat crepe in several styles. Usually 13.50 9.49

House or Porch Dresses, novelty cotton fabrics. Usually 1.50....98c

Cotton Foulard Dresses, regular and extra sizes. Usually 2.50.....1.79

Women's Corduroy Robes, lined throughout. Assorted colors. Usually 5.00 .....3.69

Women's Kimonos, box loom crepe. Some soiled, manufacturer's samples. Seconds, usually 2.95 to 3.95...1.95

Women's Novelty Scarfs, sample lot. Two yards long, 20 inches wide with fringed ends. Usually 1.95 to 2.50 .....1.50

Women's Sample Neckwear, assorted lot. Vestee sets and separate collars. All different styles. Usually 1.00 and 1.50 .....50c

Women's Silk Boudoir Caps, trimmed with lace and ribbon. Several colors. Usually 75c and 1.00..39c

Women's Sample Belts, different sizes and colors. Usually 50c. 2 for 25c

Women's Colored Cotton Umbrellas. Usually 3.00.....1.98

Women's Colored Umbrellas, 16 rib, satin top with self borders. Usually 5.00 .....3.90

Maids' White Aprons, good quality lawn with and without bibs. (Samples.) Usually 59c to 1.00.....39c

Scalloped Bib Aprons, percale. Trimmed with colored binding. Usually 75c.....49c

Women's Blouses, of English broadcloth, in smart tailored styles. All white. Usually 2.00 to 2.25.....1.75

Women's Jersey Tunics, in attractive styles and colors. Sizes 36 to 50. Usually 2.39 .....1.75

Women's Capeskin Gloves, slip-on style in tan and brown. Also white doeskin. Usually 2.25.....1.85

Women's Novelty Fabric Gloves, Usually 1.00.....55c

Lace Doilies and Chairbacks, real filet lace. Usually 65c. Each...45c

Women's P. N. Corsets, discontinued numbers. Pink broche, lace back. 4 hose supporters. Usually 5.00.....2.95

Women's Corsettes, fancy broche, fancy silk tops, hook side front, 4 hose supporters. Usually 3.00.....1.95

Black Cobra Grained Week-End Cases, leather protected corners, cotton sateen lining, three pockets. Good lock and two catches. Usually 3.95 2.69

Bill Folds, License Cases and Wallets, fine leather, black, brown and mahogany. Usually 98c to 3.00 each 49c and 89c

Fitted Toilet Cases, for ladies. Only 145 cases. Usually 5.00 to 15.00, 2.95 and 4.95

Body Dusting Talc, in decorative metal container with large powder puff. Usually 79c 49c

Men's Imported French Military Brushes, pure bristles, black ebony backs, round or concave. Usually 4.95. Pair 1.98

Assorted Powder Puffs, cotton velour in several colors. Usually 25c..15c

Lamp Shade Ruffling, 2 inches wide. All good colors. Usually 1.00. Yard 59c

Beaverette Trimming (dyed rabbit). Usually 1.75 .....Yard 1.00

Lamp Shade Pulls, several styles and colors. Usually 1.00.....Each 39c

Sample Trimming Stripes, of metal for fancy work. Usually 75c. Each 10c

Lingerie Ribbon, white, pink and blue. 10-yard pieces, good quality.

No. 1 —Usually 39c Price 29c
No. 2 —Usually 49c Price 39c
No. 5 —Usually 1.20 Price 79c

Boutonniere Flowers, large velvet gardenias in 7 colors. For the shoulder. Usually 39c. Each 25c

Shoulder Flowers, large roses, ostrich and chiffon flowers. Usually 1.50. Each 75c

Embroidered Net Bands, in colors and metal effect. Usually 1.00 to 1.50 75c

Taffeta Silk Pillows, assorted colors and shapes, trimmed with floral designs. Usually 2.95 .....1.95

Console and End Table Mats, velvet, tapestry and gilt braid. Usually 2.00 to 3.00.....1.35

Imported All-Tapestry Scarfs, table runners, in several colors. Usually 1.95 to 2.50.....1.50

Knitting Worsted, the wanted shades, suitable for sweaters, stockings, etc Usually 65c skein.....45c

White Wool Flannel, all wool, fine soft fleece. Usually 1.25. Yard..95c

Cotton Outing Flannel, 36 inches wide. Heavy quality, colored stripes. Usually 35c. Yard.....25c

Wool Eiderdown, 27 inches wide. Cotton back, crinkle weave. Plain colors. Usually 89c. Yard.....45c

Women's Pure Linen Handkerchiefs. Usually 1.20 a dozen. Dozen 1.00

Men's Plain Linen Handkerchiefs. Usually 2.00 a dozen..Dozen 1.50

Men's Linen Initial Handkerchiefs, hemstitched. Usually 3.00 a dozen .....6 for 1.00

Women's Sample Card Handkerchiefs, 3 to a card. Limited quantity. Usually 50c 25c

Special Finish White Longcloth, for dainty lingerie, etc. Usually 1.95 a piece.....10-yard piece 1.45

Novelty Striped Nainsook, extra good quality. Usually 29c. Yard 17c

Silk and Cotton Brocade Lining, assorted two-tone effects. Usually 1.00 a yard 59c

Spider Web Crepe Lining, in a big variety of the most wanted shades Usually 89c a yard.....59c

Watch the daily papers for additional Birthday Sale of Progress Specials

GILCHRIST'S SELF-ACTING BARGAIN REDUCTIONS BASEMENT

NO MAIL ORDERS

Odd Lots, Seconds and Samples of Better Grade

TUESDAY at 9

HUNDREDS PAIRS OF WOMEN'S

SHOES

$1.95

Strap or Step-In Pumps, Oxfords and Eyelet Ties

Not All Sizes in Each Style—But All Sizes in the Lot.

Black patent leather, velvet, satin, suede, gun metal; also light tan leather. New red oxfords— Goodyear welted. High, medium or low heels in lot— come and you'll appreciate the savings presented.

Also PARTY SLIPPERS

Seconds of "gold kid," "silver kid," "silver" or "gold" cloth. Not all sizes in every style —all sizes in the lot.

Where Scores of Children Died ~ Watching Fateful Film ~ Called "Getting Them Young"

OFF TO THE DREAD MORGUE
Nearly fourscore little forms were transferred thus from the scene of the disaster.

FIRST BODIES RECOVERED
The bodies of three boys were the first recovered from the ruins of the burned playhouse.

SCENE OF MOVING PICTURE FIRE HORROR IN MONTREAL
Photo shows exterior of the Laurier Palace Theatre, where scores of children were suffocated and 100 injured as fire swept the interior.
—Photos by International News Reel

SCENES of HORROR MARK DEATHS of 77 IN MONTREAL THEATRE FIRE PANIC

Continued from First Page.

Those on the ground floor made their escape before the panic began. It was on two stairways leading from the balcony that most of the children were killed. The balcony itself, shaken by the hundreds of stampeding feet, finally collapsed, crushing to death many of those below.

Firemen finally chopped holes through the brick walls, and entering, cut away the stairs so that at last they could untangle the struggling heap of humanity. The little victims were passed from hand to hand out to the street.

BODIES ARE JAMMED

The buildings in the vicinity were converted into emergency hospitals and morgues where practically all the doctors and nurses of the city ministered to the injured. Those stood by the exits and blessed the bodies as they were carried from the building, while police lines held back hundreds of frantic parents whose children were in the building.

Police in removing the bodies of the children from the narrow stairway exit, found the bodies so compactly jammed that the agony of futile struggle was written on many childish faces.

Coroner McMahon remained on the scene throughout the night to permit the removal of bodies. Arrangements were made for many funerals during the day.

James McIsaac, chief inspector of the fire department, said today that the proprietor of the theatre had been fined about a year ago, because of a blocked exit in his place.

This had been remedied, he said, and he would have to refer to more recent reports before making any statement as to possible violations of the fire laws in connection with yesterday's disaster, which is believed to have been caused by defective wiring.

Neither the proprietor of the theatre or those arrested with him, were questioned today after their arrest, all examination being deferred until the coroner's inquest.

SCENES OF SORROW

Early today sixty-nine of the little victims had been identified at the city morgue.

Eight others still awaited recognition.

Autopsies established that sixty of the children died from asphyxiation, eleven were crushed and five lost their loves from a combination of asphyxiation and burning.

All through the night and early today parents trudged through the snowy streets from hospital to hospital, and from morgue to morgue, seeking news of missing children.

There were harrowing scenes as sometimes two or three women would simultaneously identify one mangled little body, each sure that of her own child.

Many of the panic-stricken children died standing up, caught inextricably in the crush and suffocated by the press of bodies and the swirling, pungent smoke. Some who lived suffered terrible injuries from the trampling feet.

MOTHERS WAIT NEWS

One girl who died in the street after being carried out of the building, had all her fingers crushed from her hands. Seven-year-old boy in the General Hospital had both ears torn from his head.

While the fire ruins were being searched today for more bodies East Catherine street, the French quarter, witnessed sorrowful scenes as grief-stricken parents sought trace of children still missing after a check-up of the dead and injured had been made.

French priests, weary-eyed, passed from house to house, knowing that into whatever doorway they step they would find tragedy.

Fathers, without thought of work, stood helpless, benumbed with the shock, or seek a friend for consolation only to find that that friend, too, has been bereft.

Little ones, who were at the theatre but escaped the fatal panic, were called into house after house to tell what they could of Pierre or Marie, of Armand and Celeste.

Other mothers and fathers simply sat in their homes and waited. They know that all the children did not go to the picture house. The skating was fine in Montreal yesterday. There was coasting and sliding and tobogganing just outside the city. These mothers and fathers pray that their little ones sought the open, and are delayed in their home-coming because of the excitement.

THEATRE IS PACKED

Montreal never in its history knew such a tragedy, at once so horrible and so pitiful.

Attracted by Mary Pickford, a Canadian girl and the favorite among the children of every nationality, hundreds of children stormed the picture theatre.

They were living through the golden-haired girl's adventures in "Sparrows," and were enjoying a comedy when one thoughtless youngster in the balcony saw a wisp of smoke curl out from the projection room, and instantly raised the dread cry of "Fire."

The cry was the signal for the beginning of tragedy.

Older and wiser heads attempted to stem the panic that followed the alarm in the first moments of a second.

Attendants called out that there was ample time for everybody to get out.

Those on the lower floor began filing out, orderly enough, through three exits, which were hastily thrown open.

But those on the lower floor saw nothing to increase their fears after the cry had been raised.

It was different in the balcony, where 400 persons, for the most part children, were herded. The little ones had forgotten Mary Pickford the moment the alarm had been raised. Terrified, they looked behind them, and what they saw only lent added terror.

The projection operator was struggling manfully against the flames that reddened the small room and threatened to engulf him at any moment.

Great billows of smoke rolled outlowered as the panic began, to check from the room and over the heads of the little ones in the balcony.

STAMPEDE STARTS

The stampede of death was on.

Men and women fought for the stairway, trampling the little ones under foot.

Down the long flight leading to the street floor and possible safety the fight for life continued, more little ones being ground to death beneath the heels of the older and stronger at every step.

Even on the street floor there was no surcease of death and battle. The panic-stricken men, women and children, forgetting that there were three exits at other sides of the building fought and struggled at the one exit leading to St. Catherine street.

The doorway was soon closed.

At this point the greatest number of bodies were found.

Across St. Catherine's street firemen saw the smoke billowing out of upper windows, shot with sparks. Now and then a face would appear or a man would teeter on the window sill and jump through the murk to his death on the pavement.

A tide of hysterical humanity poured from the exit out into the narrow street. Firemen and police sent for every ambulance in the city and stretched a line in front of the building to keep the anxious crowd at a safe distance.

HEAT IS INTENSE

The heat was so intense that firemen could not get within twenty feet of the building for nearly two hours. They tried to pour streams of water through the open exit.

The flames burst through the roof and a shower of sparks and charred wreckage shot up and cascaded over the roofs of houses in the neighborhood.

Mothers who knew their children had gone into the theatre rushed up to the police line and begged and fought to be allowed to enter the building to get their little ones. Sometimes when the charred body of some child would be brought out the frenzied mothers would claim the pitifully scorched body at one time.

At the foot of the principal stairway, firemen found a great mound of dead. As best they could, the firemen lifted the bodies up, crying encouragement to those underneath, whose moans grew fewer and feebler.

One screaming woman, believed to have lost her mind completely, lies in a hospital shouting over and over again the story of a baby dropped from its mother's arms and trampled under the feet of the fear-maddened throng.

SCENES OF HORROR

The asbestos curtain was slowly

Fire Victims Died as Screen Showed 'Get 'Em Young'

Montreal, Jan. 10.—"Get 'Em Young," that was the title of the motion picture film which was being thrown on the screen when fire broke out at the Laurier Theatre. The audience was mainly composed of women and children.

Get them young!

The first 19 bodies brought out of the ruins were those of little girls, all under 15 years of age.

Major Fire Disasters of 20th Century

November 6, 1901—Klondike Theatre fire	16
January 17, 1903—Rhoades Theatre, Boyertown, Va.	16
December 3, 1903—Iroquois Theatre, Chicago	575
June 15, 1904—New York harbor, steamship General Slocum	958
April 18, 1906—Fire and earthquake, San Francisco	452
January 13, 1908—Boyerstown, Pa., theatre	170
March 4, 1908—North Collinwood, O., school	176
January 20, 1909—Seventy-Third street crib, Chicago	60
February 15, 1909—Acapulco, Mex., theatre	300
March 28, 1910—Ochoerite, Hungary, hotel	250
March 23, 1911—New York, factory	146
December 3, 1913—Arcadia Lodging House, Washington Street, Boston	28
December 25, 1913—Theatre panic, Calumet, Mich	72
April 14, 1914—Apartment House Melvin, Brighton	8
October 29, 1915—Peabody, St. John's Parochial School	21
May 10, 1916—Theatre fire, Wallacetown, Va	22
November 14, 1920—Catherine Street Movie House, New York	7
November, 28, 1921—Rialto Theatre fire, New Haven, Conn	6
January 28, 1923—Knickerbocker Theatre, Washington, collapsed	98
June 25, 1925—Gillis Theatre, Kansas City, fire	6

the shrivelling heat and protect the lives of the panicstricken performers. It is believed every one of the stage company perished.

There were heroes amid the struggling, fighting, trampling, screaming mass of humanity.

Now and again the horrified watcher outside the theatre could hear a man call out: "Back, give the women and children a chance."

The call would be repeated again and again, growing weaker each time, and when it ceased the watchers knew that one man had gone to his death maintaining that he was a man.

The firemen, combating the fearful heat and the obstacle offered by the jammed bodies could not make entrance through the main door.

They attempted the woodsmen's method of releasing jammed log, by tying a rope to the body of one man at the bottom of the pile of dead, and attempting to release it. But 20 men, pulling at the taut rope could not move the "key body."

GREAT MOUND OF DEAD

Finally the firemen broke their way through a side wall, and the first little body they came upon was that of a small boy, still alive. They dragged him through the aperture in the wall, and then went in, finally stirring the great mound of dead.

The second youngster they found apparently thought nothing of the terrible burns that covered his face and body, but pleaded with the firemen to find his father and mother who had been in the theatre with him.

Even as the firemen worked among the dead they could hear the feeble cries of little ones still alive but in most cases they were so far under the death-mound that the firemen could not reach them until it was too late.

Children Died Like Rats in Trap, Says Witness

Montreal, Jan. 10.—Camille Lefebre, aged forty, a survivor, today told this story of the disaster:

"I was sitting in the orchestra, about half way back, and under the balcony. There was a sudden cry of fire and a mad rush for the only exit, the door which leads out by the box office.

"I had to fight like grim death to make my way out and gradually reached the swinging door out into the lobby. There, as I fought my way through the mob of screaming people, I could see the real tragedy being played on that narrow stairway.

"There in the corner, where the stairs turned to descend to the lobby level, was an immovable mass of humanity, almost all children, piled up inextricably, dying like rats, as what seemed like hundreds more piled on them in the effort to get out.

ASKED TO BE KILLED

"With two firemen and a deputy chief I made my way into the smoldering ruin and scrambled up that teetering remains of a stairway to the scene of the holocaust.

"One man cried out, 'For God's sake, kill me!' I was able to slip a rope around another's shoulders and drag him free over the dead bodies of children. Outside in the street they were still loading stretchers into the waiting ambulances.

"Across the way in the fire hall more little bodies lay stretched out on the straw in the horse stalls waiting their turn for the trip to the morgue."

In the street outside frantic parents stopped every officer, every fireman and begged for news. The general question was: "Have you seen a little boy about so big."

Gentle-eyed priests walked amongst the crowd, pausing to comfort sobbing mothers, conducting anguished parents to the police station and to the fire hall to make inquiries for information.

Into the nearby police station came a stoop-shouldered little woman with Hell in her eyes. "Could you tell me something?" she begged. "Where is my girl; my girl, Regina?"

And she told the tale of a bright young girl in her late teens, all dressed up in her Sunday best, rushing away from the dinner table to be in time for the early show and their seat.

"Now she is gone! Burned to death! Suffocated! Oh, God, let me die!"

At the hospitals and at the morgue was everywhere the same story. Sobbing women, hopeless-eyed fathers seeking the little lads and lassies, the little city sparrows that are no more.

LOSES THREE CHILDREN

The family of Octave Quintal, No. 2103 Jolliett street, lost three of its members in the fire, Sylvia, aged 3, was attending her first movie show. She perished with two brothers, Adrien, aged 14, and Hildegarde aged 9.

Constable Albert Doisseau of the Terrenaville station also lost three children. The constable was off duty at the time, but was nearby and went to the scene of the fire a short time after its outbreak. He assisted in removing the victims.

He knew his son had gone to the theatre. After several bodies had been laid out in front of the building to be placed in the morgue wagon the constable recognized one of them as that of his son.

Later when all efforts to locate the other two children failed he went to the morgue and found the bodies of the other two children. The three were Germaine, 13; Roland, 11, and Yvette, 8.

One of the most pathetic figures in the coroner's court was Alpheda Arpin, a burly fireman, his eyes swollen from crying.

Arpin was at the fire station when the alarm sounded. He knew his little son, Gaston, aged six and a half, was in the burning theatre, having been taken there by a cousin.

Arpin did gallant work at the fire; but, although his efforts had been for other fathers, he did not find his own boy until he sought him at the morgue.

Fourth Disastrous Blaze in Montreal in 20 Years

Montreal, Jan. 10 (I.N.S.)—The Motion Picture Palace fire which cost the lives of seventy-seven persons, mostly children, was the fourth disastrous blaze to visit Montreal within the last two decades.

On February 14, 1918, a section of the Grey Nunnery burned, taking the lives of 54 infants being cared for there. The fire was set by a nun who said she wished the children to die in infancy as their innocence would assure their going straight to heaven.

On June 13, 1910, the Herald Publishing Company's building caught fire and 33 persons lost their lives when the walls and several floors collapsed.

On February 26, 1907, fifteen children and a teacher lost their lives in a fire in the Hochelaga School, when they lost their way in the smoke-filled corridors and were trampled or suffocated. The school was within two blocks of the scene of yesterday's fire.

Owner of Laurier Palace Fined; Exit Blocked

Montreal, Jan. 10.—James McIsaac, chief inspector of the fire department, said today that the proprietor of the Laurier Palace had been fined about a year ago because of a blocked exit in his theatre.

This had been remedied, he said, and he would have to refer to more recent reports before making any statement as to possible violations of the fire laws in connection with yesterday's disaster.

RAIL AND SHIP AGENTS NAME OFFICERS TONIGHT

Over 500 railroad and steamship agents of Boston and New England gather at the Hotel Somerset, tonight, following the 41st annual business meeting of the Association of Railroad and Steamboat Agents. Charles C. Dasey, passenger manager for the Cunard and Anchor Lines, will preside.

The nominating committee will present these candidates for office: Lewis R. Hart, general agent of Canadian Pacific Railway, for president; Silas B. St. John, general agent of the Santa Fe Railroad, for vice-president; W. M. Macomber, New England agent for the Norfolk & Western Railway for secretary-treasurer; C. F. Judson, Furness Withy Lines; W. H. Morrison, Lehigh Valley Railway; J. W. Rimmer, assistant to the vice-president of the B. & M. Railroad, for executive committee, and George O. Comeau, New England agent for the Clyde and Mallory Lines, for trustee.

WOMAN BADLY HURT AS RANGE EXPLODES

A friendly act on the part of thirty-nine-year-old Mrs. Dora Bornstein of No. 70 Linwood street, Malden, may cause her her life. She is on the danger list at Malden Hospital today after she had been severely injured when the water front of a kitchen range blew up.

She lighted the fire in a vacant apartment of the same house in which she lives to make the place warm for painters who were renovating it. Expansion caused by thawing ice resulted in the explosion. Mrs. Bornstein's left arm was broken and her head burned.

CARROLL LOSES PLEA IN WINE BATH CASE

New York, Jan. 10 (I.N.S.)—The conviction of Earl Carroll, theatrical producer, on a charge of perjury growing out of his famous "wine-bath" party, was upheld today in a decision by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

Carroll was sentenced to a year and a day in Atlantis penitentiary and fined $2,000 on a charge of falsifying before a grand jury when he testified that no unclothed girl dipped into a bathtub full of champagne at a party on the stage of his theatre here.

His only recourse is an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, the highest tribunal.

Carroll was indicted on two counts of perjury. One alleged that he testified falsely when he said no intoxicant was served at the party. The other count charged that he was not telling the truth when he told a Federal grand jury that Joyce Hawley, a model, did nothing in the w nude bathing during the par

"Isn't that too bad? I'm s rry," said Carroll, when t that the court had upheld victim.

MISS THERESA E. COH TO WED WAR VETE

Many invitations have been is for the wedding of Miss Theresa Cohen, well known Jewish social philanthropic worker, and Joseph H. Whitman, World War veteran and Boston insurance man. The ceremony will take place on Jan. 19 in Hotel Kenmore. After an extended honeymoon the couple will live in Brookline.

Miss Cohen

Miss Cohen is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. A. S. Cohen. She is known in most every walk of Jewish life, a committee, and George O. New England agent for the Clyds and Mallory Lines, for trustee.

Miss Cohen activities and was a charter member of the Union Park Forum, and a worker in Junior club at the Elizabeth Peabody House. During the war she was active in Red Cross work. Among the offices she now holds is that of secretary of the Boston Section, National Council of Jewish Women. Mr. Whitman is the son of Mrs. Esther Whitman of Brookline. He is in the insurance business.

FAILS IN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE IDENTIFICATION

An alleged attempt to escape identification failed today when Inspector James R. Clarkin took finger prints of a prisoner to establish he l out on bail on a Lawrence charge of being an idle and disorderly person. The prisoner is Thomas Hickey, 27 years old. He was arrested in Boston on a charge of attempting to steal a watch from a man at the gym.

According to Boston police, Hickey's fingers were worn and discolored by the use of acid in an effort to prevent identification. Inspector Clarkin, in charge of the fingerprint bureau at police headquarters used a wash to remove the discoloration and made partial prints that served to identify the prisoner. The police wired Philadelphia relative to Hickey, in the belief that he is wanted there.

DRIVER CRASHES POLE TO AVOID COLLISION

The fire box No. 1271 and the police traffic officer's spotlight pole at Washington and State streets were put out of commission today when Lawrence White of Chadwick street, Roxbury, sent the truck he was driving crashing against the light pole to avoid a collision with a taxicab operated by Thomas Rice of Summer street, Dorchester. No one was injured. The light pole was snapped off and the box which operates a sirens, was put out of commission.

Egg and sleep under the same roof. Many rooms with board find the home listed in the Classified Ads. Classified

Otto Grow Is Heard from at Last ~ ~ By Collier

CHILDREN ARE TRAMPLED TO DEATH IN FIRE

Montreal, Jan. 10.—A ten-year-old boy who escaped, frightened but unscathed, from the disaster at the Laurier Palace Theatre, was Ernest Fitzpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fitzpatrick of Montreal.

"I was standing up in the gallery," Ernest said, "about three or four feet from the balcony rail.

"From where I was, I could look down over and see the people downstairs. I was waiting for someone to go out, so that I could get a seat.

"A funny picture was being shown and I was watching that, too, and all the kids were laughing.

"I heard some one yell 'Fire.' I looked, but didn't see any fire then, although afterward—believe me—I did.

"Then lots of people began to yell 'fire,' and the whole gang started rushing down the stairs. From where I was, though, I saw them jammed up at the corner and knew right off that I could not get out that way. So I stood still where I was. Smoke was coming out and it seemed as though the fire was under the floor.

ALL MIXED UP.

"When the smoke began to get thicker and thicker, I started down the stairs. When I got near the door the boys and girls were piled on top of each other.

"Many of them were struggling to get up and a lot of them were crying. They were laying across each other and arms and legs were all mixed up.

"All that I could do was to climb over those who were between me and the door. And I did one boy grabbed hold of my foot and tried to pull himself from under others. I struggled and my shoe came off in his hand. I did not stop to get it. I knew that I would be crushed if I did not stay on top.

"Then I felt a man take hold of me and he lifted me over the children ahead of me and carried me out into the street."

Hugh Fitzpatrick, the father, who lives two or three blocks away from the theatre, said that this was the first he had seen of his boy, when a man appeared, carrying him on his back.

"We are very thankful," he said. "Things might have been bad for our family. We have eight boys and a girl, all young, and they go to the pictures nearly every Sunday. Their grandfather, who has only one leg, usually goes too. Today only Ernie was there. He is a very smart little fellow and there is no doubt his coolness saved him from a terrible death."

Another plucky little fellow named Edward Murphy, 11, who had escaped through a window leading to a balcony at the back of the theatre, accompanied his parents to the morgue seeking some trace of his brother Michael, 12. Michael's body was identified at the morgue by his older brother, John, after he had failed to find it.

[illegible] had gone to the theatre without [illegible]'s parents' consent. Edward gave a graphic account of his experience.

BEHIND AN AISLE.

"Jhael and I were into and got inside till after 1 o'clock," said. "Michael was able to get in, but I couldn't, so I stood and in the aisle near the front. I had seen the Mary Pickford picture and was watching a funny one, when suddenly a man yelled 'fire.' Everybody started to run for the exits on the east side, and I ran.

It was awful. They all got mixed together, the women screeching and the kids crying."

Edward said he ran from that spot to the nearest window, the sill of which he stepped and managed to pull himself level with the sill.

DRAG YOUTH TO SAFETY FROM PILE OF DEAD

Montreal, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Graphic stories of the scenes in the Laurier Palace picture theatre tragedy are told by some of the survivors.

Antoine Giroward, aged 16, who was taken to the Montreal General Hospital with contusions and burns, said he went to the theatre with his two brothers. They sat in the balcony.

"I noticed flames shoot up through a crack in the floor and immediately everyone rushed from the balcony," said the boy. "I got safely down the stairway to within five steps of the bottom when I was knocked down by the rush on the stairway and fell, with people piled over me.

PILED ON TOP OF DEAD.

"Three dead boys were beneath me when the police raised me, and above me five or six injured boys had to be removed before I could be reached. The stairway was blocked with the rush of the crowd and people were lying about on the steps.

"While I was crushed and lying on the steps the firemen began to play the hose over us. No doubt it was due to this action that more of us were not burned to death."

Girouard will recover.

Roger Frappier, 13, escaped by jumping from the balcony to the lower floor.

MOTHER SAVES BABY.

"There were several men shouting that everybody remain seated and there were some ushers trying to keep the people quiet," he said. "But there were others who stood up and hollered 'Fire! Fire!' 'Fire!' and told us to get out quick."

Young Frappier said he saw "terrible sights in the balcony before he made his leap to safety. He was considerably unnerved, the main picture reminding with him being that of a mother attempting to fight her way out through the crowd with a baby in her arms.

Tosses Nine Children Out Window as Fire Rages

Montreal, Jan. 10.—A graphic picture of the mad stampede of frenzied women and children from the Laurier Theatre is told by W. W. Pare, an usher. His story of the disaster follows:

"I saw smoke coming from the floor of the balcony, and some of the ushers throwing water on the spot. I realized the fire was gaining headway and I shouted to the audience that there was a fire in the house and to walk out quietly.

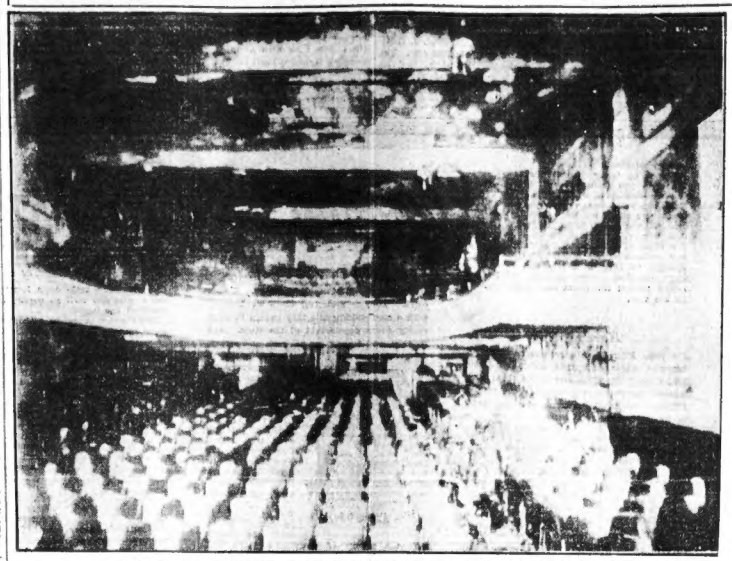
"In a few moments every one on the ground floor was going out through the four exits, and I climbed to the balcony by the west side stairway. The people were coming down slowly because a stout woman was blocking the way. I gave her a push and told the people to walk down quietly. They obeyed and in a short time I was able to run to the east end stairs and there I found a terrible scene.

"Dozens of children were apparently held fast in an inextricable mass. I smashed the window over the canopy and threw the children out as quickly as I could. I got nine of them through the window but I guess they were all dead. Then the smoke got me and I just managed to crawl to the window and crawl through it myself. Firemen came and carried me down to the street by a ladder."

Full Bench Sits May 23

Chief Justice Rugg of the Supreme Court today announced there would be a special sitting of the full court beginning May 23 to hear arguments on exceptions taken in criminal cases in all the counties of the Commonwealth.

Fire-Swept Theatre ~ A Trap of Death



MONTREAL MOVIE HOUSE, WHERE 77 DIED AMID FLAMES

(Pictorial Newsreel photograph, sent by American Telephone and Telegraph Company)

View of fire-swept Laurier Theatre in which scores of children were crushed to death during a panic. The frenzied young movie fans were trapped in the blazing building when more than 1,000 patrons made a wild rush for the exits. Many of the little victims were trampled to death under the feet of their panic-stricken elders. The dead were piled up in heaps when firemen finally fought their way into the flame-scarred "palace of mirth and films."

Little Victims of Fire Sneaked Off to Movie

Montreal, Que., Jan. 10 (I.N.S.).—The universal desire of children to "sneak off to the movies" played a leading part in the theatre panic which cost 76 young lives from a slight fire during the performance, it was established today as the official inquiry into the tragedy opened.

Weeping relatives admitted in nearly every case that their child went to the theatre unaccompanied by an adult and in 75 per cent. of the cases it was revealed the victim had not the permission of their parents to attend the show.

Far into the morning the long line of sobbing fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters shuffled slowly through the morgue seeking to identify their missing ones.

After identifying his son, Rene, 14, Benjamin Roy told the coroner:

"It was Rene's birthday. Rene and his brother went to the movies unbeknown to me. The other boy was saved."

Prosper Mariel identified the bodies of his daughter Eva, 8, and Yvette, 7. His son, Philbert, 13, accompanied his little sisters to the picture house, but escaped with injuries.

Joseph Marquette claimed the body of George McCleary, 8. He adopted George from an orphan asylum when the latter was a baby. Marquette said George had gone to the theatre alone with his permission.

One Victim About to Join Father in New Bedford

New Bedford, Jan. 10.—Eleven-year-old Roger Coulombe, one of the victims of the Montreal theatre disaster, was a son of Pierre Coulombe of No. 313 Conduit street, New Bedford, who has been employed in a local mill for seven weeks. Saturday the father made arrangements to bring his wife and six children to this city in another week to live here.

A telegram from his wife today, as well as the lists of victims in newspapers told the father of his child's tragic death.

POLICE GUARD PLANNED FOR UNION MEETING

Circulars calling a meeting of the Trade Union Educational League in Franklin Union Hall, Dartmouth street, tomorrow night, were issued to Boston's needle workers today. Coincident with the issuing of the circulars, the Boston police made arrangements to have a large detail of officers at the meeting to preserve order, if necessary.

The meeting will be under the direction of New York members of the league and plans will be made for enrolling Boston needle workers in the organization. The principal speakers on the schedule are J. Barnchowitz, one of the leaders of the cloakmakers' strike in New York, and Antonio Ramagila.

Officers of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, under whose jurisdiction most of Boston needle workers come, declare they are in no way interested in the meeting tomorrow night, and that it will be impossible for the organization to make inroads into their ranks. Julius Hoohman, vice-president of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, said: "Our meetings all over the country as rejecting Communism and its empty promises."

A similar meeting to that planned for Franklin Union Hall tomorrow night, was held in Scenic Temple recently, and it was broken up in disorder when charges and counter charges were hurled at the speakers by the audience.

MOTHER OF THREE GETS DECREE FOR DESERTION

Mrs. Alice C. (Woods) Moore of Natick was today granted a divorce at East Cambridge Court from her husband, Percy R. Moore of San Francisco, on the ground of desertion. She was also given custody of her three children, Alice, sixteen; Arthur, fourteen, and Sumner, twelve.

According to Mrs. Moore's testimony, her husband deserted her October 12, 1918, going to China.

Her father, S. Sumner Woods of 19 Beacon street, Natick, a wealthy lumber merchant, testified she had lived at his home six or eight years.

RESCUE 60 AT PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL FIRE

Philadelphia, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Sixty pupils of the Parochial School of Our Mother of Sorrows Church at Forty-eighth street and Lancaster avenue were trapped by smoke when fire swept through the gymnasium in the basement today.

Firemen and volunteers, climbing ladders to the third floor of the fire-resisting stone building, carried the children and their teachers down to the street in safety.

Fifteen hundred children, with 35 nuns and two lay teachers in charge, were in the four-story building when the janitor discovered the fire. It was confined to the gymnasium.

MOTHER AND BABY HURT AS BUS JUMPS SIDEWALK

Three persons, one a six-months-old infant, were injured when a Boston Elevated bus rolled over the sidewalk in front of No. 81 Irving street, Cambridge, today, as the driver, to avoid striking a pedestrian, crashed through a fence.

The infant, Muriel Vale, daughter of Mrs. Bridget Vale of Vale court, Cambridge, was removed from the bus and taken to his home in a passing automobile. Its face was badly broken and bruised. Mrs. G. F. Casey of No. 78 Mystic avenue, Somerville, carrying the infant in her arms, was also rushed from the scene and hospitalized.

The bus was driven by Thomas Lasher of Jamaica Plain.

18 FLEE FIRE IN R. I. FOUR-FAMILY HOUSE

Central Falls, R. I., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Eighteen persons, mainly children, were driven to the street today when a fire discovered in the cellar of the four-family tenement house in which they lived. The blaze was discovered by Fred Hebert, a passerby. He broke the night bell at the fire station on the first floor, ran in an alarm and assisted the firemen in getting out the second floor in getting out. The Rev. Gabriel Aimed and his two sons and the family of John Alvert were also rushed.

Identified Montreal Fire Horror Victims

Montreal, P. Q., Jan. 10.—Work of identification of the theatre fire victims is proceeding rapidly. At an early hour today, the authorities has listed fifty-nine known dead. Identifications, in many instances, were made by sorrowing parents of the little children. The list of identified dead:

Hildegarde Quintal, No. 2103 Joliett street.
Roger Coulombe, 11, No. 1606 Alywyn street.
Sylvia Quintal, No. 2103 Joliett street.
Jeanne d'Arc Vien, 5, No. 1602 Desery street.
Germaine Boisseau, 13, No. 1870 Joliett street.
Adrien Quintal, 14, No. 2103 Joliett street.
Marcel Girard, 9, No. 1666 Joliett street.
Maurice Grondines, 11, No. 500 Cuvillier street.
Ivette Boisseau, 8, No. 1870 Joliett street.
Roland Boisseau, 11, No. 1870 Joliett street.
Bernard Houde, 13, No. 1428 Cuvillier street.
George McLeary, 8, adopted child of Joseph Marquett, No. 23 Marlborough street.
Rolland Guerin, 10, No. 400 LaPointe street, Tetreauville.
Marcel Baril, 15, No. 1871 Bourbonniere street.
Gertrude Sauvageau, 14, No. 1889 Adams street.
Louis Philippe Romillard, 11, No. 1671 Desery street.
Rita Maheu, 7, No. 545 Davidson street.
Jean Louis Gagne, 13, No. 507 Davidson street.
Germaine Detononcourt, 12, No. 1697 Cuvillier street.
Edouard Frechette, 12, No. 1661 Desery street.
Philippe Nantel, 12, No. 1853 Prefontaine street.
Romeo Pelchant, 9, No. 630 Desery street.
Gaston Arpin, 6, No. 63 Rouville street.
Francienne Otis, 10, No. 1410 Cuvillier street.
Charlmagne Vincent, 11, No. 1452 Frontenac street.
Therese Couture, 14, No. 596 Davidson street.
Albert Read, 11, No. 5 Arthur lane.
Raoul Bouchard, 11, No. 1439 Moreau street.
Antonio Menard, 12, No. 545 Bourbonniere street.
Leopold and Yvette Tremblay, No. 2047 Cuvillier street.
Adrien Gauthier, 10, No. 2059 Moreau street.
Jean Marcelle Dumont, 12, No. 2277 Ontario East.
Cecile Martin, 8, No. 567 Davidson street.
Georges Stoneff, 7, No. 1638 Chambly street.
Louis Edward Morin, 18, No. 1863 Alywin street.
Simon Segin, 14, No. 1871 Lafontaine street.
Andre Teiller, 14, No. 592 Cuvillier street.
Adrien Hetu, 9, No. 3456 Rouen street.
Anthenu Defour, 12, No. 2097 St. Germaine street.
Rene Champagne, 16, No. 1629 Chambly street.
Gabrielle Tardf, 7, No. 1653 Joliett street.
Marcel Lavasseur, 9, No. 206 Darling street.
Jeane Gagne, 13, No. 545 Parthenais street.
Ange Aime Levasseur, 15, No. 206 Darling street.
Germaine Rivard, 14, No. 2932 Rivard street.
Annette Bisson, 16, No. 1636 Darling street.
Francois Pesant, 14, No. 1512 Alywin street.
Michael Murphy, 14, No. 1541 Notre Dame East.
Roland Clement, 7, No. 1538 Desery street.
Maurice Gervais, 14, No. 1733 St. Germain street.
Maurice Dumont, 16, No. 940 St. Donald street, Tetreauville.
Marthe Paquin, 11, No. 1428 Cuvillier street.
Germaine Rivard, 14, No. 2932 Adams street.
Francoise Pesant, 14, No. 1512 Alywin street.
Eva and Yvette Martel, No. 549 Davidson street.
Rene Roy, 14, No. 1440 Prefontaine street.
Marcel Ratthe, 11, No. 1519 St. Germain street.
Gertrude Sauvageau, 14, No. 1889 Adam street.
Marthe Paquin, 6, No. 1428 Cuvillier street.
Alice Taillon, 11, Delorimier avenue.
Vincent Charliemagne, 11, No. 142 Frontenac street.
Arthur Paul, 10, No. 2026 Nicolet street.
Raoul Pegeau, 9, No. 2026 Adam street.
Phillippe Nantel, 12, No. 1853 Prefontaine street.
Roland Gravel, 7, No. 581 Darling street.
Raoul Girard, 8, No. 1970 Adam street.
Rejane Gauthier, 10, No. 57-A Rouville street.
Lucien Gervais, 12, No. 2028 Lafontaine street.
Armand Cournoyer, 11, No. 2077 Adam street.
Raoul Benoit, 12, No. 1631 Moreau street.
Armand Lavallee, 10, No. 1389 St. Catherine street, East.
Roland Leduc, 11, No. 1837 Davidson street.
Edouard Morin, 18, No. 1863 Aylwin street.

In addition to the above, three others were identified, but their names were not available.

Visit Titania's Palace
Now Open at Paine's

Starting Today
PAINE'S CLEARANCE
With Reductions Averaging ½

4 PIECES MAHOGANY AND GUMWOOD
Usually $438
Now $265
Twin Beds, Bureau, Chiffonier

Included in this clearance is the end-of-season stock of a prominent manufacturer who sold us these goods at less than manufacturing cost to close them out. We in turn are offering them at half usual prices in many cases and even less than half. In addition broken suites and discontinued lines from regular stock are offered at huge mark downs to make way for Spring goods.

Paine Custom Bedding, famous for comfort and service, may now be ordered at 10% off

Also Immense Mark Downs on Rugs, Draperies, Lamps

PAINE FURNITURE CO.
Rugs Lamps 81 Arlington Street Draperies

COLD SNAP GETS I GRIP ON NEW ENGLAND

New England is in the grip of one of the worst cold snaps of the Winter. In some sections of Massachusetts it is the worst, making it a sort of freak cold snap, with a temperature of 25 degrees below zero at Pittsfield and 11 above at Boston.

And there's little cheer in the forecast of Uncle Sam's weather man. Although he sees a light snow for this afternoon and tonight, it's going to remain cold. How cold, no one but the fellow on the inside knows.

While Boston's official temperature was 1 above at an early hour, the mercury climbed somewhat as the day grew older. At 8 A. M. it had gone to 16, but at 10 it had dropped one degree. Up in Northfield, Vt., and Greenville, Me., it was 16 below. A northerly wind sweeping over New England made it seem much colder than it was.

The cold snap contributed its share of perplexities to successful radio broadcasting. A 106-mile copper wire from here to WHZ in Springfield connected to such an extent that a species of static developed. Despite the disturbed program, Westinghouse officials announced that had been able to squeeze through.

Early in the day Boston had a flurry of snow. It was the feathery tail of an off-shore Atlantic storm. It was mostly clear in other parts of New England, making conditions good for the skaters and the icemen.

Two other celebrants in New England were Barre, Vt., with 20 below zero, and Concord, N. H., with 12 below.

Irish Songster

TO SING IN HUB

Walter McNally, Irish baritone, is in Boston and will be heard in Symphony Hall at an early date.

McNALLY WILL SING IN HUB

Walter McNally, the young Irish baritone whose recitals in Chicago attracted nation-wide attention last Winter, has arrived in Boston and will make his first appearance here at Symphony Hall at an early date in a recital conducted under the auspices of K. M. White.

Mr. McNally has recently completed a short European tour, which included a visit to his home town in Westport, County Mayo.

When he had completed his musical education McNally toured the British Isles, giving recitals in every city and town in Old Erin and nearly in England and Scotland.

His first appearance in this country was made in Chicago.

FLAMES DESTROY A BRISTOL, N. H., HOTEL

Bristol, N. H., Jan. 10 (A.P.)—Fire today destroyed the Hotel Bristol. The hydrants were frozen when firemen answered the alarm, and it was only the absence of wind and the presence of snow on the roofs of other buildings that kept the fire from sweeping through the village.

An adjoining business block was damaged. Guests in the old fourstory wooden hotel were driven to the street in a temperature of 20 degrees below zero. The loss was estimated at more than $30,000.

One spectator was hurt when one of the four chimneys fell.

$2,000 Everett Fire

An overheated stove is believed to have been the cause of a $2,000 fire today in the one-story wooden building on Ferry street, Everett, and occupied by Mack's bottling shop. Quick work by the department confined the blaze to the interior of the shop. No one was in the place at the time.

BUNGLING BURGLARS MISS $1,000 LOOT IN THEATRE

Thugs who bungled in the manner of amateurs? or, at most, as semi-pros, attempted to batter their way into the safe of the Central Square, East Boston, Theatre, today.

They succeeded in wheeling off the outer door, but that inside resisted their sledges and $1,000 back of this protection was saved from theft. The thugs gained entrance to the theatre forcing a basement window.

STEAMING RADIATOR OF TRUCK HOLDS UP TRAFFIC

The steaming radiator of an Edison Light Company's truck in Dorchester avenue, South Boston, Box 7316. The truck began steaming as the driver, Jeremiah J. Callahan, was heading for the city. The fire apparatus arrived to find no fire, while members of the crew looked for the one who had pulled the box. The truck cooled down and went on its way.

27-YEAR-OLD LAWYER TO WAGE $34,000,000 SUIT

Detroit, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—A. W. Gregg, 27-year-old general counsel for the Internal Revenue Bureau, will match wits with some of the country's foremost legal talent when hearings in the government's attempt to collect $34,000,000 additional taxes from former minority stockholders of the Ford Motor Company opens here tomorrow.

To Gregg and his assistants will fall the job of proving that some 7,000 shares of stock in the Ford Company which Henry Ford purchased from minority holders in 1918 were not worth $9,400 a share. The government contends the stock was worth $3,600 a share, and it is on the difference between these two amounts that it seeks to collect addition al taxes.

LAST OF FIGHTING M'COOKS DIES IN HARTFORD, CT.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 10 (A.P.)—The last survivor of the "Fighting McCooks" of Ohio is dead here. He was Dr John E. McCook, 89, who in 1923 retired after 40 years as professor of modern languages at Trinity College and at the time of his death was professor emeritus and a trustee of the college. He was one of fourteen children whose services in the Civil War gave to the family the designation "The Fighting McCooks."

OPPOSITION VOICED TO CLAUSE IN ALIEN LAW

Opposition to the "national origins" clause in the immigration law was voiced in letters received from Senator David I. Walsh, Congressmen Douglass, Gallivan and Tinkham, by the St. Brendan Society, read at a meeting in Historic Hall, Deacon Building, South End. The society voted to hold its twenty-second annual reunion in the Eagle Newton street armory at a date to be announced later.

Sketches From Today's Classified Pages

Pianos for Sale

Music teacher who has entered another business wishes to dispose of his two pianos. Will exchange for some other article.

See Classification 114.

Board and Room

A lady specializing in care of young children has a vacancy for one boy between the ages of two and six years.

See Classification 37.

Women and Girls Wanted

Earn $15-$25 weekly in spare time gilding greeting cards. Easy, interesting work. Experience unnecessary.

See Classification 40.

Drug Store for Sale

Wonderful opportunity in a good, lively town. Annual gross business $10,000.

See Classification 42.

(For the names and addresses of the above advertisers and scores of other opportunities, see today's Advertiser and American Classified Ads.)

—CARDOSO'S INSTITUTE OF—

NATURAL HEALTH CULTURE

Founded on the Principles of the great genius

Bernarr MacFadden

MEN—WOMEN—CHILDREN

Treated by Nature's Methods
Results Guaranteed in All Cases Undertaken

Constipation Cured
Vitality Restored
Body Building Weight Reducing

28 MUSEUM ROAD, BOSTON
Tel. Roxbury 3120

AFTER WORK TONIGHT

go to a warm, comfortable room, one as homelike as you would wish it to be?

IF IT ISN'T

. . . the Rental Columns of the American and Advertiser Classified Pages is the best place to look for a more desirable room, conveniently located and reasonably priced.

Classification 87

CLASSIFIED ADS

Shopping with Priscilla Price

DEAR ANNE:
Where do we go from here? What do you want to see? If you're Southern bound for the warm sea waves, beach robes and shade hats will claim your interest. If you are digging in for real Winter, or headed up into the carnival country, for coats and sputters is in order. Personally, as long as I slip and slush into Boston every day, my mind turns fondly toward the warm and woolies. And, by the way,

Here's a Tip

For you. Filene's is selling these new English imported spattees for $2.00; which is a dollar and a half less than I've found them elsewhere. Unusually good looking ones, too, of different colors and patterns, with the strap to go under the arch of the shoe and the smart turned down cuff top; the most practical and popular Winter article we've had for a long time. And the best thing about them is that they are just as good for the school girl and business woman as they are for one devoted entirely to sports.

However, when it comes to skating or coasting, the children in our neighborhood go in for Filene's 100 per cent. camel's hair stockings ($1.65 a pair), for they give the most comfort. Always soft, always warm, and not prickle or overheating. But you and I, my dear, had best choose their rayon and wool mixtures at $1.35, three pair for $4.00, for they give all the protection we need and have a nice silky sheen besides.

And if you have a real date to go skimming over the icy ponds moonlight nights, with somebody special, you'll want to take advantage of the drop from $10 to $8 in their beautiful Scotch cashmere sweaters, of the many colored knitted yarn. Then a pair of camel's hair gauntlet gloves, which come almost to the elbow and flare out big enough to encompass the muff (also now instead of $3.00), and you are ready to meet old man Winter on his own ground.

They're Knocking

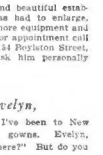
Silver's Specialty Shop all to pieces. Hammer and nails, there're going after it. But I want you to see the new shop in its new location, room 502, of the Blake Building, 59 Temple Place. (Room 509 is Dead Long five room 502?)

Beautiful big rugs, stunning black and gold cases, tawny curtains and racks of splendid clothing. With new arrivals coming in every day.

But right now, coats are the leading lights in the shop. Coats selling from $35 to $59, sport coats as low as $19.75. Coats of high grade materials, lined with heavy crepe, and trimmed with deep full furs. Camel's hair coats, coats of imported English plaids, the rich pile fabrics, and the novelty tweeds. They're being sacrificed, of course; but every move involves a sacrifice, and the new shop is worth it.

Do Birds Fly—

Do Barbara's friends like the permanent waves L. Mux gives them? Of course they do, for the wave he gives is the wave of their dreams; wide, soft, glossy, most becomingly trained to the contour of the face, and done with such genius that the hair remains alive, gleaming and healthy.

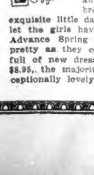


And, by the way, this is an anniversary of the L. Max Shop. It was about a year ago that he moved from his old quarters on Tremont Street, and set up this modern and beautiful establishment. Recently he has had to enlarge, build more booths, put in more equipment and engage more operators. For appointment call Beach 2681, or drop in at 144 Boylston Street, on the third floor and ask him personally about your hair.

"Evelyn, Evelyn,

Where have you been? I've been to New York to get some new gowns. Evelyn, Evelyn, what found you there?" But do you think she'd tell me? No, sir—they were for me to see.

So, of course, I went up there first thing this morning, for no letter to you would be complete without news of the Evelyn Shop (8 Winter Street, 3rd floor).



And I want to tell you right now that I'm going to scold her. I've always thought she should ask much more than $12.95 for those lovely dresses and here she has gone and brought back a special lot of exquisite little darlings which she wants to let the girls have for $8.95. Brannv new. Advance Spring styles and colors, and as pretty as they can be. So there's a shop full of new dresses, with a good group at $8.95, the majority at $12.95, and some exceptionally lovely ones at $19.50.

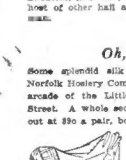
No, Dear, I Can't

Come out Tuesday, or Wednesday. Simply can't. They're sweeping clean at Talbot's with a stock-taking sale that swings through nearly every department of the store. And Barbara and I must get to work and sweep, too. We intend to go over every bit of clothing our men folks possess and make a January clearance of all that isn't worth holding over any longer. For one of our New Year revolutions (Steve says it's "revolutions" and he knows, 'cause he's ter) Well, then, our resolution is to start the family off with plenty of everything, fresh and whole, and then keep them so. (Saves a world of irritation, you know.) So with lists in hand we're going down to Talbot's just as early as we can get there and buy what we need. The sale only lasts Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

It's a marvelous chance. A regular annual event, when the standard merchandise is reduced with the holiday specials to get the stock as low as possible before the final count is made and new orders placed. You can get broadcloth shirts as low as $1.00; some of those formerly $2.65 and $3.00 for $1.85. Forest Mills underwear, perhaps the finest brand on the market, is down from $2.50 to $1.65. And the same average reduction goes through nearly everything else—sweaters, golf hose, bath robes, gloves and a host of other half and half necessities of men.

Oh, I Saw

Some splendid silk stockings over at the Norfolk Hosiery Company, on the street floor arcade of the Little Building, 80 Boylston Street. A whole section of odd lots, closing out at $90 a pair, both in the service weight and the chiffon. Stockings of excellent quality, which have been used for window display, are slightly soiled, or just left over from the great Christmas rush. Some of silk and wool are even less, only 79c a pair, three for $2.25.



Ummh! I saw, too, that they have replenished the men's sport socks of silk and wool, the 35c a pair group, three pair for $1.00. That's lucky for those who didn't get in last week, for the thrifty shoppers ate them up 'til they were almost gone.

I'm Walking

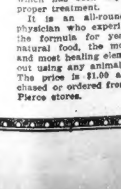
On the wings of the morning; walking with a spring, a lilt; a joyous exhilaration of motion that has only come since I followed my own advice and bought a pair of Dr. Sakiad's Meta Support shoes—a stunning pair of one strap patent leathers for $10.45.

I'd heard them highly recommended as corrective shoes for rebuilding arches and readjusting distorted muscles and I admired the slender, graceful line of them immensely. But now I can say from experience that they do take your feet gently but firmly in hand and make them function in the normal way with a perfect poise and a delight in walking that comes within a few days, a few hours almost.

The shop is on the second floor of the Little Building, 80 Boylston Street.

Don't Let Me

Forget tonight, when I phone in my order to the S. S. Pierce Store, to tell them to add a jar of Nultra Cold Cream to the other things. I'm all out, and it's most important not to let a day go by without giving my skin its regular nourishment. Nultra Cream penetrates, you know, and becomes literally absorbed by the little cells and tissues which suffer so much from exposure to wind and cold. It heals, softens and rejuvenates to a miraculous degree, and when you see a woman whose skin looks truly young you instinctively know it's a "Nultrafied" skin. A skin which has been kept fresh and lovely by proper treatment.



It is an all-round cream made by a physician who experimented and worked on the formula for years, seeking the most natural food, the most soothing astringent and most healing elements to be found, without using any animal fats or inert material. The price is $1.00 a jar and can be purchased or ordered from any of the four S. S. Pierce stores.

How Early

Can you get a train down tomorrow? Send me a wire and we'll go together. But take the first one in.

It's terribly important. About the biggest event I've written you yet. Holeproof Hosiery with a price cut almost in half. Holeproof, mind you; the leading high-grade hosiery of the nation. At Talbot's (395 Washington Street) the $1.75 number closing out for 98c. As soon as Talbot's got wind of it, they purchased all they could get, in the newest Parisian colors; stockings of flawless sheer silk, full fashioned, with lisle tops and feet. Hundreds and hundreds of them, to be sold to their patrons for 98c a pair. Three pair for $2.75.

We thought them a splendid buy for $1.75 —the hosiery we cherished for special occasions and our loveliest gowns. But for 98c, it's something unheard of, the most remarkable value in New England.

Here's something else to go along with it; something almost as startling. A companion offering of silk chiffon and service weight hosiery in the newest colors for 75c a pair. Three pair for $2.15. And it's Holeproof, too. Anne, Anne, don't be late, or I'll go along without you. We're friends, but this is a time when speed counts more than friendship.

How Long Since

You've been up to see Miss Wiggins' (Fourth floor of the Lawrence Building, corner of Tremont and West) Not since last Monday? Well, well, that won't do at all. For she's had more than seventy-five new dresses come in from New York since then, and every shipment is a little different than the one before.

Those I saw today prove beyond doubt that the rumors from Paris are actually true — navy blue set off with a touch of some brilliant color is to be the big Spring leader. And her navy blues are leaders; every one of them. One has an overblouse of navy taffeta printed with dashing flowers, another has shirred peasant sleeves which fall most gracefully over the shoulder; one is piped with brilliant red and another has many steel buttons.

A model which interested me especially was of creamy tan georgette combined with deep lace, wherein you slipped into the sleeves and blouse and were correctly gowned for an afternoon tea; and upon slipping out of this part of the costume you were most exquisitely arrayed in a sleeveless gown for a dinner or a dance. This was $35, but many of them were but $15.75.

In fact, Miss Wiggins' taste for gowns is only exceeded by her love of hats. And how her eyes sparkle when hats are mentioned. If you are very, very good she will show you her new ones of milan, corded Clerette, milan combined with suede, and some of belting ribbon with sporty little double brims.

But Silk Undies

Give true aristocracy to any gown. They really do. Such dainty tailored garments as I saw at the Naturaline Corset Company right down the hallway from Miss Wiggin's Shop, Room 405 of the Lawrence Building. Lovely little things which have been marked down to keep pace with the big sale in corsets. Glove silk vests at $1.75, step-ins for $2.50; bloomers of exquisite glove silk with generous reinforcement extending to the cuff, only $3.75; and dainty crepe de chine pieces which are the delight of every feminine heart. I found some silk and wool hosiery at $1.35 and corsets—well, if you had seen the splendid garments marked $1.95, $2.95 and $3.95 you would appreciate this nice little shop as much as I do.

You Remember

Marguerite, the lovely lady of beautiful gowns, up in the Walker Building (120 Boylston Street, room 416)? Well, we're going to run up there for a few moments, so you can see the perfect darlings she is getting for the girls at $15.00.

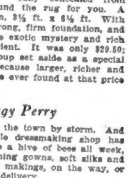
There's one of blue flat crepe piped with gold, with graceful gray peasant sleeves, and a delicately shirred waistline; a lovely symbol of sweet girlhood; another a softly blushing gray bolero model, with underblouse embroidered in gold; a most exquisite orchid, with flowers like ruffles; the gorgeous tangerines and flaming youth, softest greens, dainty tans and smartest blues —And Marguerite seems to know somehow just the dress a girl needs to bring out all that is beautiful, and how to get it for her at this surprisingly moderate price.

Forewarned Is Forearmed

When buying Oriental rugs, so when you said you needed a new rug to go in front of your fireplace, I went to Joseph Palais, at 390 Boylston Street, and talked the matter over with him. What a splendid shop he has. Big, deep rooms, with piles and piles of Persian treasures on either side. I looked over the rich Serouks, the lovely Lilihanns, and Chinese rugs of wondrous blue. And away in a corner, carefully concealed from casual eyes, I found the rug for you. A beautiful Kurdistan, 2½ ft. x 6½ ft. With thick, rich nap, strong, firm foundation, and woven with all the exotic mystery and rich coloring of the Orient. It was only $29.50; one of a large group set aside as a special value. Unusual because larger, richer and heavier than you've ever found at that price before.

Peggy Perry

Gowns have taken the town by storm. And Peggy Perry's little dressmaking shop has been humming like a hive of bees all week, with gorgeous evening gowns, soft silks and rich velvets in the makings, on the way, or being wrapped for delivery.



She's a perfect little genius, that girl; one of these adorable moderns who can do anything with silk and scissors in the twinkling of an eye. Make up a dress for a dinner party that has all the smart touches of an imported model; drape an evening gown that will give Lucy's lovely lines the perfection of a Venus. With a firm, sure touch, she creates the design you wish; a period gown, a fluttery thing of tulle, or a simple tailored frock. Her price is $12, and you must bring your own materials. It's the most convenient place to find—up on the eleventh floor of the Dexter Building, 453 Washington Street, Room 1105, to be accurate. And when you get your gown you'll want

'A Renne Hat

To go with it. Haven't I told you about Renne hats? Surely I must have. They are created in the Renne Hat Salon, Suite 76 of the Ambassador Building, 41 Winter Street. Molded on your head out of the latest Spring models into models more Parisian than Paris. She uses imported felts, some most delicately frosted; the Visca, a crushable knotted straw; and Chsol, a new straw with a silky sheen. Out of hoods of these new fabrics bewitching hats are created, with even more chic and snappy lines than the velours and felts of the Winter season. They are charming hats, radiant with personality and individual touches, trimmed to fashion dictates so modern we hardly know yet they exist. The price is from $10 up.

But she has some exceptionally fine hats made up which are reduced to $7.50 to clear them out and make room for the early Spring stock, hats which were $12 and $15 a week or so ago.

The Vogue Shop

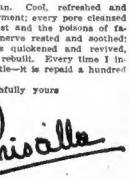
Is another shop I've added to my list of Shops-Every-Woman-Should-Know. It's up on the fifth floor of the Lawrence Building corner of Tremont and West)—a shop where beautiful bargains abound on every rack.

Dresses for $15. Such bright attractive ones, which show their Parisian lineage in every line and color. A ruffle of knife pleating or shoot up and around; unexpected flares give added grace, a big blue rose adds a piquant touch; bright flashes of silver and gold, tiny tucks and wee buttons, these are the highlights of the mode which you will find there.

It's a shop also, with all the high priced cloth coats marked down to half their former price—lovely coats of rich pile fabrics with collars and cuffs of splendid furs.

Now, Home James

But first take me to R. H. White's, for I hear they have received a complete supply of Vironol Face Powder in Flesh, Peach, Brunette, Rachel and White ($1.25 a box). And I do consider it a privilege to be matched up to a soft clinging powder of that superior quality in exactly the shade I need.



I might as well get another bottle of the Vironol Swedish Face Bath at the same time, too, as it's more than invested in a fresh, radiant complexion. Clean—oh, so clean. Cool, refreshed and tingling with enjoyment; every pore cleansed of accumulated dust and the poisons of fatigue; every tiny nerve rested and soothed; all the blood cells quickened and revived, and broken tissue rebuilt. Every time I invest $1.25 in a bottle—it is repaid a hundred times.

Faithfully yours

Priscilla

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON VARIOUS SOCIETY EVENTS

Miss Polly Cabot to Spend Rest of the Winter Abroad

FAR HORIZONS AND WHAT LAY BEHIND THEM HAVE had a potent charm for Miss Polly Cabot of Boston and Dublin, during the past two or three years, with the result that this accomplished and popular young girl has figured not at all in the frivolous doings of the resident young set, having been on the other side of the world most of the time. Her very recent departure is via the steamship DeGrasse, at this moment ploughing eastward to the Old World, and her traveling companion is that inveterate globe trotter, Mrs. George Lee of Berkeley street and the North Shore.

IT'S QUITE NATURAL that Miss Cabot, whose talents run to fancy dancing and figure skating (with an equal facility in each), should love the excitement and variety of travel in foreign lands, for the T. Handasyd Cabots, her parents, are far more fond of life abroad than in their Boston environment. Of Summers they belong in that smart little colony whose villas ring pretty little Dublin Lake around, but Winter finds them, almost invariably, joining a favorite set abroad. They sailed away this season more than a month ago, not very long after young Handasyd Cabot and Miss Thea Brush were wed.

MISS NANCY MURRAY, youngest of the three T. Morris Murray daughters, is another young Boston girl who literally "lives in a trunk," so very frequent are her journeys across the big pond. The whole family, really, travels back and forth between Europe and America with the casualness that comes from repeated crossings. Miss Nancy and Miss Rosamond Murray and the former Miss Mary Murray (now Mrs. Ross T. Whistler) are as much at home on the other side as in Boston and number their friends in many smart circles. Journey's end for Miss Nancy Murray on this present trans-Atlantic excursion is, so I hear, Egypt, which has so sprung into favor as a playground for America's rich and fashionable since the Valley of the Kings acquired an interest for others than archaeologists.

THE DEGRASSE also has in a representative Boston contingent Mrs. George F. Shepley of Warren street, Brookline, who is shepherding across the Atlantic her grandchildren, little John A. Sweetser, Jr., and his small sister, Miss Juliana Sweetser, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Sweetser of Brookline. They are to Winter in southern France, a most alluring prospect of soft blue skies and tempered breezes. Mrs. Candler Gardiner and Miss Evelyn Gardiner also are passengers bound over the seas on the DeGrasse.

LATE-SEASON for the debutante glows with unabated brilliance. Large balls, scattered judiciously through the January program, and not (as is the case in Gotham) occurring several in an evening, serve to keep the young set affairs at a high pitch without unduly depriving Miss Debbie of an occasional before-twelve o'clock beauty sleep. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bancroft's ball this evening for Miss Jessie Bancroft will bring out the Young Set almost en masse, for Miss Bancroft's popularity in her set is as wide as that of her parents in their circle.

LADY BEATRIX WILKINSON wore an exquisite collar of rose point lace with her black velvet frock at the private view of "Titania's Palace." Rose point and black velvet, as feminine adornment, are perennial favorites, belonging to no period and no vogue and as effective today as in the days of our grandmothers. All Boston's elite who came to greet this charming Lady Beatrix and the genial Sir Neville Wilkinson accord them as high a degree of personal popularity as the Palace itself evokes.

MRS. FREDERICK BUSK, substituting in the receiving line for her sister, Mrs. Oliver Ames, Jr., was a picture of slender, blonde young matronhood in a perfect frock of bright red worn with a small black hat and fox furs. Mrs. H. Parker Whittington, one of the exhibition's chief directors, wore black set off with bright bonds in periwinkle coloring. And smartest of the smart was Mrs. Samuel Warren, in a black satin frock done with white flat crepe, topped by a snug black satin hat. Mrs. Warren was hostess for the private view, and a decidedly handsome one she was.

HAVING PUT the stamp of its approval on whatever the sponsors for the Children's and the Infants' Hospitals may stage, society eagerly snapped up the opportunity to see Titania's Palace and its empress, to chat with Sir Nevile and the Lady Beatrix, and to sip a cup of tea in the pretty tea garden. There Mrs. Gordon Abbot, very smart in a purple costume, and Mrs. Homer B. Richardson in dark green, presided. Mrs. Robert Morse, one of the tea garden satellites, wore a black velvet frock painted in pastel flowers. Mrs. Richard S. Russell was in a trig brown coat suit that matched exactly her small brown hat and her very sheer stockings and smart shoes.

MRS. GEORGE S. WEST brought her small children to see the wonders of the Palace. Mr. F. Murray Forbes joined Mrs. Forbes for a late afternoon visit. Mrs Forbes wore a lovely frock of deep rose velvet. Mrs. Robert Whitman Means (she has just made a highly successful short venture into trade) wore dark green. Mrs. J. Lewis Bremer likewise wore the smart bottle shade. Mrs. Eliot Wadsworth was in brown, Mrs. Arthur Hale wore a knitted silk frock. Mrs. B. H. Bristow Draper was in gray from head to heel, gray shoes and smart gray felt hat with a handsome gray fur coat.

AFTER ALL this pleasant preliminary, today for the first time the general public may see the Palace. Mrs. Alvan Tufts Fuller is an honorary hostess for the tea hour, and Mesdames Clarence B. Edwards, George Swinnerton Parker, Charles Sumner Bird and Robert B. Osgood also are honorary hostesses. Miss Nancy Morison, Miss Sally Parker, Miss Dolores de Pierrefeu, Miss Katherine Hamlin and Miss Helga Gray are assisting as waitresses, to help start the exhibition off most auspiciously.

Betty Alden

International Newsreel Photo

ON TENNIS COURT

Miss Polly Cabot wields a racquet in championship style.

LOOKING UP DATA

Miss Cabot, an inveterate globe trotter, always "reads up" on the history of the strange and outaway places she is to visit.

Bachrach Photo

IS EXPERT SKATER

The skill of Miss Cabot in cutting fancy figures on the ice is proverbial.

ONLY OIL MAN WHO CALLED ROCKEFELLER "JOHN" DIES

Findlay, O., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—J. C. Donnell, said to be the only man in the oil industry to call John D. Rockefeller by his first name, died at his home early today. Donnell, who was an intimate friend of Rockefeller, was president of the Ohio Oil Company, a trustee of the Equitable Trust Company of New York, and a director of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad. Death was due to sudden heart attack, following three and one-half weeks' illness with influenza.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

thing with his right hand, they cut off that right hand. If he blasphemed, they cut out his tongue. If he put out another man's right eye, they put out his right eye, etc.

MODERN WISDOM should find a better way than mere imitation to punish a wife beater. Why not put him to work until he earns enough money to buy his wife a nice little automobile? He could do that in two years. Then let him sit at the window and see her drive by, and warn him that if he repeats his offense, he will have to earn a new car for her.

Better plans could be found, but nothing could be more dull than merely imitating the wife beater by beating him, as we imitate the murderer by killing him.

LAST SATURDAY Sir Samuel Hoare, British Air Minister, and his wife, finished their flight from London to Delhi, India. The trip of 6,300 miles was made in sixty-three flying hours, an average of one hundred miles an hour. Lady Hoare said it was a comfortable trip, and she could use her powder puff very nicely in flight.

MEN THAT manage Britain's flying force actually Fly. That seems very strange in this more conservative country, quite without adequate air defence, its flying in the hands of men that know as much about practical flying as a turtle knows about ice skating.

We had one real flying officer, Mitchell, ranking with any flier in Europe. But his talk interfered with battleship contracts and it did not take long to get rid of him.

ARABS ARE picturesque, but when they come to Paris and Frenchmen get it. So France will vaccinate all her Arabs, whether they like it or not, which will mean a hard fight against Mohammedan superstition. For mysterious reasons, Providence allows religions, old and new, to oppose the progress of science.

Hindus rage when the British won't let them swim in the filthy "Holy" Ganges, with its thousands of floating corpses. Tell them such stupidity spreads plague and they tell you the Ganges is a Holy river.

TELL CERTAIN AMERICANS that their children should be vaccinated, and they will give you some religious objection, or a worse pseudo-scientific one of their own manufacture.

When Lady Wortley Montagu had herself vaccinated, thereby saving her life, undoubtedly, her friends thought her crazy.

The Russian Empress Catherine, enlightened perhaps by her correspondence with Voltaire, was vaccinated, and upon the little boy whose arm supplied the vaccine she conferred the title "Duke of Smallpox," most seriously.

ONE THING is certain, the French are logical, scientific and do not turn back. They will vaccinate those Arabs, whether or no, and let them wonder why Allah and Mohammed do not appear to prevent it.

GENERAL BUTLER, who wore himself out fighting bootleggers and bootlegging police in Philadelphia, and was then thrown out, has changed his mind about prohibition. He discovers that it is only the poor man that is deprived of liquor. And as for the better class, says he, "there is always a plentiful supply on hand for corruption in the upper crust."

GENERAL BUTLER should know that "equal justice" must not be taken too seriously.

And, after all, the humble are the great majority. What an admirable thing if they can be kept virtuous, while their more prosperous brother drinks his champagne and cocktails.

THEATRE MEN HIT BACK AT MINISTER

Fitchburg, Jan. 10.—Fitchburg theatre managers are up in arms over the comments of the Rev. E. B. Price, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in his war on Sunday night movies and shows. They claim that the pastor errs when he says that the shows are attended only by a "certain element."

The theatre men point out that as 25 per cent. of the Sunday night proceeds go to Fitchburg organizations, the shows are attended by persons in all walks of life.

While the pastor was attacking the shows Sunday night, hundreds were unable to gain admittance to the theatre, they being sold out.

DOG TEAMS OFF WITH HUB MAIL

Minot, Me., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—The first official dog mail teams left Minot Corner today, bound for Boston and New York.

They carried four sacks of mail directed to mayors of cities and government officials along the route, and also letters for Governors Fuller of Massachusetts and Smith of New York, signed by Governor Brewster of Maine.

Two coons were made official mail carriers by Postmaster-General New, who sent a telegram from Washington authorizing the use of all government mail bags needed for the journey.

The dogs are huskies owned by E. P. Clark of Jilson, N. H. Some of them took part in the dog race last Winter which started from Poland Spring. Clark drives one team and the other is driven by A. W. Pulsifer, postmaster at Minot Corner. In Clark's team are ten dogs and in Pulsifer's seven.

The teams first headed for Portland, and from there will go to Boston over the Newburyport turnpike.

King Ferdinand Better

Bucharest, Rumania, Jan. 10 (A.P.).—King Ferdinand appeared in much better health than on his last public appearance when he left the royal palace today to review two regiments. On his way to the review he chatted animatedly with members of his entourage.

TOTS AT FAIRY PALACE GIVE TO HOSPITALS

The glinting, glittering doors of Titania's Palace swung open today at the Paine Furniture Company and into the dazzling radiance of the fairy queen's habitat a throng of tots who some days will be buds and then debutantes trooped excitedly.

From their little purses—and when these were emptied—from the fathers purses of their mamas—the children laid down their offerings of clinking silver that their less fortunate brothers and sisters in the children's and infants' hospitals might be aided back to health.

Through all the palace they roamed excitedly, the visitors to Fairyland. They inscribed their names in the big, gold-covered "Wishing Book," and then rushed over to the "Wishing Well," where lay all the prizes that will be distributed at the end of the bazaar.

FIRST SIGNERS.

Little Charlie Meyer, 12, and his 5-year-old sister, Nancy, of Village street, Dedham, were first signers of the book—and even Nancy did very well with her chirocraphy, despite their rapture and excitement.

Other early child signers were Emily Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill and Mary Louise Herrick of Beach Bluff.

Sales of fudge and popcorn were heavy during the first day of Titania's Palace, that will be open until Jan. 29. The children bought balloons, too, in great fleets, but these were turned back to be sent to the children in the hospitals.

FROM THEATRES.

Mrs. Alvin T. Fuller, wife of the Governor, was guest at a tea in the palace, together with Gavin Gordon of the Castle Square Stock Co. and Walter Gilbert and Florence Shirley of the Keith-Albee Stock Co. Nine debutantes acted as waitresses.

A feature of Titania's Palace is a replica of a real palace, brought over here by Major Sir Neville, Lady Wilkinson and the Earl of Wicklow, and set up at the bazaar. The children were much interested in it.

Mrs. Frank Hubert Stewart is hostess at the palace, and she reported today that a number of donations have been received for the hospital.

Boston society women are sponsoring the novel aid for the hospitals and Mrs. Oliver Ames Jr., and Mrs. H. Parker Whittington are co-chairmen of the executive committee.

BOSTON-BOUND SHIP IN DISTRESS AT SEA

The crew of the Boston-bound steamship Svartfond, aided by two freighters in response to a radio call, today are constructing a jury rudder to complete their trip to this port.

The vessel tied up broadcasting when the call for aid was sent out from a position 150 miles northeast of Bermuda. The American freighter Antinoe and the British freighter Nalnoer rushed to her aid. John G. Hall & Co., agents for the vessel, reported her laden with 2,200 tons of salt for the Eastern Salt Company. The vessel is of Norwegian registry and carries a crew of 28 men. Agents expect her arrival Wednesday or Thursday.

Don't hunt for apartments. Save time and trouble. Consult the Classified Ads and your problem will be solved. Classifications 35 and 37.

LAST TRIBUTES ARE PAID TO BIRNEY LYNCH

A large gathering of fellow newspapermen, world war veterans, city officials and sportsmen attended the funeral of Birney Parker Lynch, sporting editor of the Boston Evening American, at St. Mark's Church, Dorchester, today.

The Rev. William Toohig, pastor of St. Mark's, was the celebrant of the solemn mass of requiem.

The ex-service men at the funeral included a delegation from the Cresscup-Phelon Post of the American Legion.

The honorary pall bearers were Major Paul Hines, Major Edwin Cooper, Vice Commander G. M. Stern, Lieut. Joseph Mulligan, Lieut. W. J. Newman, Lieut Allen Turner. The active pall bearers were all fellow workers with Mr. Lynch on the Boston American: Jack Conway, Nick Phitter, James W. Reardon, Joseph Cashman and George W. Grimes, and Stephen J. Mahoney, sporting editor of the Boston Daily Advertiser.

George Gilbody attended the funeral as a representative of the Boston City Council.

The body will be taken to Attica, N. Y., for interment tonight.

Mr. Lynch died at his home, No. 33 Rosemont road, Dorchester, Saturday morning. After his graduation from high school he became a sports writer on the Syracuse Post Standard, remaining there for four years. He enlisted in the Canadian Royal Flying Corps soon after the United States entered the World War and later was transferred to the United States army, serving as a flying instructor.

He returned to newspaper work after the armistice and became sporting editor of the Boston Evening American in March, 1926.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH OF AUTO AND FIRE TRUCK

North Reading, Jan. 10.—A house, store and two-car garage on the Lawrence-Boston road were destroyed by fire today, the flames gaining headway because the combination automobile of the fire department on the way to the fire crashed into a Buick coach, owned by B. Kapian of Central street, Boston.

A woman was thrown from her seat in the auto by the collision. Her head was cut, but she refused hospital treatment.

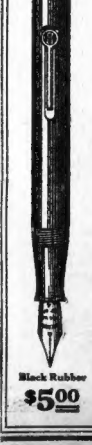
Tenants in the two-story house above the store were away for the day, and the cause of the blaze is a mystery.

HALL OWNERS FEAR TO LEASE THEM FOR BIMBA

John S. Codman today gave out for publication a copy of a letter he addressed to Mayor Nichols on Nov. 23 in which he placed before the mayor certain information relative to the efforts of the International Labor Defense to secure a hall at which Anthony Bimba might speak.

Codman says that halls would be closed to the "reds" for fear of fire if the licenses might not be renewed if such a meeting were permitted.

RUBBER



When you buy a fountain pen be sure the holder is made of Pure Hard Rubber—

The one known product that insures fountain pen perfection.

Rubber is not affected by the essential ingredients in permanent inks.

Rubber is resilient and pleasing to the touch.

Rubber retains its lustre and color longer in all climates.

Rubber is light in weight and does not add an unnecessary burden when writing.

All Waterman's pens are made of rubber especially selected for strength and character. For more than 44 years Waterman's selected rubber has been recognized as unexcelled material for fountain pen holders.

If you want a pen that has actually demonstrated its worth buy a

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

The pen with the hard rubber holder
Made in Black, Ripple-Rubber and Red

Sold by 50,000 merchants

Black Rubber $5.00 — Ripple-Rubber $7.50

L. E. Waterman Company, 40 School St., Boston
New York Chicago San Francisco Montreal

A BIRTHDAY SALE OF PROGRESS VALUE

1851 Every item in this Sale equals or surpasses the Diamond Jubilee values of a year ago 1927

On Sale TUESDAY---

4704 Pieces of Women's Undermuslins

Envelope Chemises
Usually 2.00
Made of fine nainsook, trimmed with fancy lace and medallions.

$1.25 ea.
Usually $2.00

Costume Slips
Usually 3.00
Lingette and fine muslin slips, shadow hems, many trimmed with real lace.

Philippine Gowns
Twenty designs, every one attractive, all hand-made and hand-embroidered.

Women's Pajamas
Several styles made of fancy crepe and plain cottons.

Extra Size
Gowns of muslin, crepe and flannelette.
Costume Slips of muslin and striped sateen.

Women's Nightgowns
Twenty styles of muslin, flannelette, cotton crepe or nainsook. High, V and round necks.

Women's Undermuslins—Fourth Floor—Main Store

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

POLICE CHIEF JAILED, STILL FOUND IN HOME

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—George Kroll, chief of police at Mountain Iron, Minn., since Jan. 1, is in jail at Virginia following his raided Kroll's home, it was stated.

arrest by Federal prohibition agents on charges of violating the liquor laws. A still, going full blast, and a quantity of mash, wine, and gin was found by John F. Grogan, enforcement chief of the Duluth district, when he and Federal agents

N. Y. PAYS $18,000,000 TO SEE "ABIE'S IRISH ROSE"

New York, Jan. 10.—Some $18,000,000 has been paid to see "Abie's Irish Rose," which gives its 2000th performance tomorrow night.

KILLS WIFE AS CHILD TELLS 'SECRET'

Bloomfield, N. J., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—A "secret" revealed by a six-year-old child to her father for a bribe of a few pennies has resulted in the slaying of her mother and the arrest of her father on a charge of murder.

Richard Stringer, thirty-two, the father, told police that when he returned home from work Saturday he found his two children, Marion, two, and Anna, six, alone in the house.

Anna, he said, rushed up to him with a shout. "Daddy," she said, "if you will give me money for candy I'll tell you a secret."

A few pennies were produced and Anna told her secret. A strange man, she said, had been coming to the home in the afternoons to see her mother.

Stringer told police he left the house and, after a vain effort to purchase a revolver in Bloomfield, finally obtained a small rifle in a Newark sporting goods establishment.

On returning home, he said, he questioned his wife, Gertrude, also thirty-two, and after a quarrel that extended into the early hours of Sunday he shot and killed her. He then proceeded to police headquarters where he startled attaches by calmly announcing, "Sergeant, I just shot my wife."

Police found Mrs. Stringer dead on the floor of a bedroom with a bullet in her brain. In another room were found the two children, Anna weeping bitterly.

Trying to Save Fall

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 10, (A.P.).—Physicians attending Albert B. Fall today planned to continue the use of heart stimulants to maintain a normal blood pressure. The former Secretary of the Interior has been ill with pneumonia for two weeks.

AUTO MAN SHOOTS SELF; LEAVES NOTE TO WIFE

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Albert L. Sawyer, thirty-six, secretary of the Pierce-Arrow Buffalo Sales Company, Inc., shot himself in the right temple today in the company's miles rooms here. It was stated he could live only a few hours.

Sawyer's wife, Mrs. Cora Sawyer, lives at East Aurora. The couple had not been living together. In a note left in the salesroom addressed to Mrs. Sawyer, the writer said he hoped she would forgive him

Wesleyan Gets $1,600,000

Middletown, Ct., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Completion of the collection of an endowment of $1,300,000 by Wesleyan University, which entitles the institution to $400,000 offered by the General Education Board, was announced today

HUB FIRST AT DODGE SHOW

From all over the country today the men who handle Dodge automobiles touted their congratulations to Charles S. Henshaw, president of the Henshaw Motor Company, at No. 882 Commonwealth avenue, for his success as a feature entertainment provider at the 1927 convention of Dodge men in Detroit.

With Francesca Braggiotti, Hub society dancer, and little Peggy and Kay Corbett, pretty Somerville girls, arrayed in the palm of his hand as tid-bits, President Henshaw put on a Boston program of entertainment that overshadowed the offerings from all other Dodge divisions in the United States.

This was despite the fact that the West sent the gum-chewing wise cracking Will Rogers, while the South entered the beautiful Irene Bordoni.

The convention ended Saturday and the congratulations to President Henshaw began to come today so fast that he could hardly "Dodge" them.

Not so good.

A Birthday Sale of Progress Value

1851 Every item in this Sale equals or surpasses the Diamond Jubilee 1927 values of a year ago

On Sale TUESDAY---

Twelve Hundred of the season's most desirable

Block Patterned Scarfs

of fine quality silk crepe

—Unusual patterns
—Unusual colors
—Unusual PRICE

$3.25 Usually 5.50

If you are going South, match these Scarfs to your Hats or Frocks

Tan Red | Copen Green | Gray Black | Wood Black and White | Salmon

Neckwear Section, Street Floor, Main Store

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

A Birthday Sale of Progress Value

1851 Every item in this Sale equals or surpasses the Diamond Jubilee values of a year ago 1927

On Sale TUESDAY

8400 Boxes of

Writing Paper

In White and Tints

Usually Priced 1.00 to 2.50

62c Box

By all means see this wonderful value. These are all high-grade parchment and parchment vellum papers; some are panelled, others are deckle-edged, with a choice of gold or silver edge. In gray and white.

1500 Guaranteed

Fountain Pens

(Men's and Women's)

Usually 3.50 1.65 Each

Every pen positively guaranteed. The pens are 14k gold; iridium tips; all are self-filling. Each has 14k gold-filled, hand-chased band, and clip or ring. Black only.

STATIONERY SECTION—STREET FLOOR—ANNEX

Additional Ladder of Progress Items in Other Daily Papers

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

1851 Jordan Marsh Company 1927

Birthday Sale of Progress

After All— Values Count

The first week of Jordan's Birthday Sale of Progress ended Saturday.

At the rate set this first week not only will the Sale equal the great Diamond Jubilee Sale of a year ago —but it will add another immense increase to the million-and-a-half-dollar increase of last January.

The Diamond Jubilee became the greatest selling achievement New England had ever known because it presented values unheard of here or anywhere else.
The results of the past week have proved our belief that it was not the magic of the words Diamond Jubilee, but the plain everyday appeal of Value that gave us the tremendous increase that we told about in our announcement of this Sale.

But that's only the first week!

Beginning today there still remain three weeks of values which shall continue every day to equal or surpass those of the Diamond Jubilee.

If you haven't yet taken advantage of the values that are producing this wonderful record — start today. If you have — there's no need of our suggestion that you keep it up.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

GOLDEN ROADS

by Winifred Van Duzer
Author of "THE GOOD BAD GIRL"

Yesterday the Boston Sunday Advertiser gained 275 classified ads over the corresponding day of last year.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A NEWSPAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK
BOSTON, MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1927

SECOND SECTION

BROOKLINE SCHOOL WAR ON JUNIOR HIGH PLAN

ROB GIRL IN AUTO HOLDUP

Crowding their victim's car to the curb in West Waterown today, armed thugs held up George L. Whitney of Washington street, Dorchester, and Miss Effie Coutier of North Beacon street, Watertown, according to a story told the police by the couple.

The thugs in another automobile followed the couple for three miles, when they were forced to the curb. Miss Coutier, who was visiting Mr. Whitney, was forced from the latter's car and ordered to walk to a side road. Then one man, holding a revolver, ordered Whitney and his companion into the bushes.

After taking the rubber boots of Whitney and $140, but the driver told they missed a roll of bills that he dropped on the floor.

After the thugs drove away Whitney expected to be bound to a tree. A short time later an automobile stolen in Cambridge last Friday night was found at School and Pleasant streets, Watertown, deserted and damaged.

Found Dying by Wife

John J. Kilroy, of No. 5 Beckford street, Charlestown, was found dying in a pool of blood in his home last night by his wife, who called a doctor. Medical Examiner [illegible] said death was due to a fractured skull.

"Guilty" ∞ Father Alarmed ∞ By Jean McDonough

"I THOUGHT THAT DAVIS HAD IS-

[illegible] ultimatum that day when he called Father Carr and demanded that he do something to quit the [illegible]. But it wasn't the end. One night when [illegible] I leave from the Trenton Theatre I saw [illegible] in front of the house. He's hat and all, a red flannel shirt, with the money you owe [illegible]. Again, aren't you ashamed to see me in [illegible] I'm warning when you know [illegible] to pay. Some day [illegible] will be taken. Then [illegible] don't forget it."

"FATHER RAISED HIS HAND AS IF

to strike the man and told him to run along. 'I'm warning you, Davis,' he said. 'You'd better now before I lose my temper. Why, if he [illegible] enter the house [illegible] shot. And I mean it. Again, I'm warning you. [illegible] what you owe me. I'm warning you now, Davis, [illegible] Remember! Again, [illegible] Father took him by the arm and led him to the door, [illegible] of his fingers.

"WHEN WE GOT INSIDE I ASKED her about the invention. I wanted to know, too, and [illegible] told him [illegible] the police heard [illegible] owes him some money, but [illegible] especially and he knows it. That is the reason for all this trouble. I'd like to have him [illegible] but I don't think it's wise. It would [illegible] of unfavorable publicity and my business [illegible] I want that right now. But don't [illegible] about it, Lorna, it isn't worth while. I was the wife's father dismissed the problem [illegible] didn't seem so easy to me. I was afraid [illegible] would be trouble."

"THAT WAS ALL I HEARD ABOUT

[illegible] for a week, [illegible] Then [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] I owe him some money, but [illegible] especially and he knows it. That is the [illegible] reason for all this trouble. I'd like to have him [illegible] but I don't think it's wise. It would [illegible] of unfavorable publicity and my business [illegible] I want that right now. But don't [illegible] about it, Lorna, it isn't worth while. I was the wife's father dismissed the problem [illegible] didn't seem so easy to me. I was afraid [illegible] would be trouble"

CLIMAX IS EXPECTED TONIGHT

The [illegible] reached [illegible] by Brookline [illegible] parents of [illegible] suppression to the [illegible] Committee [illegible] junior high [illegible] school [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Martha Lee Talks To Housewives

COFFEE MADE BY THIS RULE IS RIGHTLY NAMED THE CUP THAT CHEERS

In how many ways, besides baked, do you serve macaroni? A manifest booklet illustrated in color gives recipes for delicious macaroni, spaghetti and noodle combinations. Summer and Winter menus, too. Don't fail to try the devilled spaghetti on page 6 and the macaroni rarebit. Yours for the asking.

COMB FILES FOR SPICED GOODIES

Are you combing your files for your best-by-test recipes to enter in the prize contest offered by one of the greatest manufacturers of spices and grocers' specialties in the United States?

This company, as of course you have read, has chartered one of the Great White Fleet ships sailing from Boston on March 18, 1927, for a cruise through the West Indies. The trip will include Havana, Cristobal and an interesting trip from Puerto Barrios to San Jose in Costa Rica. The cruise is planned in connection with the prize contest for the best recipes by New England cooks using these famous spices and specialties. Three judges with international reputations as cooks will serve in the contest, which closes at midnight, March 1st. One winner from each of the six New England States will be sent with a relative or friend on this interesting trip. That is, 12 people only will enjoy this wonderful cruise, with every expense, including all shore trips, taken care of by the spice company.

You will find further particulars on this page. What I want to add is a very special urge for you to enter, for every day's mail brings me favorite recipes that would be worthy prize winners.

CRESCENT BAKED BEANS

4 quart small white beans, ½ lb. salt pork, 3 tbsps. brown sugar, 1½ tsps. mapleine, ½ tsp. mustard, ¾ tsp. soda, 1½ tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper. Soak the beans over night. In the morning cook in water enough to cover until beans look clear, but not until the skins break. Add the soda and when beans boil up well, drain off the water and place in bean jar. Add salt pork, pepper, salt, mustard, sugar, and mapleine enough boiling water to cover, bake eight hours, adding boiling water occasionally, and about half an hour before taking from oven. Let brown slightly on top.

Marketing with MARTHA

Good food Values in and Around Boston

BREAD BOXES AND PEACHES

THE STAFF OF LIFE deserves a sanitary home. Keeps fresh longer, too, in ventilated bread box. Best in its class is a big beauty of a box, heavily enamelled. Removable wire shelves can be used as cake coolers. Stands on its side. Cover drops to show board and special bread knife that cuts even warm bread uniformly. Always $6.30. Reduced to $5. Short time. Lasts a life time.

POLISH PRECIOUS SILVER easily with a scientific chemically-treated polishing cloth. 25 cents. Does not injure the skin. Don't wash it but keep it in its own bag. No other polish necessary.

A MAGIC JELLY cleans rugs, clothes, curtains etc. in jig time. Rubbed on, brings dirt and stains to the surface. Rubs off with a damp cloth. Saves big cleaners' bills and damage from harsh chemicals. 25c

MOTHER GOOSE MAKES her own cookies now out of superfine health-bringing materials. Smacking good too. Every cookie has a Mother Goose rhyme baked right into it. 1c for a big package of health. Melts away like snow and every bite's wholesome

MAKE PEACHY PEACH desserts with economical evaporated peaches. 15c a large package. Soaked overnight in water, ready to use as fresh peaches next morning. Recipes for peach tapioca, peach pie and peach whip right on the package. Yum, Yum and yet another Yum.

MOTHER SWEET THOUGHT is luscious ready-prepared chocolate filling. Comes in powder form. Makes delicious chocolate puddings or fillings for cake and pies. 10c for generous package. 100% pure materials.

KIDDIES' KOLDS are often caused by clammy cotton knighties. Wool and cotton knit mixture makes ideal fabric for sleeping garments. Comes made up in cosy nightie, footed legs, drop seat, pocket, flat seams. Insurance against colds from kicked-off bedding. A quality garment now reduced to $1.45 for season's closing sale. Easily purchased by mail. Two ordered today may keep the doctor away.

STAY INSIDE AND clean the outside of your windows. A special washer, 98c. Makes shining windows easy and safe to achieve.

CLOUDY EYEGLASSES may be cleared in a moment with a special cleaner, 25c. Looks like a small lipstick. Weather doesn't affect the glass it has been used on. Prevents aggravating steaming.

I'VE JUST BECOME ACQUAINTED with a very fine school of candy-making. Teaches you to make candy at home so efficiently that you can start a paying candy business of your own. Real professional formulas given. There's always a market and good price for fine home-made candies.

EVERYTHING FOR THE NEW BABY can be purchased at a unique shop in quiet, pleasant surroundings. Everything for Mother's and Baby's comfort at prices within the reach of every pocketbook. A real mother and baby specialty shop, where you'll receive gracious attention, and if you want it, helpful advice.

LET ME KNOW just what items interest you. Check the column, attach a loose two cent stamp, your name and address and send along to

Faithfully yours,

Martha Lee

THE HOW AND WHY OF PERFECT COFFEE

Months before the Martha Lee Kitchen at No. 92 Summer street became a reality, I resolved that it would be not only a model kitchen, but the Home of Hospitality. Here I determined my cedar friends could come and feel sure of the same welcome they would receive in my own home. And ever in my mind, true hospitality is forever linked with "breaking bread," one of the few rules of our Kitchen is that everyone who drops in to see us shall be served either with the fruits of our day's cooking alone or a hot or cold drink—as their taste prefers.

That's why you find us grinding coffee so often and why there always a pot of freshly made coffee on the range. There's tea, too, for those who prefer it. Tea in dainty individual bags, a tea of delightful flavor and aroma served with lemon or cream as you will. There's instant chocolate always on call, too, not to forget the ever-ready supply of pale dry ginger ale kept at perfect temperature in the Kelvinator.

We're all puffed up over the compliments we've had on our coffee. We wish there was some black art in coffee-making which we had mastered and so could lay claim to the proud ownership of the magic secret. Our coffee-making, however is as simple as A B C. The secret, if there is any, lies in the brand of coffee we use. It's a new fancy blend of an old reliable make and it comes packed in the bean. We grind each pothful fresh as needed. Grinding your coffee fresh before brewing is just like picking vegetables fresh from your own garden. Next we scald our coffee pot with boiling hot water. Then carefully measure into our aluminum percolator, allowing one tablespoon for each cup with an extra one for the pot. All too many coffee-makers err on the side of too little coffee. Next rapidly boiling water is measured and poured into the percolator and the pot is set over the gas. Percolation starts immediately and as soon as the color shows a good red, we take the pot off the stove. Overpercolation is just as bad as overboiling, a fact I wish could be printed in bright red letters, all capitals.

If evaporated milk is to be used, this is first poured into the cup, but in the kitchen we prefer it in thin cream, which, used with the blend of coffee, makes a brew fit for crowned heads, not to boast, of course.

We've some interesting little books on how to make perfect coffee with directions for percolation, and filtration (or leached), as well as the good old-fashioned boiled coffee. And lodge and club committee women will be interested in the recipe it also contains for making coffee for fifty or one hundred people, which is quite a different matter from family coffee-making. It's quite possible to make good coffee in large quantities without the aid of a special urn or other special appliances.

From the Watchtower

There are no very bright lights on the vegetable counters today—no changes in the retail price of potatoes and nothing very new or startling from Florida, except egg plants, which are selling from 25c to 30c each. Native onions and squash are reasonable too, and native pears have appeared, in small bunch. Lemons are cheaper, a good and plentiful, and native Baldwin apples are excellent buy. Macintosh apples are scarce in the retail stores.

Poultry prices are lower this week, and lamb is cheap, with legs at 25c a pound and forequarters only 20c. A simple way of using left-over cold roast lamb and gravy is to remove the fat and skin from the cold meat. Cut it in pieces, heat it up in the gravy, and serve on small slices of toast, with mushroom sauce.

for week-end baking

Use HERE'S A RICH FLAVOR Mapleine —a distinctive flavoring!

A different and delicious flavoring for cake frostings and fillings, sauces, puddings, pastries, dainty desserts of all kinds.

Mapleine makes old recipes new.

In the morning ask your grocer for Mapleine.

CRESCENT MANUFACTURING CO. 86 Broad St., Boston, Mass

MAPLEINE for Syrup for Flavoring

Your best cooking recipe!

Send it to us and you may win a FREE

24-Day Cruise

to the Spice Islands of the Spanish Main —on a Great White Fleet Ship

Here's your chance, mothers and housewives, to win a Great Prize. Only your ability to cook counts. There are no entrance fees, and no essays to write.

Simply send us your recipes—as many as you wish—calling for the use of a Slade Spice or Specialty with a label from a Slade package attached to each.

Your best recipe will be improved with the addition of Slade's. You can be sure of best results when you use Slade's Spices, because they are absolutely pure and always uniform in strength and flavor.

Visit Havana / Panama Canal / Costa Rica } At not one cent of cost to you

Ask your Grocer for full details

D. & L. SLADE CO. 189 STATE ST., BOSTON

Contest Closes March 1, 1927

Housewives Appreciate A Real Good Polish

METALS · GLASS · PORCELAIN

NOXON Cleaner Polish

NON-INFLAMMABLE—CANNOT BURN

At Your GROCERY, Hardware or Department Store

Noxon Chemical Products Co., Inc. 287 ATLANTIC AVE., BOSTON, MASS.

Dealers order from your Jobber

BAKER'S COCOA for Luncheon

Here is a drink that has food value

As well as a most delicious flavor and aroma

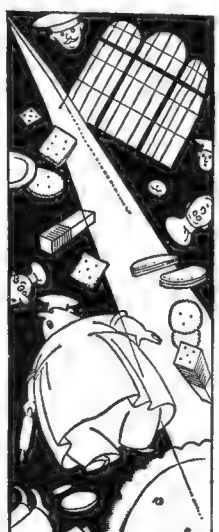
For the business man's luncheon it is incomparable

A DISTINGUISHED DIETITIAN ONCE SAID "It soothes both stomach and brain"

MADE ONLY BY WALTER BAKER & CO. Ltd. Established 1780 DORCHESTER, MASS.

Canadian Mills at Montreal

Booklet of Choice Recipes sent free



Let's straighten this mixup

Despite the frivolity of our artist, we're going to be intensely serious.

There seems to be considerable confusion in many minds as to who's who in the biscuit business and which biscuit is whose.

But—

We do not want the credit for other folks' good biscuits. Nor do we want other folks to get the credit for our good biscuits.

So—

Long ago we gave our many different kinds of biscuits one family name. We call them, Sunshine, because they're full of it—born in it, baked in it. Every one of our packages is so labeled. Purity and cleanliness are a part of every bake.

If you want these things...say so...you can say so with one word...Sunshine...only say it to your grocer.

Sunshine well worth saying whenever you want... BISCUITS

LOOSE-WILES BISCUIT CO.

STAGE SCREEN MUSIC

MENJOU STARS IN 'BLONDE OR BRUNETTE'

By LEO GAFFNEY

Adolphe Menjou, Greta Nissen and Ad... Menjou, Louis Wolheim and Al... Menjou, Irene Rich, Mary Brian, Gwen Lee and Arthur Housman in "Blonde or Brunette," at the Metropolitan.

Greta Nissen

MENJOU STARS.

... OTHER FEATURES.

... CASALS CONCERT

Pablo Casals had played through ... program at the Boston Opera House ... a farewell ... that ... to ... the great cellist would ... to Boston ... Vacation ... to be Mozart's ... the ... Adagio and Adagio ... mann.

BIG AUDIENCE HEARS LEVITZKI CONCERT

By MOSES SMITH.

The concert of Mischa Levitzki before a large audience at Jordan Hall was something of a museum event for this young pianist, a master of his instrument at the age of twenty-eight has not played in Boston in years.

To many, Levitzki is a very puzzling figure on the concert stage. All are agreed that technically he is one of the cleanest performers ... but ... the fact he has ... evidence in his latest appearance ... that seemed impossible ... bravura octaves that stamped the preceding ... such ... never ... the young man ... excited.

... poetic side ... as Levitzki ... at the piano while ... too most difficult passages ... to ... in listener into the ... Levitzki, is a "cold" pianist—all head and no heart. A similar set of circumstances has led to a similar criticism of Jascha Heifetz, violin virtuoso.

... can command a wide ... of the ... A performance of a musical ... viewed only in the light ... by the ... apparent or real, of ... personality, but in the sounds ... the ... gets. By such a ... perhaps Levitzki's playing ... the Beethoven ... sonata, ... was a cold, but to ten ... writer, was certainly a most ... of the exaltation of sureness of purpose and execution.

... finest playing came in ... Debussy, Scarlatti in Cebarg ... Bach, one ... heard a rendition ... was not so rapid that ... was ... a ... rhythmic control ... consistently in evidence in ... Levitzki's program. And ... the scherzo where the ... passage decorates ... melody of the chorale, Levitzki ... his head and kept time.

Quick Quizzes on the Movies

By BARBARA BENTON

L. M., WALTHAM—Suppose you ... your friend Creighton Hale, at ... Hal Roach Studios, Culver ... Cal. That address ... book ... the movie magazine might ... having a correct one at the ... The book was printed, but ... the Dinehorns are like the yout fa... in "The Scarlet Letter" ... heroes of the "Boxer Boys" series ... seen on the movie ... Perhaps ... tails ... it keeps ... young ... Nice ... hasn't been heard from, had ... a few lines for the stage, and ... was out on tour with a show.

F. L. AND THE BOSTON—Thanks ... correct me. But at ... I ... you "An Angel Pass... for Adolphe Menjou. That ... was ... they are calling it. The ... was once changed (a con... ... private exhibition), to the ... vivi... Blonde or Brunette."

W. C. F., WESTON—For a picture ... Jack Dempsey, refer ... Jim Booking Office ... 1564 Broadway, New York City, and enclose ... carrier ... stamps to cover the ...

EAST OF SUEZ WHERE WHISKERS GROW

FEVERED ROMANCE

As "The White Black Sheep" at the Olympia, Richard Barthelmess falls heir to a lot of hair, a spell of sickness and a pretty nurse in the person of Patsy Ruth Miller.

BARTHELMESS AT OLYMPIA

Richard Barthelmess certainly ... ... is ... In "The White ... Sheep" at the Olympia, ... novel and ... Conrad ... portrayal is well ... Patsy Ruth Miller ... responsive and is seen ... an attractive ... ... others are ... Price, the Aer... ... charming ... Pro... ... Stanley ... starts ... other ... ... Barthelmess ... ...

Baseball Players Playing 'Base' Ball? Oh For Landis Sake!

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

'Duke' Dunne Is Set to Give Harvard a Strong Line

By JIMMIE FORCORAN

"D[illegible]

RECORD SWIMMER

[illegible] TIRES HARVARD RINGLET

ROWING AND BOATING.

Individual Stars of 1926 Baseball Campaign

NATIONAL LEAGUE SECOND BASEMEN

Candidates	First	Second	Third
Maul (Pitts.)	Hornsby (Chic.)	Tice	Adams
Maul (Pitts.)	Adams	Fitsch	Hornsby
Terry (Bost.)	Hornsby	Adams	Critz
Sudyk (Bost.)	Adams	Fitsch	Bressler
Sweetser	Critz	Adams	Fitberg
Rabbit (Bost.)	Hornsby	Critz	Fitberg
Bishop, N. Y.	Hornsby	Fitsch	Adams
Maul (N. Y.)	Critz	Fitberg	Adams
Chances, Nomin.	Critz	Fitberg	Adams
Harding, Wash.	Critz	Fitberg	Fitsch

	First	Second	Third	Total Points
Critz		1	1	18
Adams		4	1	14
Hornsby	4		1	13
Fitberg				8
Fitsch		1	1	7
Bressler		1		5

Indoor Sports — By TAD

RICKARD PUTS IT UP TO JACK DELANEY

New York, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—[illegible]

Sober Kicks About Rejected Entry

By STED CHANDLER

ANOTHER skirmish on the sport front, reported from New York [illegible] adds to the general confusion and starts the Winter track season just as though the rumors were circling [illegible] instead of board tracks.

PINCUS SOBER'S greatest races [illegible]

ARGENTINE MOUNTS TO AID U. S. POLO TEAMS

Mello Now a Daddy

Mello, welterweight champion [illegible]

HUSSEY AND DALEY IN K. C. 'FORTY'

[illegible] House of Boston College [illegible] Hussey and Daley [illegible] Kansas City [illegible]

GAGNON SIGNS TO MEET MONTE

Gagnon of New Bedford, New England heavyweight [illegible] Monte of Brooklyn former [illegible] champion. They [illegible] Mason [illegible] Pat McCarthy vs. Eddie [illegible] Huffman bout at Mechanics Building a week from tonight.

The clinching of the Gagnon-Monte bout is considered quite an [illegible] the show, as local fans have been eager to see these boys in action. Gagnon knocked out Eddie Keith and then crossed [illegible] done by beating Battling Levinsky, [illegible] have been in great demand by matchmakers of late.

Monte has been moving down all comers since he demolished the [illegible] Gagnon, but never has been [illegible] before to five such a hard puncher as Gagnon.

The semi-wind-up of a ten-rounder was announced by Matchmaker Bob McKeon. In another eight-round bout Dan Crowe of Milford will meet Jimmy M Gonigle of Milford. Each boy is a former amateur champion and as they have a large following among their lovers, it is expected that there will be considerable interest in their meeting.

In the opening eight-round bout young Al Delmonte of the North End will clash with Johnny Ryan of Dorchester.

With the PONIES

New Orleans Entries

TUESDAY JAN 11

[illegible]

Orlando Entries

[illegible]

Ehmke Expects All to Be Exonerated

[illegible]

Gene Wars and Parent Clash

e Casino A. C. of Lynn has a [illegible] tonight and it has attracted a [illegible] fighting bill that [illegible] agreed to [illegible] Notre [illegible] in the five ten-round [illegible] Notre [illegible] Milford [illegible] Sergt [illegible] Blue Nose [illegible] of Lewiston, Me [illegible] with [illegible] Tommy [illegible] and Willie Calhane, [illegible] N. H. for the semi-final [illegible] Casino in the [illegible] Welch and Joey [illegible] Sammy Baker of New York [illegible] Jewtraw to Coach at Dartmouth

Hanover, N. H., Jan. 10—Jewtraw, [illegible] Lake Placid [illegible] Olympic [illegible] champion, [illegible] the Dartmouth [illegible] Winter [illegible] Jewtraw [illegible] the 1924 world [illegible] Lake Placid [illegible] long deferred [illegible] Worcester Polytechnic [illegible]

HUB ADVERTISING MEN IN FLORIDA TOURNEY

BAY STATE GOLFER LOSES AT CLEARWATER

Clearwater, Fla., Jan. 10—W. [illegible] of Boston was eliminated [illegible] annual three-day invitation and [illegible] tournament here. He was [illegible] Beebe, Jr., of Lakeland, [illegible] and 4. In the final of the champion [illegible] Harry K. Davis, former [illegible] California amateur titleholder, [illegible] Tolman Beecher, Lakeville, [illegible] in two up.

RANGERS GO ON TOP BY BEATING DETROIT, 4-1

New York, Jan. 10—[illegible] York Rangers won a [illegible] League hockey game at [illegible] Garden this [illegible] Cougars by a 4-1 score. [illegible] put the Rangers into [illegible] possession of first place [illegible] American section of the [illegible] Detroit was badly outplayed, [illegible] Rangers rushing away [illegible] lead in the first period and [illegible] being in danger after the [illegible]

The second period was [illegible] Boucher netted the disk [illegible] goal of the period. With four [illegible] to go in the [illegible] Cougars braced and after a [illegible] run, Walker passed to Fo[illegible] who easily beat Cabbot with the [illegible]

Fights Tonight

By the Associated Press

New York—Sergeant Sammy Baker, New York, vs. Kenny Goldberg, Brooklyn (10).

Chicago—Kenny Leonard, Chicago, vs. Johnny Kilb, Philippine Islands (10).

SPORTS

By NICK FLATLEY

Birney Lynch Sport Will Miss Him Real Enthusiasm His

Real Sport Coming No More Hokum Fans Surfeited

AN OLD PIPE AND A SHEAF OF CLIPPINGS

WE have just come across a bunch of clippings, tucked away with an old pipe, in one of the sport desk drawers. That is all tangible that is left of Birney Lynch, who a few short weeks ago was our sporting editor. Today Birney's body is being sent to his home in Attica, New York, and life goes along, though it does not seem the same.

It is difficult to pay tribute to a man in cold type. The thoughts that come are hard to put down. A busy world has scant sympathy. In justice to the memory of our sporting editor, who was taken away just when Boston was beginning to know him, it must be said that this city never had a keener nor more fair authority. His loss is more than personal. Sports here will miss him, for no champion falls without hurting his cause.

The clippings were the opinions of the country's football authorities about tie games. This was the last active newspaper work that Birney Lynch accomplished. He was failing when he started his campaign, but he went to work on it with the energy of the real expert.

Nick Flatley

He thought that tie games should be abolished, and he found that scores of great coaches—Cavanaugh, Zuppke and Rockne among them—agreed with him. He intended to take his collection of opinions over to the football rules committee meeting. He had the enthusiasm of a crusader. He was stricken a few days before that meeting, and now the old pipe and the little sheaf of clippings are all that remain, except the pleasant memories

For Birney Lynch all we can do now is say [illegible] h the poet [illegible] e be the last above [illegible]

[illegible]

Now And The Ba[illegible]
We named the [illegible]

The Black Sox didn't get cleaned up any in the investigation.

Judge Landis has done many [illegible] in the past two years than he did in the preceding seven [illegible] No wonder he wanted a [illegible]

DAYS OF ACTION SOON REPLACE HOKUM

THE DAYS of actual sporting events are rolling rapidly along, and before you realize it you will be able to forget about scandals and accusations, and read real baseball. In little more than a month, the players will be starting for the training camps.

The Catalina swim will be put on in a very few days. The big golfers are it, out on the Coast and down in Florida. The discontent of Winter is passing, and it is practically certain that there will be no more baseball laundering after Judge Landis gives out his verdict Wednesday.

That this will be [illegible] guilty seems to be the opinion of every fan in the world. More than a score of athletes in good standing have said or affadavited that the charges preferred by Risberg and substantiated by Gandil were wrong. What little real evidence there was favored the accused.

Now that public opinion, which didn't know which way to swing when the storm first broke, has gone down hook, line and sinker for the heroic Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker will probably try to grab some exonerating [illegible] That might furnish an interesting sequel to the hearing.

MISTER WEAVER is a fine sample of the way baseball passed [illegible] Back in the old days [illegible]

THE YOUNGSTERS who play hockey it down, because they can't [illegible] The ice at any other time, can't help making good. They're up with the stars now. If some of our ball players carried the same enthusiasm into their sport business there wouldn't be any scandals.

PASSING THE PUCK

ART ROSS, JR., son of the manager of the Bruins, is a real hockey player. Although he is only [illegible] years old he possesses all of [illegible] Bruins have hopes of making [illegible] Ross [illegible] eleven [illegible] and the [illegible] since [illegible] a golfer of great promise.

The actions of Nate Hamlen, [illegible] of New Bedford, [illegible] leading with the [illegible] A fine [illegible] game [illegible] with Boston [illegible] Johnnie Fitzgerald, Cole and Vaughan [illegible] Jack Hutchins [illegible] Club M. A. C.

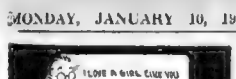
The Boston College team will be a [illegible] court when it tackles [illegible] Holy Cross [illegible] Worcester [illegible] the game did not have [illegible] average below they played [illegible]

After the Toronto game, Coach [illegible] made a general shake up [illegible] dropped Capt. Cronin back on the defense with Joe Fitzgerald, sent Tom McGovern to center ice, moved Pierce Fitzgerald out to right wing, and [illegible] feels that B. C. is set for any college team, regardless of the [illegible] competition.

Just as soon as Doug Everett, who played [illegible] Dartmouth team two years ago, [illegible] into form he will be moved up to the first line on the Crescent Club. He is a [illegible] years, Everett was one of the greatest wingmen in college hockey, and with Thomas, Owen and Clark Hodder, will give the University Club one of the [illegible] lines in the history of club hockey.

450 CREW MEN REPORT TO COACH SPUHN AT PENN

Philadelphia, Jan. 10 (A.P.)—University of Pennsylvania's navy [illegible] to send up its largest squad [illegible] years next Spring. A record turnout of 450 candidates has reported for crew practice to Coach Fred Spuhn,



Gandil Rhymes With Scandal; Risberg Doesn't Rhyme With Anything

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

RUNYON SAYS:

MR. TOD MORGAN, the 130-pound champion of the U. S. A., stepped out as a lightweight, or at least in the lightweight division at the Garden recently. In short bouts in that division Mr. Tod Morgan ought to do very well, but that isn't what I started out to say.

I have often wondered why the noble New York State Athletic Commission never insisted on Mr. Tod Morgan using his right name, which is Pilkington. For that matter I have often wondered why the noble New York State Athletic Commission insists on some boxers using their right names and pays no attention to others.

Damon Runyon

Perhaps the members of the commission are students in euphonic nomenclature and do not mind the names that sound loud. I noted that Mr. Mickey Garcia, of Utica, N. Y., is announced by Mr. Joaquin Jimmypeck (pronounced as formerly) Busy Graham.

I see in this paper that the commission has a good boy in Busy because there was another Busy Graham around New York in other years, and some fans find it confused. Still, as Mr. Mickey and Mickey, at bat.

BUT why shout Mr. Mickey Garcia an gat away as Mr. Tod Morgan? I hold that Mr. Kid Lewis is an honorable name and worth a ringside genie, including Mr. Phil Knockout Kaplan and Mr. Kid Kaplan and Mr. Izzy Kaplan, the paperhanger.

Now am I understand a Mr. Owla Chamberlaine is permitted to escape as Mr. Joe Humphreys seems to have no ridiculous right to do announcing under Mr. Owla Chamberlaine as a ring announcing monicker, and Mr. Humphreys and the other announcers would eventually get the hang of it if we agreed to practice in those colors.

The various Dundees have been getting away with cognomenal murder, too. There is Mr. samuel and there is Mr. Vincent Lazarro hiding behind the name of a good old Scotch town; and there is Mr. Joseph Carrora, who calls himself Mr. Johnny Dundee, and think I am afraid in this case it is too late to take action.

I am inclined to think the statute of limitations has also ran against Mr. Paul Filippino, who has been Mr. Paul Doyle for the last many years. And there is Mr. Vincent Dundee, who long has proudly wouldn't answer if he broke his arm. Mr. Joseph Dundee, and Mr. Jack Dempsey, who also is afraid in this case it is too late to take action.

Now, Mr. Tod Morgan, the champion of the U. S. A., stepped out as a lightweight, or at least in the lightweight division at the Garden recently. In short bouts in that division Mr. Tod Morgan ought to do very well, but that isn't what I started out to say.

I have often wondered why the noble New York State Athletic Commission never insisted on Mr. Tod Morgan using his right name, which is Pilkington. For that matter I have often wondered why the noble New York State Athletic Commission insists on some boxers using their right names and pays no attention to others.

Perhaps the members of the commission are students in euphonic nomenclature and do not mind the names that sound loud. I noted that Mr. Mickey Garcia, of Utica, N. Y., is announced by Mr. Joaquin Jimmypeck (pronounced as formerly) Busy Graham.

I see in this paper that the commission has a good boy in Busy because there was another Busy Graham around New York in other years, and some fans find it confused. Still, as Mr. Mickey and Mickey, at bat.

BUT why shout Mr. Mickey Garcia an gat away as Mr. Tod Morgan? I hold that Mr. Kid Lewis is an honorable name and worth a ringside genie, including Mr. Phil Knockout Kaplan and Mr. Kid Kaplan and Mr. Izzy Kaplan, the paperhanger.

Now am I understand a Mr. Owla Chamberlaine is permitted to escape as Mr. Joe Humphreys seems to have no ridiculous right to do announcing under Mr. Owla Chamberlaine as a ring announcing monicker, and Mr. Humphreys and the other announcers would eventually get the hang of it if we agreed to practice in those colors.

The various Dundees have been getting away with cognomenal murder, too. There is Mr. samuel and there is Mr. Vincent Lazarro hiding behind the name of a good old Scotch town; and there is Mr. Joseph Carrora, who calls himself Mr. Johnny Dundee, and think I am afraid in this case it is too late to take action.

I am inclined to think the statute of limitations has also ran against Mr. Paul Filippino, who has been Mr. Paul Doyle for the last many years. And there is Mr. Vincent Dundee, who has been Mr. Carl Duane, so long that he proudly wouldn't answer if he broke his arm. Mr. Joseph Dundee, and Mr. Jack Dempsey, who also is afraid, allowing that any of the commissioners could pronounce it.

THEY tread on the tail of the boxers are their right hands out in California for the time being, and all in vogue, for all I know.

Fight Fans on Coast Walk Out on Romero

One night an announcer arose and presented in this corner Mr. Ephraim Romero, whereat many of the clients walked right out of the hall and demanded their money back. They had paid to see Mr. Bert Collins fight, or boil down, and they wanted no substitutes or imposters. And yet Mr. Ephraim Romero and Mr. Bert Collins were one and the same ear.

They have some corking times out on the Coast. Mr. Willy Bunchowsky for instance, is Mr. Billy Bunch. Mr. Vincent Morris Schorr is Mr. Muddy Callahan and you can take it or leave it. Mr. Juan Zurita, now of Cleveland, is not what you get first with an Italian dinner, as you might suspect but Young Zurita, a Filipino fighter

I wish to state that Mr. Mark Kelly is Mr. Mark Kelly's right name. Of course, Mr. Kelly isn't a boxer, but he writes about boxers and some of those Coast writers have been known to use aliases. There is Mr. Harley Marquis Walker, of California fame, who once masqueraded under the monicker of Mr. Benny Walker.

FRED SMITH WILLIAMS is none other than George Godfrey, the Black Shadow of Leiperville," who has been dodging to beat it since scoring a notable success as an actor in "Old Ironsides." Fred Williams thinks he can get two more jobs with Mr. Victor Mc-Laglen, the ex-fighter in "What Price Glory" and with Mr. Signor Luis Antonio of Rio Montana.

Meanwhile Wm. F. the New York lightweight, is really all. Irving Wolkow, Mr. Bud Gorman, who got knocked bowlegged by M. Owla Chapelaine recently, is Mr. Earl M. Lovejoy in civilian clothes. Mr. Jack Fields, a rising young Pacific Coaster, is Mr. John Finklestein, and Mr. Johnny Farr of Portland is Mr. John Farinacci, although the New York commission allowed him to get away as Mr. Farr.

THEY SAY A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME WOULD SMELL AS SWEET, AND I PREFER A FIGHTER BY ANY OTHER THAN HIS RIGHT NAME CAN FIGHT JUST AS BAD, MR. PHIL SCOTT, THE ENGLISH HEAVYWEIGHT, WOULD DOUBTLESS FALL JUST AS HARD AS MR. PHIL CUFFLING, WHICH IS WHAT HE IS TO THE FOLKS AT HOME.

Copyright, 1927, International Feature Service, Inc.

LANDIS TO START ON NEW CASE

Next Move of Commissioner to Trace Cobb's Story of Detroit—St. Louis Deal

By DAVID J. WALSH

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Believing that a "slough" in the hand is worth two in midair, Judge Landis next will take hold of the story as told to Ty Cobb, of an alleged prearrangement of a Detroit-St. Louis series in 1923 and, gently but firmly making it down, will let the facts fall where they may. Cobb has entered a denial of the statement credited to him by Bert Walker, a Detroit correspondent, and his disclaimer is understood to have been deemed insufficient by Landis.

The judge's determination to investigate the circumstances thoroughly is said to have been crystallized during recent days. The fact that there has been a development on the St. Louis end.

COBB CASE NEXT.

The investigation probably will be launched by Landis immediately following the rendering of his decision on Wednesday in the matter of Gandil-Risberg versus Collins-Schalk-Hoerbert et al, in which a verdict of acquittal for the latter appears to be ordained both by fact and by law.

If there was any "slouching" carried on in this case, Risberg and Gandil merely succeeded in provoking that which foreknowledge of the alleged transaction.

It was while Cobb was on the stand, acting as a witness in these matters, that he was examined by Landis upon the interview at Detroit in which he was said to declare that the St. Louis Browns had made a bid to the Detroit Tigers for certain players late in 1923. It developed at that time would see that the Tigers would win be-tween them, the Browns had received a dislike for the Cleveland Indians.

Cobb at first was somewhat evasive with his denial but finally discussed the interview, body and soul, with pressed for a direct denial. Walker was present in his capacity of reporter but went serenely on with his work, never by even a glance at the mind betraying the personal interest in Cobb's denial of the charges.

TY THROUGH WITH SCANDALS

The disputed interview with the fiery Georgian was published shortly after he had received a suspended decision, in company with Tris Speaker, on charges that they had participated in a gambling coup. Frank Navin, Detroit owner, was involved in Cobb's alleged rounders charges, for Ty was made to claim that he had taken the matter before Navin immediately after the Browns were said to have "propositioned" him.

However, when faced by Landis on the stand last week, Cobb clearly intimated that he has no wish to mystify in any more scandals, barring the one involving himself.

He, for his part, refused, to the exclusion of all else, in his attempt to force baseball to re-open his case and grant him another hearing and, if might be that, unless baseball hearkens to his plea, he will decline to be present at a St. Louis-Detroit investigation.

Fordham Lists Nine Grid Games

New York, Dec. 10.—The Fordham football schedule for 1927 was announced last night by Graduate Manager Jack Coffey of the Blue institution. Nine games have been booked for the first Cavanaugh-coached eleven at Fordham. Of this number three games will be played at Fordham Field, three at the Polo Grounds, one at the Yale Bowl stadium and two outside the city at Providence and the other at Washington, D. C.

The four newcomers are Bethany and Lebanon Valley, to be played at Fordham Field; George Washington, at Washington, and Providence at Providence. The Maroon has never played the first three teams before, but Providence was on the schedule two years ago.

The first big game will be that with New York University, to be in the Yankee Stadium, October 22.

On October 29 the Maroon will meet Boston College at the Polo Grounds. This will be the first time those teams have met in New York since 1921, when a scoreless tie was played at Ebbets Field. An interesting feature of this game is the fact that the new Fordham mentor coached Boston for several years before coming to New York.

The following week Holy Cross will be played. This game likewise will be held at the Polo Grounds. The game at Providence follows on November 5, the second game for the Maroon on a foreign gridiron. The season will close on November 12 at the Polo Grounds with the traditional Georgetown encounter.

The schedule:

September 24, Bethany, at Fordham Field.
October 1, Lebanon Valley, at Fordham Field; 8, Providence College, at the Polo Grounds; 15, New York University, at the Yankee Stadium; 22, George Washington, at Washington, D. C.; 29, Boston College, at the Polo Grounds.
November 5, Holy Cross College, at the Polo Grounds; 12, Providence College, at Providence, R. I.; 19, Georgetown University, at the Polo Grounds.

MERSEREAU PREDICTS BIG COMEBACK OF TILDEN

Syracuse, N. Y. Jan. 10.—A drama which might be entitled "Big Bill's Comeback" is in the making with a prominent athletecator in the lead ing role. Tilden will be the next tennis champion of America, England and France," says President Merserear of the U. S. L. T. As-

Low mileage—low price! Many Chevrolet opportunities in used car bargains. Before you buy see the Autos for Sale Columns. Classification 20.

THEIR BEST PALS ARE ALARM CLOCKS AND MILKMEN

THESE BOYS GREET ROSY-FINGERED DAWN

The Morning Glories are high school kids who have to get up with the late home comers to get in their hockey. They practice at six each morning at the Arena and play games Saturday. The top three, left to right, are Capt. Leo Sahagian of Dorchester, Ralph Herculson of Commerce and "Suds" Kontoff of Dorchester. Smiling face represents Capt. Paul Clancy of Brighton.

ARENA OFFERS ATTRACTIVE HOCKEY CARD

By BILL GRIMES

Starting with tomorrow night's game between the Bruins and the Chicago Blackhawks and ending with the Pittsburgh Pirates on Saturday evening the Arena offerings some fine hockey attractions this week.

Although the Bruins have been a fine attraction all the season, during the past two weeks they have been playing to capacity houses and as the Chicago-Blackhawks are one of the fastest and most spectacular clubs in the league, an other fill may be expected when the Windy City aggregation.

Bill Grimes

On Wednesday night Dartmouth and Harvard will meet in the first of a two-game series. Despite the showing made by the "Big Green" at Lake Placid and what Princeton the Crimson will be the favorite. Harvard has a fine squad of veterans. In fact, either the first or the second teams are stronger than the average college [illegible] Coach [illegible] has been developing a [illegible] Most [illegible] are behind the movement. Chances are that it will go through.

Thursday evening, one half of the bill has been arranged but the Arena is having some trouble bringing the other two teams together. The University Club has agreed to play Boston College but Boston University is holding out against playing Technology.

There is a rumor that Chet Scott, who played centre ice for the Tigers last season but who did not return to college last fall, is to return to Boston University at the start of the second semester and the [illegible] have expressed a desire to await the return of their center ice man before they tackle the Engineers.

The Boston Tigers are in for another tough week next Saturday night when they meet the New Haven Eagles. The Tigers and the Eagles are fighting for the lead in the race for the Canadian American League championship. The Tigers will also be called upon to play two games away from home this week.

Manager Eddie Powers will take his Tigers to Springfield tomorrow for a game with New Haven and the local favorites will go to Providence on Thursday night.

If the Tigers can show the form they displayed against Springfield, they will make a real showing this week, despite the keen competition they are going to encounter from New Haven and Providence.

HARVARD GOLF HEADS PLAN COURSE

[illegible]
Bookline
With any kind of a [illegible] night at the Varsity Club it is [illegible] that the [illegible] membership. The undergraduates will at once before the membership of the Weld Club is filled.

The club will permit a regular [illegible] basis with transferrable membership, making the course available for all members of Harvard College.

The present layout of the course is nine holes. There is ample room [illegible]

CADDY DIES FROM BLOW BY GOLF BALL IN DALLAS

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 10 (A.P.).—Clifford Russell, 14, caddy on a local golf links, died here tonight as result of being hit in the head by a golf ball. His skull was fractured.

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE STANDING

WESTERN DIVISION	Games
	W	L	T	For	Agt	Pts
Rangers	9	6	1	28	21	19
Chicago	9	8	1	32	42	18
Boston	8	9	1	36	41	17
Detroit	6	10	1	27	41	13
Pittsburgh	5	10	2	30	40	12
EASTERN DIVISION
Ottawa	12	3	2	33	20	26
Americans	10	5	1	4.	34	21
Canadiens	8	10	1			17
Montreal	7	9	1			15
Toronto	4	12	1	32	37	13

Games This Week

Toronto—Chicago at Toronto.
Rangers at Montreal; Toronto at Ottawa.
Detroit at New York Americans.
Thursday—Boston at Detroit; Toronto at N. Y. Rangers; Ottawa at Pittsburgh; N. Y. Americans at Canadiens.
Saturday—Boston at Ottawa; Chicago at Montreal; Detroit at Toronto; N. Y. Americans at Pittsburgh.

CANADIAN-AMERICAN LEAGUE STANDING

	Games
	W	L	T	For	Agt	Pts
New Haven	9	3	1	24	15	19
BOSTON	6	5	1	24	23	13
Springfield	4	6	2	21	30	10
Quebec	4	7	1	21	32	9
Providence	3	7	0	16	28	6

CANADIAN-AMERICAN GAMES TRIS
WEEK
Tonight
Quebec at Providence.
Thursday Night
Boston at Providence.
Saturday Night
New Haven at Boston.
Providence at Springfield.

Metropolitan Affairs Committee First to Act on Golf Bill

By BILL GRIMES

Early next week the Bateman bill, which asks for an appropriation of $75,000 for the construction of a public golf course at Fowl Meadows, will come up for consideration by the Metropolitan affairs at the State House.

Senator Warren of Arlington is the chairman of committee which also includes Senators Bacon, Sullivan, Duggett, Middlesex, and Bagley, Suffolk and Representatives Chapman Boston, Sandberg, Quincy, [illegible]

Now, you know John's golfers, it is up to you. Representative Bateman [illegible]

[illegible] Representative [illegible] and you will be assured of a real holiday layout.

Soccer Results

Fall River 2, New Bedford 1.
Providence 3, Newark 1.
Brooklyn Wanderers 1, Bethlehem 1
Indiana Flooring 3, J. & P. Coats 1.

Hockey Results

N. Y. Rangers 4, Detroit 1.
Rodbery 8, of C. 1, Wollaston 1.

CRUICKSHANK WINS $10,000 TOURNEY

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 10—A Scotchman Won Rolfe Cup Today [illegible] new Los Angeles open golf champion.

In the final blustering round, during which the third round leader and defending champion, "Abie" Larry Cooper, cracked as while now his name of the sawing chords [illegible] Tom P. Cupidore, [illegible] galleries of some 5,000 persons [illegible] solved the second and third place winners.

Cruickshank's four rounds of 70-71-74-67—282, left him a margin of six strokes over the runner-up, Cooper, who developed into Charley Guest, young Los Angeles pro and 1926 medalist, the sensation from Oklahoma City. Guest and Lindsey had been up around the top all through the tournament, and finished ahead where they figured to land, on the [illegible]

FIVE LEAGUE GAMES CARDED THIS WEEK

New York, Jan. 10.—A full [illegible] programme in the Intercollegiate [illegible] Pennsylvania, Yale and Princeton [illegible] the circuit iron action for the [illegible] this week.

Pennsylvania, [illegible] Yale in its first encounter, will figure in [illegible]

[illegible] Princeton, [illegible] Cornell, [illegible] Columbia, [illegible] Dartmouth, [illegible] Brown, [illegible] Harvard, [illegible] Pennsylvania, [illegible] Princeton, [illegible] Yale

TWO comic pages every day. Full of the funniest of "funnies." A great treat for the kiddies by the cleverest artists.

Magazine Page

'An Aerial Snake

IT is unusual for a snake to indulge in aerial stunts, but a thirty-inch reptile was found lying across two electric light wires at Beloit, Kansas. The snake was completely baked. The occurrence shut off the lights of three towns for a time.

Nerve Cures Are On Poor Basis, Says Dr. Reed

By Charles A. L. Reed, A. B.
Former President of the American Medical Association.

"NERVES," or nervousness, generally means nervelessness.

This doesn't necessarily mean that the nervous system of the nervous person has stimulus, ceased to function, for, if it had, its victim would cease to live.

But it does mean that the nervous function is so below par or above par that it is not harmoniously adjusted to the other functions of the body.

We hear of a "nervous breakdown," of a "neurosis" of nervous exhaustion," all of which have disturbed harmony of nerve function with bodily function.

A neurosis may mean an actual breaking down of nerve tissue which is then irreparable, or merely a disturbed action when the tissue is functionally sound.

Fairchild studied the nervousness of several thousand professional women, including 50 teachers.

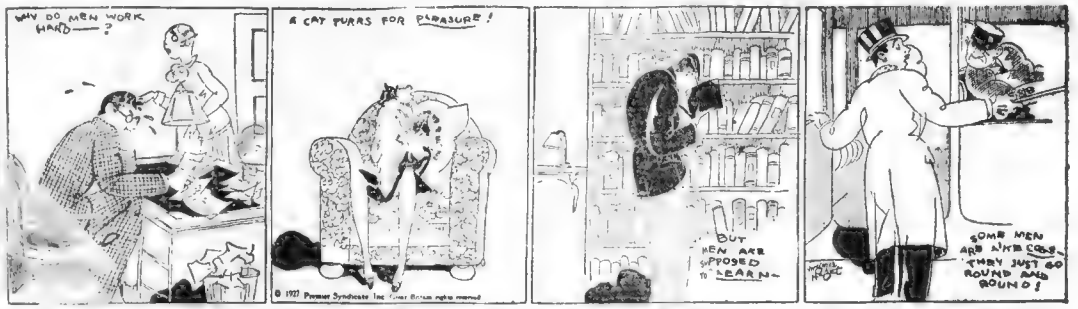
The latter nervous centered 26 cases of functional neurosis and decided that these could be explained. Under very common in the breakdown of the nervous system of these professionals train on the attention and the enforced contact with many different persons.

Hart, on the basis of a long series of investigation, found that nervous and mental conditions were responsible for 12.3 per cent of the total absence among

"You Said It, Marceline!"

-:- On "Making Noises Like Animals" -:-

By Marceline d'Alroy



© 1927 Premier Syndicate Inc. Great Britain rights reserved

W... Too hard! Well, ... a cat purr, ... NTLY SOMETHING ... DO.

But a SNAKE BITES in SELF-DEFENSE, a cat PURRS For PLEASURE, and a lamb BLEATS for COMPANY, or from hunger or boredom. So Probably a MAN is NOT so DIFFERENT.

...he OUGHT ... For the ANIMALS have EATEN and SLEPT, And romped and ... played, but have NOTHING ELSE to do but do it all OVER AGAIN. But MEN are supposed to LEARN. To make PROGRESS.

They should contribute something BEAUTIFUL or USEFUL to LIFE. The COG in the wheel that just GOES ROUND and ROUND only makes NOISES like the animals.

"The Making of a Husband"; Ann Lisle's Serial of Married Life

"I ... a success if we get fifty thousand ... at once. How much can you let ...

But when I saw the words written ... I ... they looked melodramatic, all ... as coming from ...

"I'd ... Fairchother first." I ... immediately. "We must ... His bank will stand ... If I must have co-operation ... A. L. Harrison & Co ... Harrison & Co ... Betty. I ... Asked ... Franz and Bertha ... all my own ... One ... mind ... put the other out ... While I ... a letter to Dare Petrucci ...

... has ... I ... missed ... I ... created ... for "A ... and ... I ... looked ... and ... Betty, ... the ... office ... Betty ... "I ... "Yes, ... "I ... "What ... asked ... "I'd ... me ... honest ... "I ... straddling ... Betty ... ready ... "Almost ... "You'd ... Betty ... Ralph ... You're ... life ... and ... Ralph ... "Meaning ... "What ... "He's ... you ... me?"

"I haven't ... a week ... tell ... "You're ... you're ... hear."

"Meaning Ralph Lacy as you very well know."

"What has he to do with all this?"

"Everything. You've got to marry Ralph—losing him all the while. You're going to get him struck off the list that Wallace called. And you're going to break Ralph's heart and send Bobby to a reform school. Oh, I'm glad I'm sure of one or two deserving and ready. You're doing all to win it a few months, and I could go on, and I foresee in the mist of both to-morrow and the end of southern pride."

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

Copyright, 1927, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Correct Manners

By Mrs. Cornelius Beeckman

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

I am a constant reader of your answers to "Correct Manners" and I noticed that you are always solving someone's problem in that wonderful little column of yours.

I am a girl of twenty-one and considered nice looking by all my friends. I do not go steady with any beau—in fact, I have no beaus at present.

My girl friend has a brother friends whom also every one wants to have me meet. I am friendly with one and she the other and in that way have two escorts to go about together instead of just one.

To this my mother objects saying that in no case am I going to do; also, that she will not allow to go with anyone I met that way.

Will you please be so kind as to tell me who is right in this matter, my mother or myself?

I trust it at some time in the near future, while reading these very wonderful columns I will find an answer to my inquiry.

A CONSTANT READER.

YOU write such a delightful and courteous letter that, if you take as well as write, I am sure you have many friends among your society.

I am always glad to give advice with a distinct reservation of judgment of her motives. In this is because I am sure unless dear mother's motives they have been based on sympathetic game of which you accumulated a wealth of experience.

Now I believe that your mother objects to the kind of beau proposed by this girl friend of yours, is just what you should seem such a very obvious plan. Your friendship between boys and girls is to be "constructive" and not destructive. A beau, friend or lover narrowing to the growth of the friendship itself and to other friends.

DEAR MRS. BEECKMAN:

... please tell me on what ... means a ring? A friend ...

DEAR ...

Marie Totes Champagne in Trunk

Continued from Page 11.

... PRINCE WAS IN BATH

... LOCKS QUEEN IN ...

The Queen's honest, if secret, opinion of her trip, and a strong indication of why she made it, will be revealed

5890. Ladies' Dress. Cut in 6 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. A 38-inch size requires 4¾ yards of 40-inch material with ¾ yard of contrasting material 18 inches wide for facing on the vestee. The width of the dress at the lower edge is 1½ yards. Price 12c.

4223. Infant's Set. Cut in one Size. To make the dress ... yards is required. For the cap ... yard of material 36 inches wide. Price 12c.

FASHION BOOK NOTICE

Send 12c in silver or stamps for our UP-TO-DATE FALL AND WINTER 1927 BOOK OF FASHIONS, showing color plates, and containing 500 designs of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Patterns, a CONCISE and COMPREHENSIVE ARTICLE ON DRESSMAKING. ALSO SOME POINTS FOR THE NEEDLE (illustrating 36 of the various, simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

Boston Evening American Pattern Coupon

IMPORTANT.—Mail orders (also without name and score. Orders must have your name, address size and number of pattern, as named.

Pattern No. ...
Size ...
Name ...
Street ...
City ...
State ...

Print CAREFULLY and mail (enclosing 12 cents—stamps or coin) to Boston Evening American Pattern Dept., Box 150, Times Plaza Station, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The eighth and last article of this series will be presented tomorrow

Cuticura Promotes Permanent Hair Health

Shampoos with Cuticura Soap, with light applications of Cuticura Ointment when necessary, tend to free the scalp of dandruff and minor blemishes, and to establish a permanent condition of hair health.

Sold by Dr. Outwood & Sons, Malden Mass. Sold everywhere. Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 5F, Malden, Mass.

Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

For Colds Grip, Influenza and as a Preventive

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine tablets

The Safe and Proven Remedy.

Long serious illness and complications often follow Colds, Grip and Influenza.

Guard your health against this danger. Price 30c.

The box bears this signature E. W. Grove Since 1889

Dodge people who have Colds

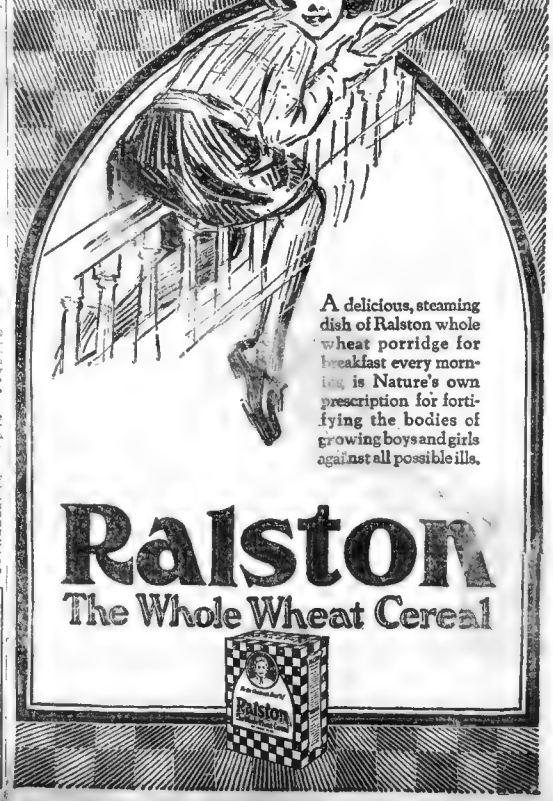
Colds are caused by ... People with ... Dodge Keep Away.

... catch a cold, take HILL'S ... as soon as you can. ... the cold ... opens the bowels, ... system. Millions know ... powers.

Get it promptly. Keep it ... ready. Don't rely on lesser ... for colds.

Be Sure It's HILL'S CASCARA BROMIDE QUININE Price 30c

Get Red Box with portrait



A delicious, steaming dish of Ralston whole wheat porridge for breakfast every morning is Nature's own prescription for fortifying the bodies of growing boys and girls against all possible ills.

Ralston The Whole Wheat Cereal

This Day in History

ON January 10, 1890, according to popular record, the tom of Cleopatra was discovered. This event has attache to it a great deal of significance in the field of research an history, inasmuch as such discoveries aid in confirmin history.

Food Conditions in Prussia

MORE horse meat is reported being eaten in Prussia today than at any time in history, ne riod. The reason for this is not a relish for such meats, but a scarcity of food and nourishing su

Fiction Page

The Love Wrecker by BEATRICE BURTON Author of "Gilded Misery"

Thrilling Romance of Youth in Boston

CHAPTER XXXV.

"HONEY LOU, you go and let Steve in," Margaret said, and vanished into Honey Lou's bedroom with its rose-shaded lights, its great carved bed, its long toilet table that would have done credit to a motion picture star's dressing room.

She was still powdering her nose and putting on her hat while the front door of the flat, and so Honey Lou was alone when she opened it to let him in.

She saw at once that this was going for him—meeting her for the last time as Jack Wallack's wife. His face was white and tense looking, his mouth drawn into a thin tight line that tried to smile and failed.

It was a full minute before he spoke a word. Then all he said was: "Hello, Honey Lou. Is Margaret ready? I left my motor running."

That was a reason to get away as soon as possible.

I thought you'd stay a while and visit with me," Honey Lou forced herself to say in a cram... tone. "I want to thank you, too, for the lovely present you sent me. It's a love—"

She stopped with the sentence unfinished and held up her hand, listening. Someone was running up the stairs.

And in a second, Jack Breckinridge from the climb, flung open the door and stood on the little landing a moment from one to the other. Margaret, and then Honey Lou, knew at once that Honey Lou knew—and resented it—them.

"What are you doing here, May," he asked before Honey Lou had time to speak to him. The words were thick though his set teeth and a scowl was stamped on his face.

Honey Lou went dead cold with a new-found cramp and then went dead white once more. Oh, it was all over! Jack Breckinridge knew Margaret loved the man at the end of the hall, and came toward the three of them.

Margaret at once that something [illegible]

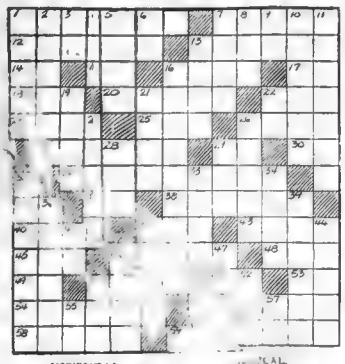
[illegible] been dealing [illegible] and [illegible] people for [illegible] you've got to [illegible] ing there helped her now [illegible] Jack; she knew that [illegible] smile seemed to glaze [illegible] ever. "Sorry you weren't here for supper, Honey Lou and I had a [illegible]."

"Sorry to Stephen Mayhew. Hello, Steve. I suppose you want [illegible] it was dark."

She slipped her arm into his arm [illegible] him went on: "[illegible] Honey Lou could [illegible] [illegible] she was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

No. 394



HORIZONTAL

1—of dark complexion
5—mimerses
12—a fertilizer
13—a color
14—included in 16—advance
17—shape
17—musical note
18—small island
20—best
22—a high mountain
23—periods of time
25—copper or bronze
26—liquid measure
27—double
29—conjunction
30—pronoun
32—precious stones
35—man's name
37—myself
38—rubber
40—afternoon functions
42—black fish
43—waves
45—leray
45—decay
46—new
48—cavity
49—newspaper notes
50—head covering
51—exclamation
53—negative
54—tilt
60—part of a flower
58—street cars
59—act as head or ruler

VERTICAL

1—spruce
2—th. black
3—one
4—floor covering
8—gait
6—pronoun
7—backward projectory point on a weapon
8—equip
9—towards
10—not soiled
21—ex. instrument
22—metric measure
24—figures
26—attire
28—copy
29—Anglo-Saxon money
31—take back
33—wares
34—percolate
36—last
39—Indian cedar
41—showered
44—near
47—a metal
48—rock
50—enemies
47—detest
50—enclose
52—own
55—sun god
56—elder (abbr.)
57—musical note

STAID RUNAWAY HOUSE ATOMISE ARK NOSE INKS ME FILE AS TIED MISSED SPANS SIR EVE LARD BOX RAIN AID OIL CULLS PRYING TANS SEE OATS US PAST ARIA ARE OPALINE LARGE DEPENDS OTTER

BRINGING UP FATHER

Jiggs Decides to See His Caller

By George McManus

GOLDBERG'S CARTOONS

Cartoon Follies of 1927

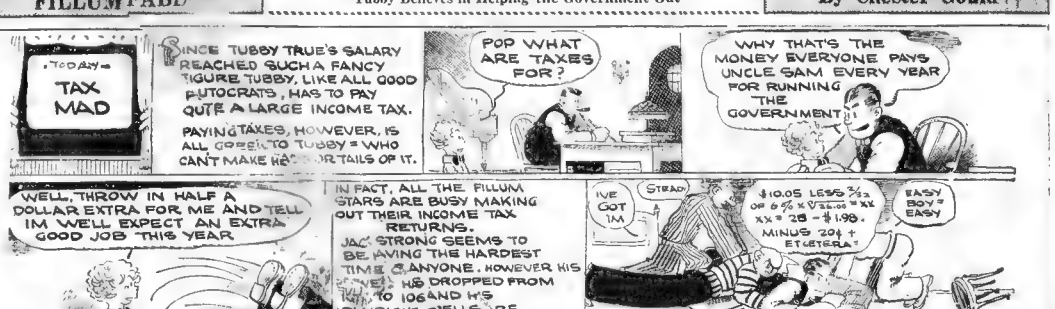
Copyright 1927, by R. L. Goldberg

By Rube Goldberg

FILLUM FABLES

Tubby Believes in Helping the Government Out

By Chester Gould



THE THIMBLE THEATRE

Alone at Last—By SEGAR

Copyright, 1927, King Features Syndicate, Inc. Great Britain Rights Reserved

SKIPPY

Some Thirst

By Percy Crosby

DO YOU KNOW THE SECRET OF REAL SYMPATHY?

In extending sympathy to a person in trouble, don't go too far.

It is not helpful to the bereft to be greeted by a person in tears.

Care should be taken to go not too far the other way, and seem either frivolous or cold-hearted.

In time of grief there should not be levity.

When visiting a grief stricken person you want to leave the impression of deep sympathy and the conviction that you can be relied upon to do anything possible to relieve the situation.

A handshake can express more than tears.

To do something though full helps more than any words you can say or write.

Don't ask too many questions as to "how it happened."

Try to put yourself in the same position and use tact and sense.

If you think everything possible is being done, etc., you can offer to help with any unexpected emergency.

The sorrow and sympathy which is principally expressed in tears is not so comforting as you think, so learn to control yourself.

Copyright, 1927, International Features Service, Inc.

DAILY SHORT STORY

THREE O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

By Sadie Richmond Waddell

SQUAWK! Squawk [illegible] text came to a [illegible] and although Mr Quill had a great many under his belt he was [illegible] scious of the noise.

"What ya tryin' to [illegible] shouted. "Wake the dead, [illegible] the whole block!"

The driver opened the door, threw the light on the meter, and said "The cabs always st- to [illegible] this time in the morning just when you don't want them to. They begin to need oil. One dollar and a quarter, sir," and then as Mr Quill still made no effort to move, he said "Shall I help you, sir?" Without waiting for consent, he took Mr Quill's hand and pulled until he landed [illegible] on his feet

"Who told you I needed he- shouted Mr. Quill. "Don't you [illegible] fresh. Wait until I [illegible] up again, the side of this thing and find [illegible] bank roll. And you be careful, [illegible] I give you, too. Last time I [illegible] out I gave the driver a ten and one instead of two ones and he [illegible] a word." After much [illegible] he carefully extricated [illegible] useful [illegible] his change. The cab was [illegible] as the driver said

"Shall I help you up the stairs?"

"You may [illegible] these stairs, bir- ard I'll help you down them," cried Mr. Quill as he started to walk very straight [illegible] ing, or tried to, which his [illegible] prevented, so he compromised by going up on his hands and knees.

The key hole had never seemed more elusive. He [illegible] and finally dropped it. He [illegible] and whistled between his [illegible] ing, you!" he called, and the driver who had been waiting for the [illegible] ran up the steps.

"Here, buddy," said Mr. Quill "did I [illegible] ... The driver was between [illegible] and the deep sea, but finally [illegible] that honestly [illegible] to help [illegible]

"[illegible] Mr. Quill con- fessed, "[illegible] I [illegible] my man," and he [illegible] a dollar. "And now, [illegible] ... ed my key [illegible] you can find it."

The man found the key and had it inserted. When Mr. Quill, who [illegible] scrape, the door suddenly [illegible] Quill had opened it from the inside. The driver asked Mr Quill on his feet quickly and then nastily deported. He figured he could never tell just what a woman might do under [illegible] circumstances. She really slammed the door behind and turned to [illegible] gard Mr Quill.

"My dear, [illegible] don't be violent"

"Have you been drinking?" she asked

"Drinking?" he said, "she asked me if I have been drinking! To that," he cried, "there is NO answer." He fumbled for his watch and remembered just in time that he had better let it alone. "Is it bed time?" he asked.

"Yes, I think it is," she said, "although it is almost morning."

"Let us then retire," he said.

"What is your sudden hurry?" she asked cuttingly.

"I'm in no hurry," he said, and to prove this he looked around for diversion. Seeing the radio he lurched for it. Static did [illegible] at a moment and then a wailing tenor voice said: "You need sym-in-path-ee, sym-in-path-ee."

"Am I Rip Van Winkle?" he asked his wife. "Have I been asleep for twenty years?"

"No [illegible] "You [illegible] been asleep for twenty [illegible]

He [illegible] upon it. "[illegible] good." [illegible] "Tonight belongs to me!"

"It did," said Mr Quill, "but not now."

"Say, Peter," cried Mrs Quill, "this is too much. I wish a man could see how ridiculous a man is when he is stewed. Turn that thing off!"

"All right, honey lamb, honey, I can't get anything anyway. To much opposition," he said to an imaginary audience, and then laughed again.

"Go on to bed," cried Mrs Quill.

"All right," he countered, "that is what I was telling you Trudi was [illegible] he wished she would go first. He [illegible] were so uncertain and the room was beginning to reel.

She looked in the direction of the kitchen and started out through the dining room. This was his chance. He made for the stairs and went up them like a wobbly calf, on his hands and knees again. He remembered how treacherous his shoe ties were, so he took the [illegible] cure scissors and cut them. He kicked them far away the bed out [illegible] ing [illegible] his [illegible] clothes but finally that was [illegible] and he started to wrestle with his night shirt. Was it wrong side out or what? He pulled and hauled but it completed against him. He couldn't figure it so he thrust it under the covers and crawled in after it.

A man's hat is really like his dog in a way ever faithful, and as he had forgotten to remove his, it was still on his head when his wife bounced into the room. His male believe he was asleep and was rather startled when she knocked his hat off.

"I always forget something," he said to himself without opening his eyes.

She was finding a good deal to say, however. He was afraid she would wake him up so thoroughly that he would not be able to get to sleep, and he must have forty winks to see him through the day. She was going on and on.

"It is not only the principle of the thing, but it is also the expense!" she cried. "You spend enough money to run another house. Do you hear me!" She reached across and poked him in the ribs. "Do you hear me!" Another poke and he figured he had better wake up.

"No, I am not asleep," he said. "I figured he had better wake up and forgotten to remove it, his charge my evening out to advertising and entertaining. And I wouldn't run another house because I wouldn't want two women keeping me awake nights. I am a business man, sir, and I need a little rest. Now, good night, my dear," he said kindly. "Please go to sleep and let me sleep. You have kept me awake long enough."

"Will you listen to that!" she cried. "Will you?" But he knew the worst was over for he heard her flop back on her bed. He knew she would be sore in the morning and that he could be ready to make his peace with his check book in hand. She would remind him that he was not the only one who was entitled to spend money. He was rather philosophic, however and decided it was the price men pay to win the favor of [illegible]

POLLY AND HER PALS

The Last Resort

By Cliff Sterrett

US BOYS

Generally Useless

By McNamara

ABIE THE AGENT

Efficiency

By Hershfield

POTASH AND PERLMUTTER

May Live on Love

By Montague Glass

KRAZY KAT

Open to Exposur-By HERRIMAN

Copyright, 1927, Int'nl Feature Service. Great Britain Rights Reserved

MEDBURY SAYS---

By JOHN P. MEDBURY.

ACCORDING to mercantile reports there are over half a million beauty parlors in the United States. One man claims he sent his wife to five thousand of them.

HE wants to improve her looks so that people won't think he married her for her money.

SHE has a face that only a mother could love, but her mother's out of town.

SHE started to take a beauty nap once but she didn't sleep long enough.

SOMEBODY woke her up ten years too soon.

THEY tried to lift her face the other day and had to put an automobile jack under her chin.

SHE was as hard looking that the beauty parlor broke three sets of tools.

SHE took a beauty prize last year and the authorities arrested her for embezzlement.

SHE always puts as much rouge on her cheeks that her husband used to fling trains with her.

OF course her husband isn't any Adonis either. The man next door got him pinched the other day for infringing on his scarecrow.

HIS wife realized that beauty is only skin deep but the law wouldn't let her turn him inside out.

HE'S another one of those self-made men who picked the wrong architect.

HE has a wonderful heart, but who wants to hang an Xray photograph in the living room?

HE and his wife are so homely that when they got married, their friends referred to the wedding as a merger.

THEY went to a studio the other day to have their pictures taken and the photographer turned them down. He said that only Rand & McNally would publish maps like theirs.

THE husband had so many wrinkles that his face looked like a detour.

OF course, there are even beauty parlor proprietors who are homely. They don't have to be good looking, other people's faces are their fortunes.

Copyright, 1927, King Features, Brnd., Inc.

THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for "Best Joke" published. Address "Best Joke," Boston Evening American.

Mrs. Jones—"How did your husband get run over?

Mrs. Smith—"He was picking up a horseshoe for luck!"

L. L. Wilson,
No. 7 Quebec street, Lowell.

THE MEDITATIONS OF A WIFE---BY HELEN ROWLAND

A "HIT and run" motorist and a "kiss and tell" lover have the same brand of "honor."

* * *

Yes, Gloria, all men are material, but some of them seem to be so much better material than others.

* * *

When a man discovers that he has lost the key to a woman's heart, he always hopes to steal in through the back door of her sympathy and compassion—and always succeeds.

* * *

Freud has the average man so flustered these days, that he is half afraid to tell a girl that he dreamed about her.

'Alas, there never yet lived a man who didn't spend his courtship trying to convince a woman that she was "a gem of purest ray, serene"—and the rest of his life trying to remould her nearer to his heart's desire.

* * *

Now if that wonderful doctor who has discovered a magic way to quiet crying babies, will only invent a magic way to quiet husbands who sing at their baths, stuttering wives, and incapacitating radios, home may again be "sweet, sweet home."

Many a man fancies that his heart is dead when some woman's deceit or indifference has merely shocked his vanity into a state of temporary paralysis.

* * *

Getting married is a man's one supreme act of rashness, in which he defies all the bitter prophecies of his bachelor friends, all the warnings of his married friends, and all the dark forebodings of his own soul.

* * *

Many a girl's reputation wouldn't recognize her character, if they should bump into each other on the street.

Copyright, 1927, King Feat. Syn. Inc.

Children Cry for

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:— Fletcher's Castoria is especially prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and, by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving natural sleep.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher — Absolutely Harmless — No Opiates. Physicians everywhere recommend it. At druggists.

Advertisement

SOME WOMEN ALWAYS ATTRACT

You want to be beautiful. You want the tireless energy, fresh complexion and zest of youth. Then let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets keep your system free from the poisons caused by clogged bowels and torpid liver.

For 20 years, men and women suffering from stomach troubles, pimples, listlessness and headaches have taken Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a successful substitute for calomel, a compound of vegetable ingredients, mixed with olive oil, known by their olive color. They act easily upon the bowels without griping. They cleanse the system and tone up the liver.

Keep youth and its many gifts. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly. How much better you will feel—and long. 15c, 30c, 60c. All druggists.

DO KNOW THAT---

Several English railways use yellow lights instead of red for danger signals.

The farthest known star is about 1,293,572,675 billion miles from the earth.

A trapper in Northern Ontario successfully trained a pair of timber wolves to draw a sled.

Reclaimed rubber from worn auto tires has many uses.

So-called "waste lands" of Ceylon are now sold for as much as $120 an acre to tea planters.

Liverpool Cathedral's organ, the largest in the world, has five rows of keys and 10,324 pipes.

Geraniums are losing popularity among gardeners, their places being taken by begonias.

The skin of the human palm is seventy-six times as thick as that of the eyelid.

Ten cows, which are kept in a shed and never see a blade of grass, yield a good supply of milk daily.

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston Evening American.

My sister Betty, 3, was taken to the zoo recently. Upon seeing an alligator, she cried gleefully, "Oh, mama, look at the big pocketbook."

MOLLIE MURPHY,
No. 13 Acorn street, Boston.

Second-hand book shops in London are receiving large orders from Moscow University and similar educational institutions in Russia.

Advertisement

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and stimulates germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.

FOR Rheumatism

BAYER

ASPIRIN

Proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians for

Rheumatism Colds Neuritis Neuralgia
Headache Pain Toothache Lumbago

DOES NOT AFFECT THE HEART

Safe

Accept only "Bayer" package which contains proven directions. Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid

BOSTON STOCKS

	Jan. 10	Jan. 8
	High	Low	Close	Close
Am Can	48¾	48	48¾	48¾
Allied Chem	139½	137½	139½	137¾
Am Pneu 2pf	17¾	17¾	17¾	17
Am Sugar	82¾	82¾	82¾	82¾
Am Smelting	140¾	137¾	137¾	138¾
Am Tel	155¾	152½	152	155¾
Am Woolen	32¾	31¾	31¾	—
Am Woolen pf	85¾	85	85	85
Am Zinc	9½	9¼	9¼	9¾
Anaconda	50	49	50	49
Amoskeag pf	73¾	73¾	73¾	—
Anaconda	48¾	48¾	48¾	—
Arco Consol	30¾	30¾	30¾	—
Aris Com	10	9¾	10	—
Atchison	166¾	165¾	166¼	165¾
Baldwin	134	132½	133¾	134½
Balt & Ohio	109	108¾	109	108
Bigelow Hartfd	86	85	86	—
Bigham	37½	37¼	37¼	38
Bost C Gas pf	107¾	107¾	107¾	—
Bos Elev	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
Bos Elev 1 pf	111	111	111	—
Bos Elev 2 pf	105¾	105¾	105¾	105
Boston & Me	53	52¾	53	52¾
B & M pr pfd	106	106	106	106
B & M pf stp	59	59	59	—
Bos & Me A	89	78	80	80
B & M B stp	101	101	101	—
Bos & Me C	105	105	105	110
Beth Steel	46¾	46¾	46¾	47¼
Cal & Hecla	15	15	15	14¾
Cal Petrol	21¼	20¾	21	21¼
Ches & Ohio	140¾	140¾	140¾	140¾
Chic, R I	74¾	72¾	72¾	73¾
Consolidated	12¾	12¾	12¾	12¾
Cons Gas	109¾	109	109¾	108¾
Cop Range	13¾	13¼	13¾	13¾
Chrysler	42¾	41¾	42	—
Dodge A	27	26¾	26¾	—
Dom Stores	65¾	65¾	65¾	—
Du Pont	177¾	176	177¾	176¾
East Butte	23¼	23	23	—
Eastern S	46¾	46¾	46¾	46
Edison	229	226½	229	227
Erie	39¾	39¾	41	—
E Mass pf	69	69	69	—
European S	24	24	24	—
G Mass adj	47¾	47	47	47¾
Elder Mfg	21½	21¼	21½	—
Eastern Mfg	4	—	—	—
Fresnos Plan	113¾	112¾	113¾	113¾
Fisk Rubber	16¾	16¾	16¾	—
Gen El new	84¾	84¾	84¾	83¾
Gen Motors	155¾	154¾	155¾	155¼
German C	22	22	22	21¾
Gillette	94	93½	94	93¾
Gen Asphalt	87¾	86¾	86¾	88
Gilchrist	37	36¾	37	—
H Nelson	24	24	24	24¼
Hood Rub	46¾	46¼	46¾	47
Hudson	56¾	55¾	56¾	54¾
Int Comb	48¾	48¾	48¾	48¾
Int Match pf	63¾	63	63	63½
In Harvester	142¾	141¾	142	141¾
Int Paper	60	58¾	59¾	58¾
Island Creek	225	225	225	225
Isle Royale	10¾	10½	10½	10
Kennecott	61¾	61¾	61¾	61¾

	Jan. 10	Jan. 8
	High	Low	Close	Close
Kid-Peabody	95	95	95	—
Loew's Th	6¾	6¼	6¾	6¾
Mack	94¾	93¾	94¾	92¾
Maine Cent	82¾	82	82¾	—
Marland	27¾	27¾	27¾	28¼
Mass Gas	89¾	85¾	89¾	—
Mass Gas pf	71	71	71	—
Mayflower	11¼	10¾	11¼	11¾
Mo Pac	39	38¾	39	38¾
Mohawk	90	89	90	—
Montgy-Ward	66¾	66¾	66¾	—
Nash	72¾	70¾	70¾	72
Nat Lastinc	30¾	30¾	30¾	30½
N Y C Pub Se	92¾	92¼	92¾	93
N Y C S p pf	103¾	103¾	103¾	—
New Cornfds	23¾	23¼	23¾	—
N E Tel	117	116	117	116¾
N Y Chic	147¾	147¾	147¾	—
N Y NH & H	34¾	34¼	34¾	34¾
Nipissing	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
No Pacific	83¾	81¾	83¾	82¾
No Texas	39¾	39¾	41	—
Pan-Am B	62¾	62¾	63¾	62¾
Penn R R	43¾	43¼	43¾	43¾
Phillips	57	56¾	57	—
Pond C Poc	12¾	12	12¾	—
Pullman	166	165	166	165
Quincy	16	15	15	15¾
Radio	54¾	52¾	52¾	52
Reading	85¾	85¼	85¾	85¾
Reece F M	11¾	11¾	11¾	—
R & R Lime pf	101	101	101	—
St L Frisco	103	102¾	102¾	—
St Mary's	24	24	24	—
Southern Pac	104¾	103¾	103¾	104¾
Studebaker	56	55¼	55¾	55½
Sup & Bos	30c	30c	30c	—
Swift & Co	104¾	103¾	104	103¾
Swift & Co	117¾	116	116	117
Swift Intl	23	22¾	22¾	23
Tower	3	3	3	—
Union C & L	70	70	70	—
Un Drug 1 pf	59¾	59¼	59¼	59¾
United Fruit	118¾	117	118	117½
U S Rubber	62¾	60¾	62¼	—
United Shoe	51	50¾	50¾	51
U S Smelt pf	46½	46¼	45¾	—
US & FS pf	93	93	93	—
US & FS B stp	85½	85½	85½	85½
U S Steel	159¼	157¾	158¼	157½
Utah Apex	6¼	6¼	6¼	6¼
Utah Metal	9¾	9¾	9¾	9¾
Venezuela M	11¾	10¾	11	—
U S Steel wi	125	124¾	125	125½
Waldorf	22	22	22	22
Wal W pr pf	112	112	112	—
Walworth	20	19	19	18¾
Warner A	41¾	41¼	41½	42¾
Warren Bros	68¾	67¾	68¾	67¾
Westinghouse	70½	69¾	70¼	69¾
Yellow Trick	28¾	28¾	28¾	28¾

BONDS

All. G&WI 5s	75	74½	75	—
Mass Gas 4½s	99¾	99¾	99¾	—
Miss R Pow 5s	101	101	101	—
Un Indus 6s	93	93	93	93
Kan & Mich 5s	1st 94½	95½	95½	—
Edisonlty B 5s	70	70	70	—

NEW YORK BOND MARKET

New York bond sales were:

DOMESTIC BONDS.

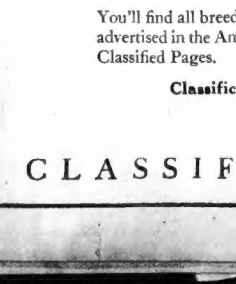
Sales in $1000)	High	Low	Last
10 Am Agr Chem 7½s	108	108	108
7 Am Smelting 5s	101¾	101¾	101¾
20 Am Sugar 6s	105¾	105¾	105¾
60 Am Tel & Tel 5½s	106¾	106	106
1 Am T & T Col 5s	106¾	106¾	106¾
34 Anaconda Cop 7s	108¾	108¼	108¾
17 Anaconda Cop 6s	106¾	106¾	106¾
17 Andes Cop Min 7s	106¾	106¾	106¾
20 Angfo-Chilean 7s	99	98¾	99
9 Armour & Co Del 5½s	95¾	95¼	95¾
14 At T & Santa Fe gen 4s	91¾	91¾	91¾
4 Balt & Ohio Sw Div 5s	102¾	102¾	102¾
15 Balt & Ohio rfg 4s	79¾	79¼	79¾
100 Bamodell Co 6½s	101¾	100	101
11 Beth Steel 5s	101¾	101¾	101¾
3 Bklyn Manh Tr 4½s	90¾	90¾	90¾
3 Bklyn Un Gas deb 5s	104¾	104¾	104¾
8 Calif Pet 5½s rfg	101¾	101¾	101¾
1 Canadian Pac deb 4s	84¾	84¾	84¾
4 Central Leather 5s	108¾	108¼	108¾
15 Central Pacific 4s	85¾	85¾	85¾
1 Ches & Ohio gen 4½s	97¾	97¾	97¾
11 Ches & Ohio conv 5s	118¾	118¾	118¾
23 Chic & Alton 3½s	61¾	61¾	61¾
9 Chic & Alton 5s	85¾	85¾	85¾
2 Chic & Western Ind 6s	101¾	101¾	101¾
3 Chic & West Ind 5½s	104¾	104¾	104¾
28 Chile Copper 5s	104¾	104¼	104¾
8 Cities Ser Pow & L 6½s	98	98	98
1 Commonw Edison 5s	101¾	101¾	101¾
5 Cons Cigar rfg 6s	100	100	100
5 Cons Gas NY deb 5½s	104¾	104¾	104¾

INTERNATIONAL PAPER COMPANY

New York, November 24, 1926.

The Board of Directors have declared a regular quarterly dividend of one and one-half per cent on the Seven Per Cent Cumulative 7% Preferred Stock of this Company, and a regular quarterly dividend of one and one-half percent (1½%) on the Cumulative 6% 4½ Preferred Stock of this Company, for the current quarter, payable January 15th, 1927, to stock of record at the close of business, January 3rd, 1927. Checks will be mailed. Transfer books will not close.

OWEN SHEPHERD, Treasurer.



Happy and Contented

A PLAYFUL playmate helps to keep your children outdoors—cultivates their appetites and improves their health.

You'll find all breeds of dogs and puppies advertised in the American and Advertiser Classified Pages.

Classification—138

CLASSIFIED ADS

Advice Is Free

Before you buy or sell any stocks or bonds, you should have expert advice. Send your investment inquiries with stamp to Frank H. Meloon, financial editor, Boston Evening American, No. 3 Winthrop square, Boston, Mass. No replies can be made except by mail.

BUYING POWER OF U. S. DOLLAR AGAIN HIGHER

For the fifth successive week the buying power of the American dollar is again higher, says Prof. Irving Fisher, whose index of 200 representative commodities and the relative purchasing power of money for the past several weeks compiled by the American Exchange Irving Bank, for the week of January, 1922, the low of January, 1922, the high of May, 1920. Following table takes us 1901:

	Index Purchasing Number	power
1920—Mar (best of period)	167	59.8
1922—January (low)	138	72.5
1922—Week ending	139.2	71.8
1923—Week average	170.2	58.8
1924—Week average	166.3	60.2
February average	157.6	63.4
March average	157.1	63.6
April average	156.9	63.7
May average	156.9	63.7
June average	152.0	65.8
July average	151.7	65.9
August average	147.6	67.8
September average	147.7	67.7
October average	149.5	67.1
November average	150.2	66.6
December average	152.7	65.5
Dec. week ending	153.2	65.3
Dec. week end Dec 31	148.5	67.3
1925—Jan. week end Jan 7	145.9	68.5
1927—Jan. week end Jan. 7	142.9	69.9

(Copyright, 1927, by Irving Fisher.)

Wall Street Gossip

PENN RAILROAD sold at its highest in 11 years.

UNFILLED orders of U. S. Steel on Dec. 31 announced today, totaled 3,940,503 tons, increase of 153,503 tons compared with end of November.

CHARLES H. HAYDEN has been elected president of Cuba Cane Sugar Corporation to succeed W. K. Gillylie.

87	St L & San Fr 1st 6s	97¼	97¾
13	St L Southwest con 4s	90¾	90¾
15	St P&S Paul 5-4½s	98¾	98¾
90	Seaboard Air L con 4s	90¾	90¾
70	Southern Air L 4½s	90¾	90¾
20	Seaboard All Fla 6s	47¾	47¾
23	Shinyetsu Con 6s 1927	101¾	101¾
28	Stinnis Cop 6½s	98¾	98¾
1	Stinnis Pipe 6s	92¾	92¾
2	Southern Pac col 4s	86¾	86¾
3	Southern Pac rfg 4½s	86¾	86¾
14	Southern Ry gen 6½s	102¾	102¾
1	Southern Ry gen 5s	87¾	87¾
12	Stewart Bell 7½ rfg	101¾	101¾
1	Texas Pacific 1st 5s	105¾	105¾
16	Third Ave adj 5s	39¾	39¾
1	Third Ave 5s	95	95
3	Union Pacific cv 4s	105¾	105¾
2	Union Pacific rfg 4s	86¾	86¾
27	U S Steel s f 5s	104¾	104¾
1	U S Steel s f 5s	104¾	104¾
12	Utica & N Y gen 5s	94¾	94¾
25	Virginia Ry 5s	103¾	103¾
27	Wabash Ry ref B 5s	104¾	104¾
1	Western Electric 5s	102¾	102¾
1	Western Pacific 5s	102¾	102¾
27	Westinghouse Elec 5s	102¾	102¾
1	Wheeling & L E 5s	102¾	102¾
18	Youngstown Sh & T 5s	104¾	104¾

FOREIGN BONDS

2	Argen afg 6s 1959	98	98
18	Australian 5s 1955	92¾	92¾
1	Australian 5½s 1945	102	102
18	Belgian 7s 1950 rfg	102¾	102¾
98	Belgian 8s 1955	107¾	107¾
8	Berlin 6½s 1950	99	98¾
1	Bordeaux 6s	98¾	98¾
1	Brazilian 8s 1941	104¾	104¾
2	Buenos Aires 7s 1955	104¾	104¾
2	British 5½s 1937	104¾	104¾
1	Canadian 5s 1952	104¾	104¾
35	Chilean 6s rfg 1961	89¾	89¾
15	Chilean Mort 6½s 57	89¾	89¾
4	Colom 5½s 1963	101¾	101¾
1	Cuban 5s 1949	105	105
9	Danish 5s 1942	104¾	104¾
1	Danish 5½s 1955	104¾	104¾
2	Finland 6½ 1959	101	101
1	French 5s 1945	104¾	104¾
68	French 7s 1949	105¾	105¾
105	Ger Rep 5½s 1965	104¾	104¾
2	Ger Gen El 6½s Conv	113¾	113¾
1	Hung Mtg 7½s 1944	113¾	113¾
20	Japanese 6½s 1954	103¾	103¾
204	Italian 7s 1951	104¾	104¾
4	Netherlands 6s 1954	103¾	103¾
13	Norwegian 5½s 1940	104¾	104¾
37	Parle-Lyons-Med 6s 58	90¾	90¾
1	Peru 6s 1944	97¾	97¾
2	Prague 7½s 1952	104¾	104¾
1	Rio de Jan 6½s 1959	104¾	104¾
3	Saxon Pub Wks 7s	102¾	102¾
1	Swiss 5½s 1942	104¾	104¾
30	Sydney Conn Wtr 5s	102	102
1	Uruguay 8s 1946	104¾	104¾

U. S. BONDS

22	4 Lib 3½s 1932-47	101.14	101.12
41	1 Lib 1st 4½s	101.3	101.3
19	1 Lib 2nd 4½s	100.25	100.25
2	2 Lib 2nd 4½s	100.26	100.26
83	4 Lib 4th 4¼s	102.16	102.16
1	1st Pref 4s	104.16	104.16
1	1st Pref 4s	104.16	104.16
1	1st Pref 4½s	107.12	107.12

(T. S. Government Bonds in dollars and thirty-seconds.)

U. S. BONDS

22	4 Lib 3½s 1932-47	101.14	101.12
41	1 Lib 1st 4½s	101.3	101.3
19	1 Lib 2nd 4½s	100.25	100.25
2	2 Lib 2nd 4½s	100.26	100.26
83	4 Lib 4th 4¼s	102.16	102.16
1	1st Pref 4s	104.16	104.16
1	1st Pref 4s	104.16	104.16
1	1st Pref 4½s	107.12	107.12

NEW YORK STOCKS

	Jan 10	Jan 8
	High	Low	Close	Close
Adv Rumely	11¾	11	11	11¾
Adv Rumely pf	147¾	147¾	147¾	142½
Ajax Rubber	10¾	10¼	10¾	9¾
All Ch & Dye	139¾	137¾	138¾	137¾
Alla Chal Mfg	30¾	30¾	30¾	30¾
Amal Leather	17¾	17¼	17¼	17¾
Amerada	34¾	33¾	34	32
Am Ag Chem	31¾	31¼	31¾	31¾
Am Ag Ch pf	91¾	89¾	89¾	88½
Am Bank Note	49¾	49¾	49¾	49¾
Am Br'n Boy	38¾	38¾	38¾	39¼
Am Can	48¾	47¾	47¾	47¾
Am Car & F	103¾	102¾	102¾	101
Am Chain A	25¾	25¼	25¼	25¾
Am Express	131	130	131	130¾
Am Hide & L	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾
Am Home Pr	32¾	31¾	32	32¾
Am Int Corp	37¾	37¼	37¾	37¾
Am LaFrance	19¾	19¾	19¾	19¾
Am Linseed	29¾	28¾	29¾	28¾
Am Locom	103¾	102¾	103¾	102¾
Am Metal	42	41¾	42	41¾
Am Pow & L	69¾	68¾	68¾	68¾
Am Republics	13¾	13¼	13¼	13¾
Am Sumatra	44¾	44¼	44¼	41¾
Am Tel & Tel	154¾	153¾	154¼	153¾
Am Ship & Com	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
Am Tobacco	121¾	121¾	121¾	—
Am Tobacco B	120¾	120¾	120¾	120
Am Water W	65	64¾	65	65
Am Woolen	32¾	31¾	31¾	—
Am Zinc pf	85¾	85	85	85¾
Am Zinc	9¾	9¼	9¼	9¾
Am Zinc pf	48¾	47¾	48¾	48
Anaconda	48¾	48	48¾	48¾
Armour Ill A	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾
Armour Ill B	8¾	8¾	8¾	—
Asso Dry Gds	41¾	41¼	41¾	—
Atch T&SF	166¾	165¾	166¼	165¾
Atlantic Cst L	190¼	190	191	189½
Atlantic Ref	41	41	41	41
Atl G&WI pf	85¾	85¾	85¾	85¾
Atl Refining	113¾	112	112	111
Auburn Auto	154¾	153¾	153¾	153¾
Balk & Ohio	108¾	108¼	108¾	108
Barnsdall Cl A	31¾	29¾	30¾	28¾
Barnsdall B	31¾	31¾	31¾	—
Beechnut	58¾	58¼	58¾	—
Beth Steel	47¼	46¾	46¾	—
Beth Steel	47¼	46¾	47¼	—
Briggs Mfg	89¾	89¾	89¾	30½
Brklyn Edison	134	134	134	134
Bklyn Man Ry	69¾	68¾	68¾	68¾
Bklyn Un Gas	83¾	83¾	83¾	83¾
Brunsw-Bal-Col	8¾	8¾	8¾	8¾
Bush Term	30¾	30	30	30
Bush Term pf	31	31	31	31
Butterick	23¾	23¼	23¾	23¾
Calif Packing	69	68¾	68¾	69
Case Threshg	149	148	148	147
Bon Ami	54	54	54	54
Chgtt Pea	62¾	61¾	62¼	61¾
Calif Petrol	21¾	21¼	21¼	21¼
Cen Leather	38¾	38	38	39
Cen Leather pf	87¾	87¾	87¾	88¾
Cerro de Pasco	62¾	62	62¾	62
Chand Clev	9	8¾	8¾	8¾
Chand Clev pf	23	23	23	23
Chas & Ohio	151	150	150¾	150¾
Chic, R I & P	73¾	72¾	72¾	73¾
Chile Copper	24¾	24¼	24¼	24¾
Chrysler	43	42¼	42¾	43¾
Coca Cola	171¾	170¼	171¾	168¾
Collins & Ax	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
Colo Fuel & I	45¾	44¾	45¼	45¾
Colum Gas & E	89¾	89¾	89¾	89¾
Col Gas & El n	90¾	89¾	89¾	89¾
Com Solv B	249¼	239	245¾	239
Comwlth Edison	105	105	105	105
Congoleum	29¾	29¼	29¾	29¾
Consol Cigar	84¾	84	84¾	83¾
Consol Coal	109¾	109	109¾	108¾
Congress Cig	54¼	54¼	54¼	54¼
Cont Bak A	71¾	70¾	70¾	70¾
Cont Bak B	71¾	71¾	71¾	71¾
Con Textiles	4	3¾	3¾	3¾
Conl Can	71	70¾	71	70¾
Conti Candy	37¾	37¼	37¾	37¾
Corn Prod	48¾	48	48	48¾
Crucible Steel	80¾	80¼	80¾	80
Cuba Cane	13¾	13¼	13¼	13¾
Cuba Co	33¾	33	33	33¾
Cuban Am Sug	51¾	51	51	—
Douglas Pic	49¾	49¾	49¾	48¾
Davison Chem	20¼	20	20¼	20¼
Del & Hudson	174¾	174¾	174¾	174¾
Del L & W	142	142	142	142
Devoe & Ray	40	39	40	—
Dodge Bros A	27¾	26¾	26¾	27¾
Dodge Bros pf	83¾	83	83¾	83
Dome Mines	16¾	16¼	16¼	16¾
Dupont d N	177¾	176	176¾	176
Eastman Kod	130¾	128¾	130¾	—
Elec Auto L	16¾	15¾	15¾	15¾
Elec P & L	15¾	15¾	15¾	15¾
Elec Refrig	37¾	36¾	36¾	36¾
Elec S Battery	73	73	73	—
Endicott John	67	67	67	67¾
Erie RR	40¾	40	40¾	40
Erie 1st pf	54¾	53¾	54¾	54¾
Erie 2d pf	49¾	49¼	49¼	49¾
Erie Stm Sh	25¾	25¾	25¾	25¾
Eureka sc	66¾	66¾	66¾	66¾
Fairbanks M	40¾	40¾	40¾	40¾
Famous Play	113¼	112¾	113¼	112¾
Fed L&T	42¾	41¾	42¾	41¾
Fed M&S pf	76	76	76	76¼
Fed Nat Arm	29¾	29¾	29¾	—
Fed Mot Trk	30¾	29¾	30¾	29¾
Fox Film	72¾	72¼	72¾	72¾
Freeport	37¾	36¾	37¾	36¾
Gabriel Snub'r	30¾	30¼	30¾	29¾
Gen Electric	84¾	84¼	84¾	84¾
Gen Asphalt	86¾	86¾	86¾	85¾
Gen Cigar	84¾	84¼	84¾	84¾
Gen Electric	84¾	84¼	84¾	84¾
Gen Motors	155¾	154¾	155¾	155¼
Granby	33¾	33¾	33¾	33¾
Gen Ry Sig	83¾	82¾	83¾	83¾
Gimbel Bros	41	40¾	41	40¾
Gildden	24¾	24¾	24¾	24¾
Gold Dust	45¾	45¼	45¾	44¾
Goodrich Tire	45¾	45¾	45¾	47¾
Gn Stk Pow	60	59	59	59
Gt Nor Ore	19¼	19¼	19¼	19¾
Gt Northn pf	84¾	83¾	84¾	83¾
Gulf States	81¾	81¾	81¾	—
Hart'n Corp B	26	25¾	26	26¼
Hayes Wheel	19¾	19¼	19¾	19¾
Household Pr	45¾	45¼	45¾	45¾
Houston Oil	41	41	41	41
Howe Sound	39	38¾	38¾	38¾
Hd & Mn R R	41¾	41	41¾	41¾
Hudson Motor	56¾	55¾	56¾	54¾
Hupp Motor	23¾	23¼	23¾	23¾
Ill Central	121¾	121¾	121¾	—
Independ Oil	31¾	30¾	30¾	30¾
Int Mach pf	82¾	82¾	82¾	82¾
Int Harvester	141¾	141¾	142	141¾
Int Business	94	93¾	94	95¾
Interb Rap Tr	45¾	45¼	45¾	45¾
Intl Cement	51¾	51¼	51¾	47¾
Intl Comb Eng	48¾	48¼	48¾	48¾
Intl Mer Mp pf	38¾	37¾	38¾	37¾
Intl Nickel	43¾	41¾	43¾	42¾
Intl Paper	60	58¾	59¾	58¾
Intl Tel & Tel	129¾	128¾	128¾	129¾
Jewel Tea	88¾	88	88	87¾
Jordan Motor	22	21¾	22	21¾
Kan City & So	42¾	41¾	42¾	42¾
Kopper & Co	59¾	59¼	59¾	59¾
Kelly Springfd	12¾	12¾	12¾	12¾
Kennecott C	61¾	61¾	61¾	61¾
Kraft Cheese	47¾	47¾	47¾	—
Kresge Co	54¼	54	54¼	54¼
Lambert	68	68	68	68¾
Lehigh Valley	102	101	101	101
Lehn & Fink	36¾	36¼	36¾	36¾
Liggett Ser B	100	99¾	100	99¾
Liquid Carb	53¾	53¼	53¾	53¾
Loew's Inc	6¾	6¼	6¾	6¾
Lor Inc	6¾	6¾	6¾	6¾
Loose Wiles	163½	161¾	163½	161¾

Lorillard & Co	32¾	32¼	32¾
Louisiana Oil	17¾	17¼	17¾
Ludlum Steel	27	27	27
Mack Trucks	94¼	92¾	94
Mathieson Alk	52¾	52	52¾
Maytag	24	23¾	23¾
Mex Seaboard	7¾	7¼	7¾
Miami Copper	15¾	15¼	15¾
Mid Cont Petr	36¾	36¼	36¾
Middle States Oil	2¾	2¾	2¾
Mo Kan&T pf	49¾	49¾	49¾
Mo Pacific	39¾	38¾	39¾
Mo Pacific pf	91¾	91	91¾
Montgy Ward	66¾	66¾	66¾
Moon Motor	11¾	11¾	11¾
Motor Meter A	33¾	33¾	33¾
Motor Wheel	33¾	33¾	33¾
Murray Body	6¾	6¾	6¾
Nash Motors	72¾	70¾	72
Nat Biscuit	101¾	100¾	101¾
Nat Cash Reg	41¾	41¼	41¾
Nat Dairy Pr	52¾	52¾	52¾
Nat Dep Stk	36¾	36¾	36¾
Nat Distill	20	20	20¼
Nat Lead	116	115¾	116
Nat P & L	21¾	21¼	21¾
New Cons Cop	14¾	14¼	14¾
Air Reduct	40¾	40¼	40¾
N Y Canners	21	21	21
N Y Central	142¾	141¾	141¾
NYC & StL	138¾	138¾	138¾
Nati Cl & St	21¾	21¼	21¾
N Y Dock	36¾	36¾	36¾
NY NH & H	42¾	42¼	42¾
N Y Ont & W	158¾	158¾	158¾
North Am	56¾	56	56¾
North Am pf	59¾	59	59¾
North Pacific	83¾	82¾	83¾
Omnibus Corp	13¾	13¾	13¾
Orpheum Circ	31¾	31¼	31¾
Otis Steel	11¾	11¾	11¾
Owens Bottle	78¾	78¼	78¾
Pac Gas & E	57¾	57¼	57¾
Packard Motor	26¾	26¼	26¾
Paige Detroit	117¾	117¼	117¾
Panhan Pete	117¾	117¼	117¾
*Pan-Am West	87¾	87¼	87¾
*Pathe A	39¾	39¾	39¾
Penn Coal & Cem	59	59	59
Penn RR	57¾

Announcements

New Year Greeting

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL THE SHOE WORKERS!
PROTECTIVE UNION.
295 Allen St., Attn: JOHN SULLAN, Pres.
E. S. AJEMIAN, 342 Dorchester St., proprietor of Quality Smoke Shop, extends season's greetings.
ALLSTEIN, German Home Bakery, Revere, Beach, extends season's greetings.
JOHN ANAGNOS, Wine & Wine Rail Restaurant, extends season's greetings.
ANNA BAILEY, 339 Revere St., Revere, Reserve 2582, extends season's greetings.
BARRY'S Shoe Store, 87 Main St., Weymouth, 1st floor shoes for Dad and Mother.
FREDERICK W. BALDAM CO., 6 Fulton St., Boston, extends season's greetings.
JOHN BENNETT, 122 Essex St., Melrose, Richmond, extends season's greetings.
BRADLEE School of Accounting & Finance, 321 Boylston, Boston, extends season's greetings.
BOSTON INDUSTRIAL HOME, 17 Dix St., Boston, extends season's greetings to all.
Miss MAUDE BLAIR, Beauty Parlor, 420 Harvard St., extends season's greetings.
E. J. BURNS, Insurance, 53 State St., Boston, extends season's Greetings.
JOHN BOYLE, Jr., Insurance, 89 Commercial, Boston, 10 Arlington, Boston, season's greetings.
J. CAMPBELL, Jeweler, 1 Bowdoin Square, extends season's greetings and thanks and wishes a Happy New Year.
CHARLES A. CHAMBERLAIN, Boston, extends season's greetings to all.
CHARLES CLARK, Insurance, 131 Centre St., Roxbury, High 5552, greetings.
COLLEGE Inn Restaurant, 1284 Tremont St., extends season's greetings.
COLE BROS. HEATING CORP., 729A Dorchester St., So. Bos., Fort. 3900, greetings.
CROSBY BROTHERS, 417 Washington St., Brighton, extends season's greetings.
CURTIS & CROSTON, Movers, 67 Charles St., Boston, extend season's greetings.
CHARLES L. DELANA, Radio dealer, 9 Fairmont St., Medford, Mystic 0580, greetings.
DILLON & CARDUCCI, 1229 Centre St., extend greetings for 1927.
F. J. DONAHUE, Insurance, 1 Sterling St., Roxbury, extends season greetings.
DONOVAN'S Restaurant, 11 Dix St., Bos., Gro. 0764, season's greetings.
Dwan-Rice Bros. Co., Plumbers, 344 Cambridge St., Wellington Square, extend season's greetings.
SIMON DORFMAN, fruit dealer, 104 Clinton St., extends greetings for 1927.
G. W. DOAK, 32 Regent St., No. Camb., wholesale dealer in coal, extends season's greetings.
DUNN & CO. Fruit Dealers, 70 So. Market St., extend greetings for 1927.
ECONOMY Cash Market, 281 Pearl St., Somerville, Som. 0800, extend greetings.
EMERSON MARKET, 148 Emerson St., Floor of meat and poultry, extends season's greetings.
ENVOY on New Year and how Kris-Kringle plans to rule new Home. Greetings from Envoy Printing Co., 98-97 Oliver St., Boston, Han. 9720.
F. WORKMAN, Men's Clothier, 1259 Dor. Ave., Col. 2090, extends season's greetings.
FORMAN & BRUCE CO., house wiring a specialty, 1 Arlington St., Boston.
A. J. GIBBON, Mover, 407 California St., Newtonville, extends season's greetings.
F. GRAZIANO, tire er, 472 Saratoga St., E. Bos. 3276, greetings.
DUNTIN & SAUNIERES CO., 99 Clinton St., extend season's greetings.
FRED W. HAAS CO., Roxbury, general lithographers, extend season's greetings.
MISS LYDIA HADLEY Beauty Shop, 1196 Commonwealth Ave., Brighton, extends greetings.
HALL, a CALLE, 100 Faneuil Hall Mkt., extends greetings to all for 1927.
HOLT, Howard & Co., and Coke, West Roxbury, extend season's greetings.
SIMON HENTOFF, Fruit Dealer, 787 Cambridge St., Allston, extends season's greetings.
HOTEL Bellevue, Beacon St., Boston, extends season's greetings.
HOUSE of Flowers, 1134, extend greetings.
H. HOUGHTON & CO., Printers, 4 Somerset and 100 Purchase, extends greetings 1927.
HUNNEWELL Engineering Laboratory, 101 Broadway, Everett, extends greetings.
IDEAL MARKET, W. Bregolin, 108 Main St., Arl. 3274, extends greetings.
J. COMPARATO & SON, 25 Essex Ave., extend season's greetings.

JAMES F. KENNA CO.
No. 1 Market St., Cambridge, Kir. 1100, extends season's greetings.
KEANE'S ANIMAL VISA SERVICE, 746 Centre, Jamaica Plain, extends greetings.
KNAPP'S TAXI Co., 24 Tor St., Som. 3000, Season's greetings.
KAVEY BEER CO., 1 Arlington St., Boston, extends season's greetings to all.
LUCIDO Fruit Co., 1 Faneuil Hall Sq., who contributed so generously yesterday, extends season's greetings.
LAMPERT & FINKLE, 100 Hanover St., extend season's greetings to all.
WM. LANGLEY & SON, Florists, 1 Park St., 378 High, Ave., Som. Season's greeting.
PEARL CLEANING & DYEING CO., 1055 Dor. Ave., Col. 2201, hdqtrs. New Year Greetings.
W. LINDEBERG, 21 Chapel St., New Boston, Hub. 2972, extends season's greetings.
W. MAHER CO., 18 North St., Boston, Rich. 2972, extends season's greetings.
N. MAGGIOLI CO., Inc., Revere Beach, Rev. 3065, Season's Greetings to all.
G. MANZO & SONS, Fruit, 1 N. Market St., extends greetings to all for 1927.
MARVIN LUTHER ORPHAN HOME, 670 Baker, West Roxbury, extends greetings.
MERCHANTS FRUIT & PRODUCE CO., 2 Clinton St., Boston, Lib. 1200, Sam. 3057-3058, greetings for 1927.
NOVAGLI BROS., 344 Atlantic St., At lantic, Gen. 6614-R, extends greetings.
NORTH BRIGHTON Lodge, 1095 B. P. O. E., Club, Univ. 7494-W, extends Season's Greetings.
O. H. Johnson Soap & Co.—Coal-gas reforge, furnaces, 60 Sprague St., Hyde Park, greetings.
PAGE & HUNTINGTON, coal, 8 Sudbury St., Boston, extends season's greetings.
MORRIS Public Market, 2452 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, extends season's greetings.
PARKER HOUSE, Boston, extends season's greetings.
PEOPLES Theatre, Tremont St., Roxbury, 4059 Wash. St., Par. 2112-W, greetings.
GEO. A. PRIDDY & Co., snow and ice removal fittings, 25 Union St., season's greetings.
P. M. PARKS, 40 Central St., Boston, extends greetings to all.
RAMBLE DECORATING CO., INC., Boston, Season's Greetings for the happy New Year.
STANLEY E. NAVARRO, HEATING Engineer, 29 Farn ham St., Boston, extends greetings.
RICKERSON PIANO FOR CHILDREN, 178 Tremont St. Boston, extends greetings.
REDHAM ICE CO., Melrose, Needham, extends season's greetings to all.
SPRING BROTHERS, 1368 Tremont St., Brookline, Aspinwall 2525, extends season's greetings to all.
S. SALEY, Locksmith, 8 Otis St., Somerville, season's greetings for 1927.
ALFRED W. OTIS & CO., FRUIT DEALERS, 63 Clinton St., Boston, extend season's greetings to all for 1927.
SAMUEL ROSEN, 68 Commercial St., extends greetings for 1927.
PATSON PAPER MARKET, 466 Common St., Belmont 1210, extends greetings to friends and customers.
PEARL CASH MARKET, 1058 Dor. Ave., Dor. 0800, extends season's greetings.
P. M. PEARLES CO., 30 North St., Boston, extend season's greetings to all.
PEERLESS PROVISION CO., 268 W. New York St., Boston, Sou. 0800, greetings.
PHIL'S PUBLIC MARKET, 85A Broadway, Somerville, Som. 0800, greetings.
FRED POTTER, Taxi Service, 304 Southampton, Sou. 0395, season's greetings.
QUALITY Fruit Co., 10 Potter St., Cambridge, Kir. 8620-R, extends greetings.
REVERE TYPE & PUB. CO., Revere, Rev. 0056 Season's Greetings.
SYLVAN Co., makers of wholesale fruit, 49 Clinton St., ext. greetings 1927.
SCHLOSS Co., 1 Summer St., Boston, extends greetings for 1927.
SAVE for a New Year Outfit! Kellogg Mackenzie, 1644 Mass. Ave., Cen. 2050-2529.
Start the New Year by having SHERMAN HEATING CO.
20 Tudor St., Bich. 1260, install your heaters.
JOHN H. STEVENS & CO., 587 Green St., Cambridge, Season's greeting to all.
FRANCES F. SCOTT, Beauty Shop, 581 Main, Ave., Cambr., extends the season's greetings.
SMART ELECTRICAL CO.—Elec. contractors, 70 Tremont, Bos. Season's greetings.
SOLIS—HEATING 20 Sanborn Ave., Somerville. Season's greetings.

Announcements

New Year Greetings

DR. A. E. SHUBOW
846 Warren St., extends Happy New Year.
ANTONIO SCIARRILLO, Grocer, 145 Endicott St., 2600-W, extends greetings.
SMITH-COLEMAN, Electrical Contractors, 366 Somerville Ave., Doug. Season's Greetings.
SOUTH BOSTON BAKERY, 13 silver St., Sou. Bos., extends season's greetings.
SOUTH END FUEL & SUPPLY CO., 90, END LIFE POULTRY CO., 232 Albany St., Boston, extend season's greetings.
SOUTH END PAINT SHOP, 990 Wash. St., Boston, extends season's greetings.
FLORENCE E. SIFFERLIZ, Beauty Shop, 1 Tremont St., extends the season's greetings.

Stenographers extends to Secretaries, Authors & Others Season's Greetings to Friends and Customers
STANLEY COLLEGE OF SHORTHAND, INC., 419 Wash. St., Boston, Beach 1000, greetings to all.
TAYLOR, Florist, 1 Park St., Boston, extends season's greetings.
THE FARM AND TRADES SCHOOL, Boston, extends greetings. Throp son's tale. Gr. 0097. Season's greetings.
THRIFT MARKET, 1107 Tremont St., Roxbury, extends season's greetings to all.
TRAVERS, Florist, 1 Park St., Boston, extends season's greetings.
TOWN HOUSE Restaurant, 37 Hay ward St., extends season's greetings.
TRIANGLE, MEAT MARKET, 880 Beacon St., Kenmore 4076-W, extend season's greetings.

Detective Agencies 26
BUSINESS established over 20 years, reliable; mod. women of character; confidential; legal; 24 hr. service. Bureau of Investig. Agency, Inc. 176 Devonshire St.

Building and Contracting 27
Don't start the job until you get our price covering all specifications. Special fixtures TERMS IF DESIRED
Special Attention for Out-of-Town Jobs.
WELSH ELECTRIC CO., 302 Washington St., Newton, Lasell 0200.
T. H. WHEELER CO., 101 Clinton St., Bos. Rich. 1260, extends greetings to all.
LEONARD J. WILEY, Asst. to Veniffa, 97 Ivy St., Boston, Kes. 2260, greetings.
F. A. SMALLEY, 38 Forster, East Boston, extends season's greetings to all. 10

Lost and Found 28

FOUND BY THE POLICE
Tire—Tire, tube and rim, attached to a Buffalo—Black hillbilly goat; owner may have same by calling at 1 Sudbury St. and paying for keep.
Auto top, windshield, taken from 191 Bowdoin St., Dor. Call Lib. 0600.
Bag—Large, vanity type, lost, containing money & keys; finder rewarded. 1 Hunt'sboro.
glasses, onyx ring and watch; reward Call 1166-R.
Brooch—Lady's round, about size of half dollar, with diamond in center; lost on Burlington St. Reward Aspinwall 4184.
DIAMOND Ring lost between Parker House Hotel Friday night, Jan 7, after 11 o'clock in Scollay Square; finder will please call Bos 450 reward if returned to Mrs. J. G. Braddock, Hotel Malden.
DOG—Mongrel chow and Norwegian hound; answers to name of Jack Bedden, 43 Chesterfield St., Roxbury; liberal reward. W. N. Commings, Hill 0900.
Dog—Lost, black cocker terrier, white spot; answers to name of "Teddy," children's pet Reward Copley 2883.
DOG—6-month collie yellow with white collar and chain; answers to name of "Brownie." Reward. Call Tremont 2422.
MONEY—Lost, probably in subway. Reward. Call Hancock 1128-J.
POCKETBOOK—Lost Union St., Boston, between Hanover and Commercial, containing Fur Dealers Ass'n. Brokers 357-M.
POCKETBOOK—Lost, Saturday, Reed Pond, Wilmington, containing keys, bus. card, etc. Reward. Telephone Woburn 0400.
WATCH—Gold, white gold, with bracelet; lost Saturday, Jan. 8, between Dec. 28, reward. Liberty 4000. Miss Healy.
WRIST WATCH—Lost Saturday, Jan. 8, between Melrose-Boston, in U. S. Mail bag. Reward. Call Melrose 1000.
WRIST WATCH—Gold Waltham, initialed "M. E. C." on back; lost between Dock and Central St. Camb. Reward. B. B. 2775.
WRIST WATCH—Lost, Saturday, in Boston, women Reward. Beach 3462-R.
WRIST WATCH—Lost, probably on subway; latter ring, lost Sat. p. m. Jan. 8. Call Sam and Boston 1113. Rew. 2225. Boston.

Special Notices 29

BENCKS BROS.
127 M St. South Boston 0800
Illus. Grade Maps and Provisions
PRINTING
SPECIALTY
ANTHONY PRESS
213 Washington St. Dor. Talbot 5950
FURS REMODELED, REPAIRED AT LOWEST PRICES
Buyer for Mfr. Co. 315 Wash. 3rd floor.
FLASH SIGN, ETC
ONLY PLACE IN BOSTON DISPLAYS
179 Summer St., Room 222 Lib. 1817.
Candles and Ice Cream 11 Pleasant St.; Malden 0433.

JOSEPH QUINN
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
135 Warren St., Arlington, Mass.
CANVASSERS WANTED—Large Manufacturer—Fresh and sell meats, free bol. Canton 0058.
CANVASSERS WANTED—Large Manufacturer sell Canton 0058-W.
CANVASSERS WANTED—Large Manufacturer sell Canton 0058-M.
CANVASSERS WANTED—Large Manufacturer sell Canton 0058-R.
Washington St., Canton 0293.
MARTIN BURKE—Masters and rangers, 13 Hanover St., Boston.
H. W. LINDEBERG, Delicious Doughnuts, 31 Chapel St., Somerville, 0056.

Where to Dine 12
TRAVELER CAFE
Is AVERY ST. A GOOD PLACE TO EAT
A CLEAN, QUICK SERVICE
NOON-DAY LUNCHEON, 65c. THE CHEF'S SPECIAL DINNER, 85c. Served 5 to 8 P.M.
Also a la carte and Italian specialties
Telephone Beach 9183
EATING PLACE FOR ENTIRE FAMILY
VINCENT ANGELO, Prop.
SYMPHONY RESTAURANT
201 HUNTINGTON AVE., BOSTON
SPECIAL BLUE PLATE LUNCHEON, 65c
MADAME CAVANA
ADVANCE STYLES IN HAIRDRESSING
Private dining rooms fitted with booths for parties or lodges
885 TREMONT ST. NEAR S'WAY
Phone Beach 9183 for reservations
Crimson Sandwich Shop
Cor. Mass. Ave. and Comm. Sts.
TASTY SANDWICHES, DELICIOUS PASTRY
Special Attention to Parties
McGREENERY, Prop.

Chiropractic, Podiatric, Etc. 12
Answers $ questions by mail $1.00. 80 Boylston, Boston.
PSYCHIC READINGS
$ Questions $1. Circles Tues. Eve. CAROL ROSENKOG, General Delivery, Revere.
MADAME ZARA, Palmist
Medium reading daily 10-5. Others come by appointment. Circles Wed. Eve. 8. 311½ Hanover St.
MADAME SARAH, Pal'm-ist-Clairvoyant, advises on all affairs of life. 1 Dartmouth St., Boston, Copley 6586-W.
MADAME MAUGUS, 99 Roxbury St. readings daily. tel. Highland 1077.
MME. ELLA—Palmist—Clairvoyant, 315 daughter 50 Dudley St., Roz. Fit— 8091
Pen Pictures, 50c. Readings daily 10 to 9. 37 Hanover St., Boston, Room 3.
SEND $1.00, birthdate, full name, to Sealed Letter, Box 1, Station O, Boston.
PIN CHILD answers $ questions $1.10; 10 questions, $2. Circles Wed. 8. 1 Market Lyn. Mass. Sq. Jackson 966.

Business and Professional Services

Attorneys 18
ADVICE FREE—Everything handled in divorce, separation, annulment, desertion, marriage troubles and other cases. White's Law Office, 353 Washington St., Room 828. Call or write.

Beauty Aids 19
MARCEL 50 Work done by Mrs. Curtis, 4 So. Market St. Res. 1009
Laundering 23
FARNSWORTH'S
New Method Rug Cleaning, 10 Garfield Ave., Somerville, Somerset 3240.

Medical and Physicians 23
HAIR ON LADIES' FACES permanently removed by Dr. Lucille Wright, Physicians' reference Molly Rapport, 122 Tremont St. Rm. 404. Hanover 1266.

Business and Professional Services

Medical and Physicians 23
X-RAY
Examination, consultation, trial treatment and handling of cases by the X-Ray only, both before Jan 16th. The wonderful power of the X-Ray and ultra violet rays in the treatment is proved by the fact that they are the only means known to science of any description — catarrh, bronchitis, deafness, asthma, hay fever, and all skin disease. Write or what your disease may be, remember Edward J. Walsh, M. D., 1 Boylston Pl., and will make good the above offer.

Detective Agencies 26
BUSINESS established over 20 years, reliable; mod. women of character; confidential; legal; 24 hr. service. Bureau of Investig. Agency, Inc. 176 Devonshire St.

Building and Contracting 27
WELSH ELECTRIC CO., 302 Washington St., Newton, Lasell 0200.
T. H. WHEELER CO., 101 Clinton St., Bos. Rich. 1260, extends greetings to all.
LEONARD J. WILEY, Asst. to Veniffa, 97 Ivy St., Boston, Kes. 2260, greetings.
F. A. SMALLEY, 38 Forster, East Boston, extends season's greetings to all. 10

Heating, Plumbing and Roofing 28
ROOFING
Specializing in asphalt, shingling Wigent Roofing Co., 192 Cedar St. Framingham 1178.

Painting, Papering, Decorating 29
PAPERING—Parlor, hall and 2 rooms, $12 per room; also painting. Call Milton 2655.

Educational

Dancing 35
LOUIS LERNER
"BOSTON'S LEADING DANCE MASTER"
Offers a Special Course
Latest Ballroom Dancing
TANGO, FOX TROT, WALTZ, COLLEGIATE
Valencia
Socials Wed. eve., 8 to 11:30
Private Lessons Daily
All Styles of Stage Dancing
Taught by Professionals
Black Bottom CLAG
RUSSIAN BALLET, TOE, ACROBATICS, CHEMICAL, CLOG, SPECIALTY, HIGH KICKS AND REDUCING STAGE DANCING TAUGHT
Lerner Dancing Academy
338 Mass. Ave., Cor. Boylston, Back Bay
Priv. and Class 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Circulars

LEARN TO DANCE WELL
CLASS & LESSONS 50c
PRIVATE LESSONS $1
Beginners Are Sure To Learn Here
Latest VALENCIA Collegiate Step
Florence Kelly
School of Modern Dancing
240 HUNTINGTON AVE.
TEL. B. B. 7507

LATEST STEPS GUARANTEED IN PRIVATE LESSONS
Prof. LESLIE'S
880 Mass. Ave., Ken. 5672
BALLROOM
Black-Bottom, Collegiate, Fox Trot, Waltz, Tango
STAGE
Black-Bottom, Collegiate, Fox Trot, Waltz, Tango, Specialties, Routines
Reasons to Rates Results Guaranteed

14 LESSONS $5
Valencia, Half-Time, Collegiate, Waltz
PRIVATE $1 ALL DAY TO 11 P.M.
THE BETTER CLASS SCHOOL
MODEL MODERN DANCING
Miss Fawcett—Miss Hoyt
177 HUNTINGTON AVE.
Any Hostess Supplied Back Bay 6158
Get offat Norway St.

For Ladies Only Hours 10a.m. to 6p.m.
PROF. WISEMAN
130 TREMONT ST. BEACH 3972
Ballroom, Waltz, Collegiate, Tango, Apache. NOTE—One lesson from Prof. Wiseman is more than taking 10 lessons from any other school in Boston.

STAGE DANCING
Buck and Wing, Soft Shoe, Charleston, Eccentric
BILLY KELLER
290 TREMONT ST., BEACH 9073.
Lessons by Appointment Only

State Conservatory
OF DANCING
State Ballroom, State Theatre Bldg., Hanover, Washington, Tango, Apache. Private lessons taught boys and girls, direction Harrold Ivers. Class Wed. 8 p.m. Private lessons daily.
Tel. Beach 9183

MABEL G. HALL
VALENCIA STRICTLY $1
PRIVATE
FOX TROT, WALTZ, STAGE
285 HUNTINGTON AVE., BACK BAY 8167
PARAMOUNT KEN. 2066
SENSATIONAL ACROBATIC DANCING EXPERTS LIMBERING, BALLROOM STYLES, TAUGHT
J. RUSSELL HORISKEY.
W.H.O'Brien 250 Huntington Ave. Tel. Back Bay 0778
Private and class lessons daily, 10 A. M. to 10 P. M. Booklet, circulars.
LOOMIS 93 MASS. AVE.
Tel. KENMORE 9742
PRIVATE LESSONS IN MODERN, STAGE AND TIME DANCING. Class Wed. 8 P. M.

Paparone SCHOOL OF Modern Dancing
Studio Huntington and Symphony Rd. Tel. Back Bay 0778

GraceDarling 250 Huntington Ave.
Private lessons anytime. Kenmore 8320.
Class lessons Wednesday evening.
Private party, tea, Kenmore 8320.
Private party, Talbot 0778.

Beauty Culture School 33
BOSTON'S leading school. Open day or evening classes. Reduced rates now Hemenway Beauty Inst., 407 Mass. Ave.
PRIVATE STUDIO—4 Worcester So. apt 201 Tremont, Beach 9073. Miss Keller.
FELLING'S HAIRDRESSING SCHOOL—Is the best place to learn; waiting list; day culture days. 146 Tremont st., room 712.
STUDY HAIRDRESSING and Manicuring at Miss Keller's, 290 Tremont St. Beach 9073.
TIN CHILD answers $ questions $1.10; 10 questions, $2. Circles Wed. 8. 1 Market Lyn. Mass. Sq. Jackson 966.

Business and Professional Services

Attorneys 18
ADVICE FREE—Everything handled in divorce, separation, annulment, desertion, marriage troubles and other cases. White's Law Office, 353 Washington St., Room 828. Call or write.

Beauty Aids 19
LASCOLL PERMANENT WAVE, $5
No kinks. Looks like a wave. Prof. Tall Tree, 1 Winter St. Hub. 2262.
PERMANENT WAVE, $5
No kinks. Looks like a wave. Prof. Tall Tree, 1 Winter St. Hub. 2262.
BEAUTY CULTURE—Private tuition. Low time, school rates. Bos. 11166, 6 Winter St.
BURNO'S—The largest and best beauty parlor in the world 110 Tremont St. Beach 600-602. Hanover 3010.
PERMANENT WAVE, Marcel, Hair, 50c. 16 Kenmore, 150 Tremont St. Room 616.

Situations Wanted

Situations Wanted—Female 47
DRESSMAKER—French; desires work at home; reasonable. Cen. 2972-R after 5.

Situations Wanted—Male 48
YOUNG man, with sunning lake charge, wants connection with small manufactur ing concern. Box 2177, this paper.

Help Wanted

Help Wanted—Female 50
WOMEN AND GIRLS—Earn $15-$25 weekly in spare time addressing greeting cards. No canvassing. Send 2c stamp for particulars. Novelty for parties etc write 11 Young Capital Theatre Building, Wilmantic, Ct.

ELDERLY lady wanted to supervise fam ily of two children in exchange for light housekeeping duties. E. W. Grundy Co., 50 Church St., Framingham.
EXPERIENCED WAITRESSES—For Florist Shop, North Sta Carolina; apply 9-5 o'clock daily Internat'l Bureau, 22 Lafayette St.
GIRLS—Wanted at once, Metal Mfr. Dept.; Employment Assoc. 1117 Columbus Ave., Roxbury.
GIRLS to color cards at home; exper. help ful but not necessary. Write Box 2178, this paper for particulars. The Betty Alden Studio Co., Duxbury, Mass.
MOTHER'S HELPER—Good home; refer ences; $5 week. Call Roz. 0181-R.
WOMEN, 21 to 45, Carolina apply 9-5 o'clock daily Internat'l Bureau, 22 Lafayette St.
YOUNG LADIES wanted for Musical Comedy Co. Apply Mr. Lewis, Copley Square Hotel, 181 Boylston St. Room 41.

Help Wanted—Male 53
WANTED
Manufacturer's Agent now handling power plant equipment to represent us in New England on feed water and hot water heaters. Commission basis.
MARSHALL HEATER COMPANY
Dayton, Ohio

Two Men With Driver's License
To demonstrate and sell Maytag Washers, willing to work for $150 month to start, splendid opportunity for right men. Apply Maytag Co., 323 Main St., Malden.
WANTED—SALESMAN
25 years or older, for Arlington, Winchester or Woburn and vicinity. Car supplied. Can be started immediately. Only a responsible, energetic man need apply. Mr. Coombs, Room 1, 1 Arlington St., Boston.
WANTED—AMATEURS
Black Bottom, Collegiate, Waltz, Fox Trot, also singers, musicians, acrobats and jugglers, Lerner Dancing Academy, 338 Mass. Ave., Cor. Washington St. Boston. Beach 8672.
WANTED—Salesman to handle unrestricted Steady work for experienced man. Write Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., 1 Park Row, Room 1, Lincoln Co. Management, New York.
WANTED—Young man, with family's household necessity; guaranteed earnings apply Mr. Streeter, 6 Beacon St., Room 1.
Men—Wanted for immediate employment, 45c an hour to start. Apply at once, no need to have grammar school education. Apply 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
MEN—21 reliable, ambitious men, married preferred, to learn permanent work. Must have $20 and bonus to start. Apply 9-5 daily. Internat'l Bureau, 22 Lafayette St.
SALARY and commission paid to men of $50 up for full or spare time; no canvassing; sell tailor orders for FULLER BRUSHES. Apply 1005, Fuller Brushes, 1 Commercial Wharf, Boston.
YOUNG MEN—Steamship positions; Europe; travel; good pay; exp. not necessary send stamp for particulars. Seaboard Co., 11 Broadway, New York.

Help Wanted—Male 53
WANTED—Resident salesman to handle advertising line of baby dresses with knitted features. Apply Box 2179, this paper.

Business Opportunities

Business Opportunities—62
BEAUTY PARLOR
Modern, well established, one, very desirable opportunity Phone Kenmore 1206.
Wonderful opportunity to a good, lively worker; cash or terms. Call at once, directly across from 2 A. M. condition. Annual gross business $15,000. 1 Hunt'sboro.
FRUIT, vegetable and grocery store, Jewish and Gentile trade; cash or terms. Call at once, 1 Hunt'sboro.
FOR SALE—Old established grocery store in Florence, hot water heat, estate, business, good reason for selling. Inquire E. W. Murphy, 29 Plymouth Ave., Florence, Mass. Tel. Northampton 1477-W.
GENTS' haberdashery store, well everything new, must be sold; reason for selling desired. Salem 1151-W, forenoons, and 1st afternoon.
MODERN 10-room rooming house; electric lights, hot water heat; all conveniences. 1 Hunt'sboro. Peterboro St., Cen. 6734-W.
OPPORTUNITY, to purchase business, hotel men, est. 25 years. Bowling alleys, with lunch and bar; reasonable. Illness compels sale. Granite 2662.
PARTNERS WANTED—A business partner only to work with owner of established products, renown $500 in 3 years will not require more. Call 1 to 3 P. M. from 134 Brooks Ave., Arlington, Arlington 3395.
PARTNER WANTED—To handle high class cycle and motorcycle business; best location in Bos. Will bear investigation. Box 2176, this paper.
19-10 RMS., steam, new furn. repair, every thing; rent reasonable; owner leaving city. Kenmore 4129.

Business Opportunities Wanted 64
HOW MY business secret that saved capital, principles only. Hall, Lynn, Mass.

Financial

Money to Loan—On Chattels 71
Workingman's Loan Ass'n STATE No. 2
Robert Treat Paine, 2d, Treas. Loans made on Furniture, Pianos, etc. Repay 10 month plus small charge for use. Car line.
LOANS $25 TO $300 BACK AT RATE OF $4 PER MONTH ON $100
1 Beacon St., Room 301 Tel. Hay 1909
Loans to Salaried People
Beautiful loan security. 5 Tremont St. Suite 22. Phone 2-0-3-3 Harvester.
LOANS on furniture, pianos, etc., without removal; easy payments; quick service. Personal Finance Co. 332 Mass. Ave. Cambridge. Tel. Kirkland 1100.
LOANS up to $200 to housekeepers, easy repayments; also on pianos. Call Beneficial Finance Co. 332 Mass. Ave. Cambridge. Tel. Kirkland 1100.
LOANS up to $300 to housekeepers, Boston Security Co., 1 Beacon St., Room 1010, South Bldg. Hanover 1000.
LOANS on furniture, pianos, etc., without removal; easy payments; quick service. Personal Finance Co. 332 Mass. Ave. Cambridge. Tel. Kirkland 1100.
MONEY to loan

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE ☆ ☆ BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN ☆ ☆ BOSTON JANUARY 10, 1927

Why the Manila 'Politicos' Hate Auditor Wright

FOR the second time within a year President Coolidge has urged the Congress to go to the support of the "American watch-dog of the Philippine treasury"—Ben F. Wright, the Insular Auditor at Manila.

The Insular Auditor was supposed to have had the power to supervise all receipts and expenditures of public money by the Philippine Government. Certain Filipino officials have challenged this interpretation of the law, one of them successfully before the United States Supreme Court. That there may be no doubt that he has this power, the Congress is asked to clarify the law defining his duties.

Why Congress should hesitate to do this nobody seems to know.

If ever a public servant deserved the whole-hearted support of the Government at Washington, Ben Wright deserves it. From the day that he took up his thankless task at Manila he has insisted upon being a real watch-dog of the Philippine treasury. He has refused to be a rubber stamp for anybody—least of all for the Philippine Legislature.

That is why the oligarchy in control of both branches of the Legislature, and the other politicos who jump at the crack of the oligarchy's whip, are hot on the trail of the Insular Auditor.

Wright is charged by the Manila politicos with pursuing, as Auditor, a policy of "non-co-operation"—the same charge which the same crowd has brought against Governor-General Wood. Wright declines to apologize and keeps on disallowing illegal claims against the treasury.

When the Manila oligarchy organized itself into an Independence Commission, and created a yearly appropriation of half a million dollars to spend every year on a junket from Manila to the United States and return, Wright refused to "co-operate."

Convinced, after careful consideration, that there was no authority in law for the organization or financing out of public funds of such a junket, he suspended payments from the fund. He was sustained by the Attorney-General of the United States.

When Wright caught the members of the Philippine Senate tapping an appropriation for "maintenance of the Senate" to pay for transporting their families, equipment and other personal belongings, including automobiles, from their homes all over the Philippines to Manila and return, he refused to "co-operate."

All claims for such transportation were disallowed by his office, and the sneaking practice was stopped.

When Wright caught certain legislators trying to collect five dollars per day for attending meetings of recess committees, when, as a matter of fact, they were absent, he refused to "co-operate."

He could probably have sent these grafters to Bilibid prison for falsifying public documents. Instead, he compelled them to refund the money which they had collected from the Government under false pretences.

Unable to intimidate Wright into "co-operation" at Manila, the politicos, who are after his official scalp, then tried to bring about his recall from Manila by undermining him at Washington.

Under the circumstances, it is not surprising that Governor-General Wood and President Coolidge are supporting this brave and honest public official in his stand for honest government in the Philippines.

What is surprising is that Congress should let a year go by without clinching Auditor Wright's authority.

Rejected Agents Should Not Go On Making More Laws

In November the people elected an entirely new House of Representatives and elected thirty-two members—one-third—of the Senate.

But none of the new Representatives and none of the new Senators will take their seats until December, 1927, thirteen months after being chosen. Until that time we shall be governed by the old Congress, elected in 1924, many of whose members have just been repudiated.

That is not democracy.

The people did not re-elect twelve of the Senators and did not re-elect forty-three of the Representatives who have just returned to Washington to make laws, and will stay there making laws until next March 4, when their terms expire.

These legislative castoffs are called "lame ducks." The unscrupulous ones among them no longer try to please the people—it is too late for that—so they vote to please an Administration which may give them political appointments, or vote to please the corporate interests which may give them jobs after March 4.

It is a bad system of government which encourages these things.

Because Congressional terms end March 4 every odd year we have a "short session" of Congress every second year (this year, for instance), lasting from the first Monday in December to the next 4th of March. That time is too short properly to consider and pass any legislation besides the necessary appropriation bills. So the "short session," with its crowded calendar and its fixed date of adjournment, is an opportunity for "filibusters," "jokers," "riders" and half-baked or harmful laws of all sorts, to be slipped through an overburdened Congress.

That is bad government, too.

It is no use to go back into history to trace the cause of these evils, which were never intended by the framers of the Constitution. They can be remedied by the Constitutional Amendment of Senator Norris. It provides that the terms of Representatives and Senators shall end the first Monday in January, and that Congress shall meet on that date every year.

It would put an end to short sessions and lame ducks. If this were now the law, the Congress we elected in November would have met on January 3, 1927, instead of December 5, 1927. Rule by rejected legislators would be a thing of the past.

There is no open opposition to the amendment in Congress where it must start by passing both Senate and House in the form of a resolution. There is no argument to be brought against it. It has gone through the Senate in the three last Congresses, including the present one, where it passed 67 to 2. It will pass the House as soon as it is allowed to come to a vote, but it has been held off the House calendar by the powerful Rules Committee.

The Republican party leaders bear the responsibility for delaying the Norris Amendment, which would make our Government more democratic and responsive to the will of the people.

Meantime, fifty-five lame ducks are in Washington governing us.

DECEIVED MAN LIKE TURTLE ON BACK

By DR. FRANK CRANE

HAVE you ever watched a turtle on its back?

As it twists its neck and waves its legs, unable to touch anything solid, it is an object for laughter or pity, depending upon who sees it.

If it rights itself it is usually after an exhausting struggle.

A man who has been deceived by a trusted friend is like a turtle on its back.

The world is topsy-turvy, upside down. Everything is empty. There is nothing to grasp hold of. All the solid basis of relationship suddenly has disappeared and he is left beating the empty air.

In older age we learn the sad wisdom of the infidelity of some men.

We learn to expect a certain percentage of failures in mankind.

We are on our guard.

But in childhood being deceived by a supposed friend is meeting the actuality of life suddenly. It leaves an indelible, life-long impression.

The mind and the heart have not had time to become calloused over; the pain of the blister results.

In his mature years the poet, James Whitcomb Riley, said he could remember every detail of an experience in his childhood when he made the heartbreaking discovery that he had been deceived by a trusted chum.

One of life's hardest problems is finding the happy mean of trust in relation to others.

The too-suspicious man finds himself distrusting everyone.

One who trusts no one finds his life becoming bitter and narrow like a salt lake cut off from the waters of the world.

One who is too trusting finds himself continually imposed upon and hurt.

That is an individual problem.

Those who, seeing someone else deceived and losing faith in mankind, can show the sincerity, kindness and honesty that are inherent in the great mass of men, do an act of surpassing value.

It is like giving a lift at the right time to a turtle struggling on its back.

(Copyright, 1927, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Odds and Ends of the Town

SERGEANT JAMES DALY has won another honor to add to the many he has received in the BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT. As one of the "new" members of the department he attracted recognition almost at once. SUPERINTENDENT CROWLEY intrusted him with much confidential work when he was an officer less than a year. Now he has been chosen by DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOLEY for some of the most important work of the county office.

* * *

BOXING NOTE

JIM MURRAY, old-time vaudeville star, whose friends in the theatrical profession, official life and sporting circles are legion, and who is now intermingling the selling of shirts with appearance at charitable entertainments, is one of Boston's strongest boosters for the late JOHN L. SULLIVAN. He insists that JOHN L. at the age of twenty-three could whip TUNNEY, DEMPSEY and all the present-day "greats" of the ring.

* * *

ON THEIR OWN

CHIEF INSPECTOR AINSLEY C. ARMSTRONG, head of the BOSTON BUREAU OF CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION, will some day discover that only a Sherlock Holmes will be able to ferret out his squad of detectives when an emergency arises. The detectives scatter far and wide immediately after morning rollcall. They report in but twice afterwards. The first requirement is to "telephone between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock." The second is to "appear for 6:45 P. M. rollcall to get the good-night."

* * *

NOT SO GOOD

Paint brushes, varnish brushes and the like are all right when sagely handled. But when someone, ordered to put a gloss on the nine-word mail boxes that line the walls of the inspectors' office at POLICE HEADQUARTERS, daubed a resinous liquid over them indiscriminately, little did he think that important matters enclosed therein would be locked securely against re-possession by their rightful owners. INSPECTOR STEPHEN FLAHERTY, one of the first to make discovery of the glued mail boxes, made an impassioned speech.

* * *

IN THE BAG

JUDGE MALCOLM E. STURTEVANT of the SOMERVILLE District Court, who is touring Florida, is sporting a luxurious cowhide traveling bag on his trip. The bag is a gift of the UNION SQUARE RIDING AND DRIVING CLUB, of which the justice is a member. EDWARD J. FUDGE is president of the club, and among the other members participating in the gift was MAYOR LEON M. CONWELL. JUDGE STURTEVANT is a lover of music and is at present in St. Petersburg, where he spends much of his spare time at the afternoon and evening band concerts.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

I BELIEVE IN MYSELF.

I do not mean that I am satisfied or pleased with myself. I am well aware how far short I fall of that which I would wish to be. I know that I have a hot temper, a silly egotism, that I am often selfish, unfair, lazy, cowardly and dishonest. And I have no doubt that I have many other faults which I do not know. Yet, in spite of all this I believe in myself. For I believe that this mysterious Self of mine, of which I know so little and which I have so misused, is a very important piece of creation. I think its true nature is noble and strong and beautiful. I think it has a great mission—a mission which only I can perform. I think that the power which made it expects great things of Myself, and that even the smallest act which I commit has deep significance.

So I believe in Myself. I BELIEVE IN OTHER PEOPLE.

I do not always act as if I believed in them, however. I spend a great deal of time criticising them. I say they are stupid, untrustworthy. I get angry with them. I quarrel with them and laugh at them. But in my secret heart, I believe in them.

I think they're intensely important and interesting. I feel sure that they are not stupid all through—any more than I am stupid all through. I think that I am capable of doing stupid, cowardly, brutal, mean things just as I am capable of doing such things. But I believe that honor dwells in them, and love and courage. I believe this because I have seen such amazing flashes of loveliness in the ugliest people. Like spurts of flame through a thick bed of ashes. How could a flame spurt through ashes unless there was a fire beneath? I am sure there is fire beneath—immortal sacred fire which not even the grime of this poor, muddled life can choke.

I BELIEVE IN LIFE.

I know that life seems harsh and unfair. Even the wisest and strongest of us are filled with fear and hate from the day we enter this world until the day we die. We miss our days in a dark and bloody jungle of cruelty. And the cruelty without us is as nothing to the cruelty we harbor in our own souls.

Nor do things seem to be growing very much better. Certain outward circumstances have improved, but it is doubtful if there is any less pain in the world than there was ten thousand years ago—or any better brand of love.

I admit all this. And yet I believe in Life. I believe that Life has a splendid purpose.

I don't know the right theory. But I believe in Life. And I'm going to stick it through. I BELIEVE IN GOD.

Copyright, 1927, King Features Synd., Inc.

What Do You Know?

A serious attempt to determine the correct answers to these questions each day should give you a broad background of useful facts.

1. Belshazzar was King of ——.
2. A censer is a vessel in which —— is burned.
3. Carrara marble comes from northern ——.
4. Sidney —— was a poet of the South.
5. To Rear Admiral —— of the United States goes the honor discovering the North Pole.
6. Benjamin Franklin lived in the —— century.

Rearrange so that opposites are paired:

7. Sad	Restrict
8. Indistinct	Torpid
9. Expand	Cessure
10. Praise	Jubilant
11. Eager	Unmistakable

Where is:

12. Vesuvius
13. Normandy
14. Racine.
15. St. Paul's Cathedral designed by Sir Christopher Wrenn.

See tomorrow's paper to verify your answers. Answers to Saturday's test: 1, Bird; 2, gourd; 3, curious animal; 4, deep sea animal; 5, building; 6, beetle; 7, Russia; 8, Greece; 9, United States; 10, Denmark; 11, England; 12, false; 13, true; 14, false; 15, true.

Copyright, 1927, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Four Moons of Jupiter

By Garrett P. Serviss,
Noted Astronomer and Writer
Scientific Topics of Popular Interest.

IT seems finally to have been established that Jupiter's four moons behave like the earth's one moon in keeping the same face always turned toward their "primary," i.e., toward Jupiter. This has long been supposed to be the case, both on theoretical grounds and because of certain observations of the telescopic appearance of these satellites at different points in their orbits; but now Professor Joel Stebbins, of Wisconsin University, working with a twelve-inch telescope at the Lick Conservatory, has furnished evidence, by means of delicate photoelectric determinations, that the regularly changing brightness of the satellites as they travel around the planet, has the same period as that of their revolution around Jupiter. This change of brightness is apparently due to variations of the reflecting power of different parts of the surfaces of the satellites.

As Jupiter is more than 400,000,000 miles away, the details of the satellites are not clearly discernible with telescopes.

Since there is independent telescopic evidence that Jupiter's moons have different degrees of reflective power on different parts of their surfaces, the conclusion is warranted that the observed changes of brightness are caused by the successive presentation toward the observer now of a darker side of the moon and now of a lighter one, the change occurring periodically in step with the revolution around Jupiter. This would be accounted for if the moon turned half way round on its axis while going half way round Jupiter.

The curious periodicity of the light changes in coincidence with the period of revolution has been detected by Professor Stebbins in the case of the second, third and fourth of the satellites, but the first is too near Jupiter at all times to permit it because of the interference of the light of the planet itself, which gets into the photoelectric cell along with that of the satellite.

But since the cause that has slowed down the rotation period to coincide with that of the orbital revolution is no doubt "tidal friction," which would be stronger as the satellite was nearer the primary, it may safely be assumed that the first satellite behaves just as do its more distant sisters.

Jupiter has four large moons, and in addition five more small ones, some of which may be captured asteroids.

Copyright, 1927, International Feature Service, Inc.